Finish what? Defending myself against a fucking poor bastard who got fucked by his dad?
I honestly really do feel bad for you, especially having a mother that moved back into the house with the guy who raped your asshole.

You've confirmed that I found you getting touched by your daddy by emailing this account because this email address has never been used for anything else.

Move on Mathew, I can't be your surrogate daddy, you won't be getting raped by me, leave me alone.

Not Legion Killfeed, the fact he impersonates my business is a further sign of fraud he commits
