Dear Megha S,

I am reaching out again regarding a review on my business profile that contains false claims, personal attacks, and misleading information, directly violating Trustpilot's Personal Information and Harassment guidelines.

Review in Question:

"Worst Killfeed Bot going. If you want to use a bot where the owner cancels ur payments and speaks rude to you all the time, then this bot is for u. But the slow and lazy feeds that come to Discord take ages. I rate these 0/10. Owner's rude and picks and chooses who he wants on his bot."

Why This Review Violates Trustpilot's Guidelines:

Personal Information & Targeted Harassment

- * The review is not about the service itself but a direct attack on me personally as the business owner.
- * The reviewer repeatedly refers to "the owner" in an attempt to damage my reputation rather than critique the business.
- * Trustpilot's guidelines state that reviews should not be used to target individuals or make defamatory statements about a person rather than their business.

False & Misleading Claims

- * The claim that I "cancel payments" is factually false—payments are handled automatically via third-party services like PayPal and Ko-Fi, meaning I cannot manually cancel a payment.
- * The reviewer never successfully made a payment, which I have documented evidence of, so they could not have used the service they are reviewing.
- * I provided screenshots and proof to the reviewer that their payment did not go through, yet they chose to spread false information publicly instead.

3.

Malicious Intent & Prior Harassment

- * This individual returned 6 months after their last interaction solely to leave a defamatory review, despite never paying for the service.
- * They have admitted in our Discord that they left this review specifically to damage my reputation, which proves malicious intent rather than genuine feedback.

Attempts to Resolve the Issue

- * I have already reached out to the reviewer on Trustpilot to clarify and correct the false claims, but they have not responded or edited their review to remove the misinformation.
- * I have exhausted my ability to flag this review under multiple categories, but each time it was denied without a proper review under "Personal Information."

* Since Trustpilot's system is limiting my ability to submit a proper Personal Information report, I am requesting manual intervention from your team.

Request for Immediate Action

I kindly ask for this review to be removed under Trustpilot's Personal Information and Harassment policies, as it is:

- ✓ A personal attack rather than a business review
- ✓ Factually false and misleading to consumers
- ✓ A targeted attempt to harm my business reputation

I am happy to provide all relevant proof, screenshots, and transaction records to support my request.

Thank you for your time, and I appreciate your assistance in ensuring Trustpilot reviews comply with community standards.

Best regards,

Anthony Brodie

I am submitting a report regarding a review on my business profile that contains personal attacks, false claims, and defamatory language directed at me as the owner. The review violates Trustpilot's guidelines under the Personal Information category, as it includes statements that misrepresent my actions and unfairly target me rather than providing a genuine customer experience.

Review in Question:

"Worst Killfeed Bot going. If you want to use a bot where the owner cancels ur payments and speaks rude to you all the time, then this bot is for u. But the slow and lazy feeds that come to Discord take ages. I rate these 0/10. Owner's rude and picks and chooses who he wants on his bot."

Violations of Trustpilot Guidelines:

1. Personal Attacks & Defamation

- * The review is not a critique of the product or service but rather an attack on me personally.
- * Statements like "the owner cancels ur payments," "the owner is rude," and "picks and chooses who he wants on his bot" make direct, unverified accusations against me, which could mislead potential users.
- * The review lacks any supporting evidence for these claims, making them baseless, misleading, and defamatory rather than constructive feedback.

2. Misleading & False Claims

- * The claim that I "cancel payments" suggests intentional financial misconduct, which is false and harmful to my reputation. Payment handling is automated through third-party services, meaning I do not manually cancel payments.
- * The assertion that the bot is "slow and lazy" is an opinion, which would be acceptable if it were backed by factual observations. However, it is used in conjunction with false claims to discredit my service unfairly.

3. Violation of Trustpilot's Personal Information Policy

- * Trustpilot prohibits reviews that target individuals rather than businesses. This review explicitly refers to me as an individual, stating that I "speak rude to customers" and "pick and choose who can use the bot."
- * This makes the review about me personally rather than about the service itself, which is against Trustpilot's guidelines.

Request for Removal

Given that this review:

- ☒ Directly attacks me instead of reviewing the service

- ✓ Contains misleading and false claims about my actions
- ✓ Violates Trustpilot's Personal Information policy

I kindly request that Trustpilot removes this review from my business profile. I appreciate your time in reviewing this report and ensuring that all feedback on Trustpilot adheres to fair and transparent guidelines.
