

To: Trustpilot Content Integrity <contentintegrity@trustpilot.com>

To: Trustpilot Content Integrity <contentintegrity@trustpilot.com>

About your review of trustpilot.com Inbox x

On Wed, Aug 6, 2025 at 2:06 PM Trustpilot Content Integrity <contentintegrity@trustpilot.com> wrote:

Unfortunately, your review didn't make it online, or we've had to take it offline because our automated technology detected that your review seems to be about a different business, not Trustpilot. You can find a copy of your review at the bottom of this email.

Each business has its own profile page on Trustpilot, showcasing reviews and information about them. Your review was posted on Trustpilot's own profile page, which is meant for reviews about Trustpilot.

If you'd like to review a particular business, you can search for their profile page on Trustpilot's homepage and write your review.

If you think we've got it wrong and your review describes your experience with the Trustpilot platform, please let us know by replying to this email.

Here's a copy of your review:

Scam. Stay away! He takes your money and deleted your server if you disagree with anything he says

Visit Trustpilot | Help Center | Trustpilot Privacy Policy