A scammer attempted to scam me for my services, then a few days later they came back and made a payment, a week later their payment bounced and now they are making threats to "ruin my trustpilot score" even though I have evidence they are lying about me "cancelling payments". My score is something I pride myself and my business on and it's been 6 months since they even attempted to use my services, they have a large server of 3000 members and I'm concerned they are going to use them to flood my reviews.
