Hi TikTok Team,

I am sure this is a lot for you to unpack but and understand but please review all evidence regardless of platform so you can see the pattern I am trying to show you.

Who is who:

- Me, the target: Anthony 'Soul' Brodie (Legion Killfeed owner)
- Skynet Killfeed: direct competitor to Legion Killfeed
TikTok profile: <https://www.tiktok.com/@skynetkillfeed>
- CrixMadineJr: competitor-side account that repeatedly engages and provokes
TikTok profile: <https://www.tiktok.com/@crixmadinejr>
- BIGFATMODS: competitor-side brand/page (their DayZ servers) also used to comment/react
TikTok profile: <https://www.tiktok.com/@bigfatmods>
- TheCollective: competitor-side DayZ servers brand (shows up viewing/stalking my TikTok profile)
TikTok profile: <https://www.tiktok.com/@collectiveservers>
- 404legionprogress: retaliation account created after blocks, built specifically to tag me and mock "no progress"
TikTok profile: <https://www.tiktok.com/@404legionprogress>
- dayzmemes5: alt/sockpuppet that appears after blocks to keep the harassment going
TikTok profile: <https://www.tiktok.com/@dayzmemes5>
- asoulof2: a naming jab at my email "asoulof1@gmail.com" (they create variants to needle me and impersonate the theme)
TikTok profile: <https://www.tiktok.com/@asoulof2>

The pattern (what I need you to understand)

This is not "random comments". It's a repeated pattern across platforms:

1. Competitor-side accounts comment/provoke on my content.
2. If I block or remove their comments, new alt accounts appear to continue.
3. In parallel, they use report abuse / mass reporting to try to take content down or restrict my accounts.
4. The same cluster then spills into another platform (Discord → TikTok → Facebook → Trustpilot), repeating the same behavior: provoke, spam, report, then rewrite the narrative elsewhere.

Timeline of the Jan 2026 cluster.

Jan 5–11: TikTok harassment starts, then escalates into takedowns + retaliation accounts

- Competitor account (CrixMadineJr) is in my comment sections (baseline harassment presence).
- I post content; after they engage and I block/remove, my video is removed by TikTok guidelines, then later restored on appeal. That looks like report abuse rather than legitimate policy enforcement.
- Immediately after blocking, a retaliation account appears (404legionprogress) whose entire purpose is to tag me in their bio and mock my product.
- After that, more accounts from the same cluster show up (dayzmemes5, skynetkillfeed, collectiveservers) to keep engagement/pressure going.

Jan 12–13: It crosses into Discord with mass-report tools and my account gets hit, then Discord reverses it

- A user in my Discord server spam-posts a "MassReporter & Lagswitch" zip and explicitly encourages people to mass report the server. This aligns with the same timing as the TikTok takedown/report behavior.
- My Discord account then gets account standing restrictions / violations, consistent with a mass-report wave on older posts.
- Discord later removes those violations after review, supporting that this was abusive reporting, not genuine rule-breaking.

Jan 17–19: It spills into Facebook (spam comments/reactions), then Trustpilot (narrative attack)

- Facebook: the same competitor-side identities/pages spam comments across my posts/reels and react/follow, with notifications showing multiple hits in a short window.
- Trustpilot: a review appears from the same individual identity cluster pushing a "story" against me (same narrative warfare, different platform).

- <https://they-wish-i.died.space/harrassment/2026-01-19-griggs-spinning-narrative-on-trustpilot-dayz-multi-tool.png>
Another Trustpilot item, including status/actions (continues the cross-platform narrative warfare).

What I'm asking you to do.

- Treat this as coordinated harassment + block evasion + report abuse across multiple accounts and platforms.
- Investigate these accounts as a linked cluster (not individually in isolation).
- Review report logs around Jan 9–13 and Jan 17–19, 2026 for abnormal reporting patterns targeting my content/accounts.
- Preserve evidence and take enforcement action for:
 - coordinated harassment,
 - abuse of reporting systems,
 - spam,
 - impersonation/name-jab accounts (asoulof2),
 - retaliation accounts created solely to target/tag me (404legionprogress).

Thanks,

Anthony Brodie
