Legion Kill feed, What's souls issue?

So I am completely confused. I bought a server yesterday morning, changed the loot economy, animal/zombies quantity and spawn points. Got that all set up and noticed a few people join here and there, so I started a discord server last night around midnight and started adding the LegionKillfeed. I got everything set up added my API token which failed a few times till I fixed the permissions. So today I was trying to edit more make a rules list and see what I could do with the kill feed but I deleted a channel so the kill feed left my server and I tried adding it back. Well the API token wasn't working so I tried to get the bots help and accidentally invited to the server instead. I tried the API a few more times and it failed so I was confused I thought all was fixed when soul messaged me asking what's my problem. I responded and said I'm having a problem with setting it up and this is what they replied "Of course you're not, you aren't using a token sending * to the bot. You're 100% an alt tryna fuck with my shit. You only had my bot in here get a life". I responded and they stopped texting me. So I joined the kill feeds discord and he had @ me and said what's my problem I said nothing that I just need help, explained and he just kept accusing me of being an alt or something saying because I was the only one in the server I was a fake. I told him I just messed up the channel and he said that my token wasn't a token and that he knows I'm a fake that I have to know who he is because I'm in AGGRO PvP but I've only joined the discord to know the rules other then that I mute all servers unless they specifically @ me. Well he ended up banning me from everything after I asked why he was being so mean and that all I'm trying to do is set up a server for my mom and I. Has this happened to anyone else? Is he always such a douche? He didn't let me prove anything just accused me a bunch and I've never met the dude or had any other interactions yet he was adamant that because I was on aggro I must be some sort of hack or something I'm not sure. I'm just really confused and would like some alternatives to the kill feed I've seen a few but if anyone has any recommendations that are easier for first time users I'd be appreciative.

UPDATE: Soul responded and made a fake account which he accused me of, to comment on this post 2 months later after a few others came forward about his behavior towards them.

UPDATE #2: Soul has made multiple fake accounts now and is still commenting on this post 6 months later!! Don't press on any of the links or anything that he sends I've been informed he's a serious problem in the coding/DayZ community. If you have his bot get it out of your server now! Check any and all commenters post history as most of the accts backing him have just been made!

the account forever are you actually insane or seriously paranoid?

Lmao Abused you? You didn't add anything of what I first said or what you responded. Plus do you even know what slander means? "the action or crime of making a false spoken statement damaging to a person's reputation"

Everything I said was true and I have the screenshots

Also had to look up what SQL injection means because like I said several times I just started a server and was trying to figure out how everything worked and if you had actually listened rather than being a douche you would have came to the same realization that I did, which was BahBahBlackSheep was the description name of my token not the actual token itself as I thought the description was a password to use for the token.

Yeah obviously newby mistake who knows nothing about coding.

Also I reset up the channels 4 times because it's wasn't logging my connections to the server. If I'm such a big hacker why dont you soul, apparently the person involved in every little thing and knows everything when it comes to hackers know me? And what post about toxicly raiding players? One of my last posts is a post on finding a server a couple of guys said to add them and that I'd look into making my own server. I even have the discord sent and one of them joined so go off I guess. Doesn't matter though I found another killfeed and it works no problems and guess what when I had dumb ass questions they didn't ban me from everything. By the way very poor way to run a business.

You're slandering me, accusing me of a crime and saying I abused you it's truly laughable. Someone as you say is so reputable.

Also by the way my post was asking if anyone else has dealt with your douchiness and I quoted you. Anyway I got everything set up without your stupid shit and useless 'help'

I also wrote a review because y'all were helping educate me having no clue about code and absolutely no judgement. I really appreciate it and am so glad I found y'all's bot. Y'all rock! 💪

Legion Killfeed is just around to collect and sell your files. He's done so in the past with other servers. Before the killfeed he deleted Greedys server files and also the servers of multiple servers he had FTP access to. These are not false claims this is JUST who Soul is. Look around he's got the scammer tag is many of the DayZ discords.

ThisIsWeird01 • 1y ago

Soul has a reputation for being toxic, not for scamming. The FTP files you reference, Greedy said it wasn't Soul. That DayZ Skynet guy said it was "Azzy" whoever that is.

Lmao bro you made a fake account to comment on a post from 2 months ago. Grow TF up, I've moved on and found a better bot and multiple people have said you're a hack. I don't need anything else from you, and I blocked for the same reason I'm gonna block you before you can see this. You are not worth it to argue with you're clearly delusional and have a real issue with people calling you out on your bs (hence make a fake 2 months later😂) I've even had people send private DMs confirming you did similar if not the same shit. Anyway you're just making yourself look worse, Maybe get therapy?

There's been hundreds of complaints in the community about legion Killfeed. The bot downloads custom files from customers and the owner Soul (the Killfeed maker) sells them for profit.

Soul is a known Scammer is so many communities. Would never ever ever trust him to hold a token for any server!

So many bad experiences with Legion killfeed. This bot should be watched and avoided at all cost it might look okay but the code has malicious intent. It removed and edited my files without my permission. It also adjusted servers settings was told " it's needed for the bot to work"

Soul has screwed over other owners in the past and has a bad reputation with a lot of servers owners.

DO YOUR RESEARCH BEFORE ADDING LEGION KILLFEED!!!

It's been proven 99% of this is just slander from 'DayZ Skynet Killfeed' Two of the comments (months apart) are from the developer who was on Legion's staff and stole multiple folders of code when he was removed as staff.

Dies ist nicht der Benutzer, den Sie in Frage haben. Die Informationen wurden zusammen mit einem Datenbank-Dump durchgesickert. Es ist bekannt, dass Soul FTP nutzt, um Server zu zerstören und Chaos in der DayZ-Community anzurichten. Der Benutzer konzentriert sich auch mehr auf das Drama als auf grundlegende Sicherheitsbedürfnisse, einschließlich SQL-Injection in die Datenbank. das muss noch behoben werden. Es gibt viele Leute, die klare Beweise vorlegen, dass dieser Benutzer nur auf finanziellen Gewinn und persönlichen Gewinn wichtiger Informationen aus ist. Dieser Benutzer entwendet Benutzerdateien mithilfe eines Tokens, um Benutzerdateien zu verkaufen und zu verteilen, um damit finanziellen Gewinn zu erzielen. Sehen Sie sich die Antworten und Rückmeldungen anderer Benutzer an, die in diesem Thread aufgeführt sind.

Wenn Sie darauf aus sind, gehackt und Dateien von Soul Lags gestohlen zu werden, zahlen Sie tatsächlich seine Gebühr und weinen Sie nicht, wenn es passiert. Soul engagiert sich für Drama in der Gemeinschaft. Er kümmert sich nicht um dich oder irgendjemand anderen, er kümmert sich nur um sein Drama und wird sein ganzes Geschäft darauf ausrichten. Der Mann konzentriert sich mehr auf Drama als auf die Arbeit an seinen kaputten Bots mit schlechter Sicherheit.

If you're looking to get hacked and have your files stolen by Soul Lags, actually pay his fee and don't cry when it happens. Soul is committed to creating drama in the community. He doesn't care about you or anyone else; he only cares about his drama and will base his entire business around it. The man is more focused on drama than on working on his broken bots with poor security.

This is not the user you are questioning. The information was leaked along with a database dump. Soul is known to use FTP to destroy servers and wreak havoc on the DayZ community. The user is also more focused on drama than basic security needs, including SQL injection into the database, which has yet to be fixed. There are many people who provide clear evidence that this user is only interested in financial gain and personal gain of important information. This user is hijacking user files using a token to sell and distribute user files for financial gain. Check out the replies and feedback from other users listed in this thread.

Keep it up with the alts and slander dude, it's a registered business.
SQL injection can be classed as a cyber crime.
Attempting SQL injection on a registered business can have serious repurcussions.
I bought up that you were in Aggro PVP (my server where I started the killfeed), because you had been in there

I wonder why Soul has a reason to be paranoid?
Could it be that Patriot from `DayZKillfeed.com` is using the bot and recruiting the other people using it while DayZ++ is in my DMs bringing up the last time `DayZKillfeed.com` was cloning one of my bots whilst at the same time, DayZ++ is ripping of features from it
Ya'll are ridiculous.

If you're looking to get hacked and have your files stolen by Soul Lags, actually pay his fee and don't cry when it happens. Soul is committed to creating drama in the community. He doesn't care about you or anyone else; he only cares about his drama and will base his entire business around it. The man is more focused on drama than on working on his broken bots with poor security.

This is not the user you are questioning. The information was leaked along with a database dump. Soul is known to use FTP to destroy servers and wreak havoc on the DayZ community. The user is also more focused on drama than basic security needs, including SQL injection into the database, which has yet to be fixed. There are many people who provide clear evidence that this user is only interested in financial gain and personal gain of important information. This user is hijacking user files using a token to sell and distribute user files for financial gain. Check out the replies and feedback from other users listed in this thread.

Soul has done nothing for his killfeed and when asked about it I got banned with no money back on my subscription. He's just going and scamming people for their tokens and money I would highly recommend any other bot.

So many bad experiences with Legion killfeed. This bot should be watched and avoided at all cost it might look okay but the code has malicious intent. It removed and edited my files without my permission. It also adjusted servers settings was told "it's needed for the bot to work"
Soul has screwed over other owners in the past and has a bad reputation with a lot of servers owners.

@aSoul You made the discord this morning. (edited)

I'm_Obviously_Mario Today at 2:21 PM
yes i bought my server last night im confused is there an issue with just making the server, Ive had discord itself for years

aSoul BOT Today at 2:23 PM
And only added my bots specifically . No normal moderation bots, for someone with a discord older than mine (as you said) you're red hot mate. It costs $7 for a an aged account.

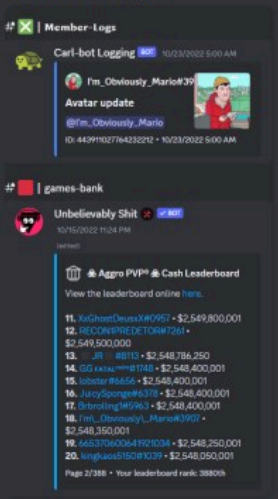

Quite abusing too aren't ya?
You know where you fucked up?

I'm_Obviously_Mario Today at 2:26 PM
okay im not sure why theres such an issue, like ive said serveal times i dont know what im doing and i dont understand why I have to prove myself to you. like I said I havent never had my own server, every other dayz server has this killfeed and i didnt even know anyone would see what i was trying to do. i didnt know i had to pay for anything as my server isnt crazy just added loot animals and zombies (edited)

aSoul BOT Today at 2:27 PM
You're in Aggro and have been in there for years, you know who I am if you're in my server.

I'm_Obviously_Mario Today at 2:27 PM

nothing can you just please help me i know nothing about discord servers and setting up the server with the killfeed im trying to learn i thought i had everything set up yesterday but i deleted a channel and my how killfeed went away it said please give feedback but thats not what i was wanting to do. my token is bahbahblacksheep and it worked yesterday but now it keeps saying invalid

aSoul BOT Today at 2:17 PM
You had the bot working properly yesterday so don't lie. We can't get your service ID without a token. BahBahBlackSheep is not a token. (edited)

You made the discord this morning. (edited)

I'm_Obviously_Mario Today at 2:20 PM
yes I know, but it worked yesterday so what am I doing wrong is it because the token that worked and that i used yesterday was bahbahblacksheep I made the token so do i need to make a new api token?
does the server need to be completley set up before adding the killfeed?
the dayz server is running and i had a few people join but i was setting up the discord before I do anything legit

So you use DayZ Editor to build custom areas/buildings/loot etc.
Once you finished the build, you upload it to your servers files.
May be different for PC but we personally are console and upload everything to our files from the host Nitrado.
When you save the build in editor, console normally exports to JSON and adds the build to the /custom folder

If you're looking to get hacked and have your files stolen by Soul Lags, actually pay his fee and don't cry when it happens. Soul is committed to creating drama in the community. He doesn't care about you or anyone else; he only cares about his drama and will base his entire business around it. The man is more focused on drama than on working on his broken bots with poor security.

This is not the user you are questioning. The information was leaked along with a database dump. Soul is known to use FTP to destroy servers and wreak havoc on the DayZ community. The user is also more focused on drama than basic security needs, including SQL injection into the database, which has yet to be fixed. There are many people who provide clear evidence that this user is only interested in financial gain and personal gain of important information. This user is hijacking user files using a token to sell and distribute user files for financial gain. Check out the replies and feedback from other users listed in this thread.

Soul has done nothing for his killfeed and when asked about it I got banned with no money back on my subscription. He's just going and scamming people for their tokens and money I would highly recommend any other bot.

So many bad experiences with Legion killfeed. This bot should be watched and avoided at all cost it might look okay but the code has malicious intent. It removed and edited my files without my permission. It also adjusted servers settings was told "it's needed for the bot to work"
Soul has screwed over other owners in the past and has a bad reputation with a lot of servers owners.

Hi Reddit Legal,

Your latest response stating that you are "not processing" my report and implying that it may be duplicative, frivolous, vexatious, or submitted in bad faith is noted and rejected.

This notice is made in good faith. I am an Australian business owner dealing with clear, ongoing reputational and financial harm arising from targeted false statements on your platform. I have given you specific URLs, explained the basis in Australian defamation law, and requested removal, preservation, and a clear decision. That is exactly what a good-faith defamation complainant is required to do.

For the avoidance of doubt: this is a defamation complaint, not an Online Safety Act "restricted content" report. You have been on notice about this material since 2024. Every refusal to act after notice is a fresh publication and will be relied on as such.

Your own records show that I have repeatedly used your in-product reporting systems and Help Center in good faith, including but not limited to the reports and admin decisions visible at:

https://www.reddit.com/message/messages/2fol8po
https://www.reddit.com/message/messages/2fnszgp
https://www.reddit.com/message/messages/2fnsu3q
https://www.reddit.com/message/messages/2cu5yzm

Those reports flagged targeted harassment, impersonation, and commercial interference. They identified u/Brief_Ordinary1438 as a direct competitor and former staff member engaging in a coordinated smear campaign across Reddit, Discord, and Facebook, and explained that their posts were damaging my business. Admin responses used templates stating "no violation" while leaving the same defamatory content online. My later notices simply repeat the same URLs because Reddit has never dealt with the defamation issue. Re-notifying you while the same material remains live is not bad faith; it is direct evidence that Reddit is continuing publication after notice.

For completeness, I am attaching representative screenshots showing the scope of the defamation, the cross-platform coordination, the competitor involvement, and the real business harm caused:

• Pedophile accusation made in a Discord DayZ community by the same individuals involved in the Reddit thread.
• Facebook posts by the same users coordinating false reports and encouraging others to "get Legion shut down".
• Customer cancellations directly caused by the defamatory rumours.
• Multiple Reddit comments from u/Brief_Ordinary1438 falsely alleging that I hack servers, steal files, inject SQL, sell user data, destroy servers, or run "malicious code".
• Evidence linking "Brief_Ordinary1438" to Mathew Trojanowski, a direct competitor whose own site and posts confirm his involvement in rival services.
• Long-term harassment, threats, impersonation, and cross-platform smear attempts, including suicide-baiting directed at me.
• Additional Discord conversations showing that competitors openly discuss having my business attacked, reported, and shut down.

These records show that:

– the allegations are factual assertions, not opinions
– the statements are false
– the defamatory content is coordinated and commercially motivated
– the harm is real, including financial loss and customer cancellations
– I have reported this repeatedly for over a year
– Reddit has ignored every good-faith attempt to resolve it

The accusations that I hack users, destroy servers, access private files, sell data, or have "malicious code" in my bot are extremely serious. They are fabricated. They meet the serious harm threshold under the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW and harmonised Acts). They target an identifiable Australian business and its owner and have already caused substantial damage.

Labelling my complaint as potentially "frivolous, vexatious or in bad faith" in the face of this documented history will itself be relied on as part of any claim for aggravated damages.

I repeat my key requests:

• Remove the URLs previously notified, including:
https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9029/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue and the linked comments identified in earlier notices.

• Confirm preservation of all related content, logs and metadata (including account IDs, IP addresses, device identifiers, moderator actions, escalation notes, and prior reports).

• Confirm that this matter has been escalated to the appropriate legal/defamation review team for Australian matters, not dismissed with a generic template.

• Provide a clear written decision on this defamation notice.

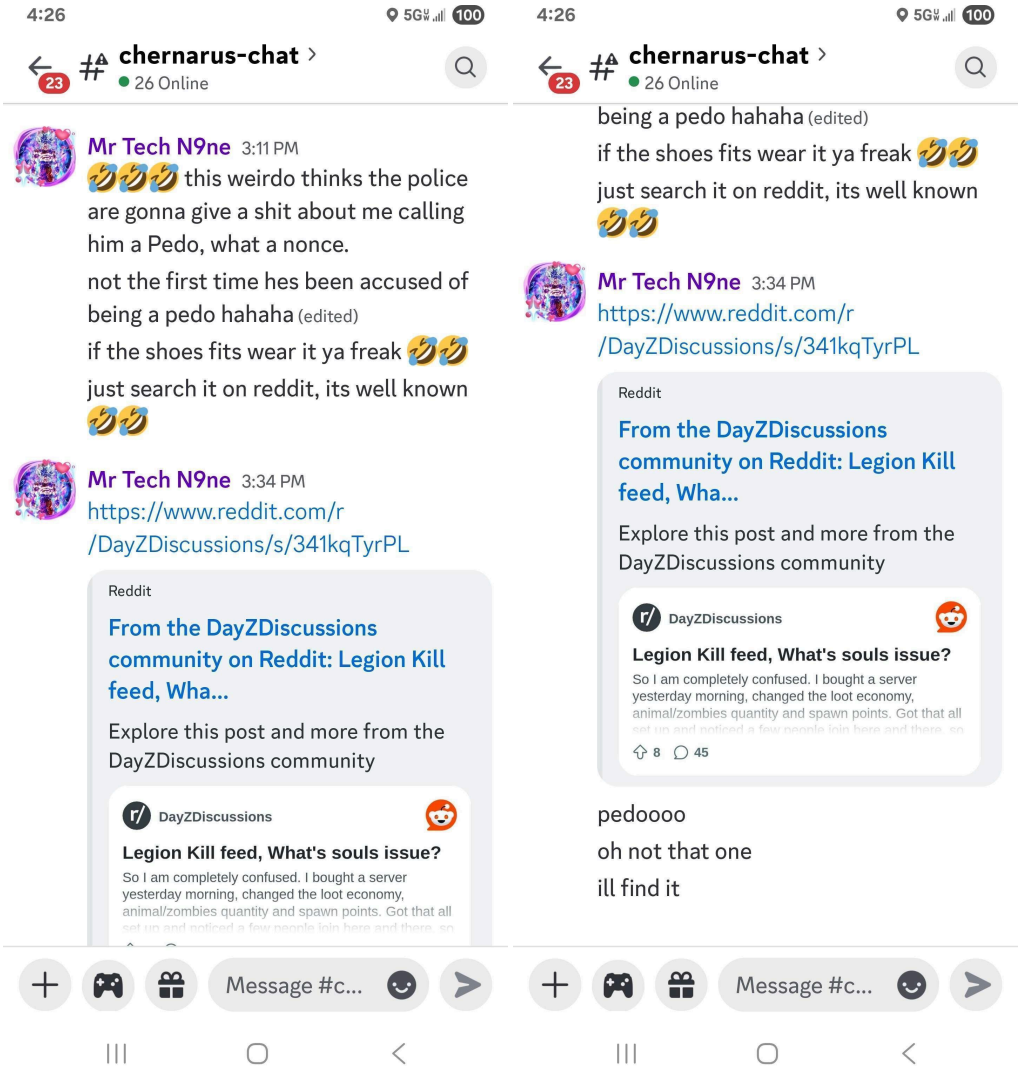

Proceedings in Australia are being prepared and will go ahead regardless. If Reddit continues to refuse to process this as a defamation complaint while leaving the material online, I will proceed on the basis that:

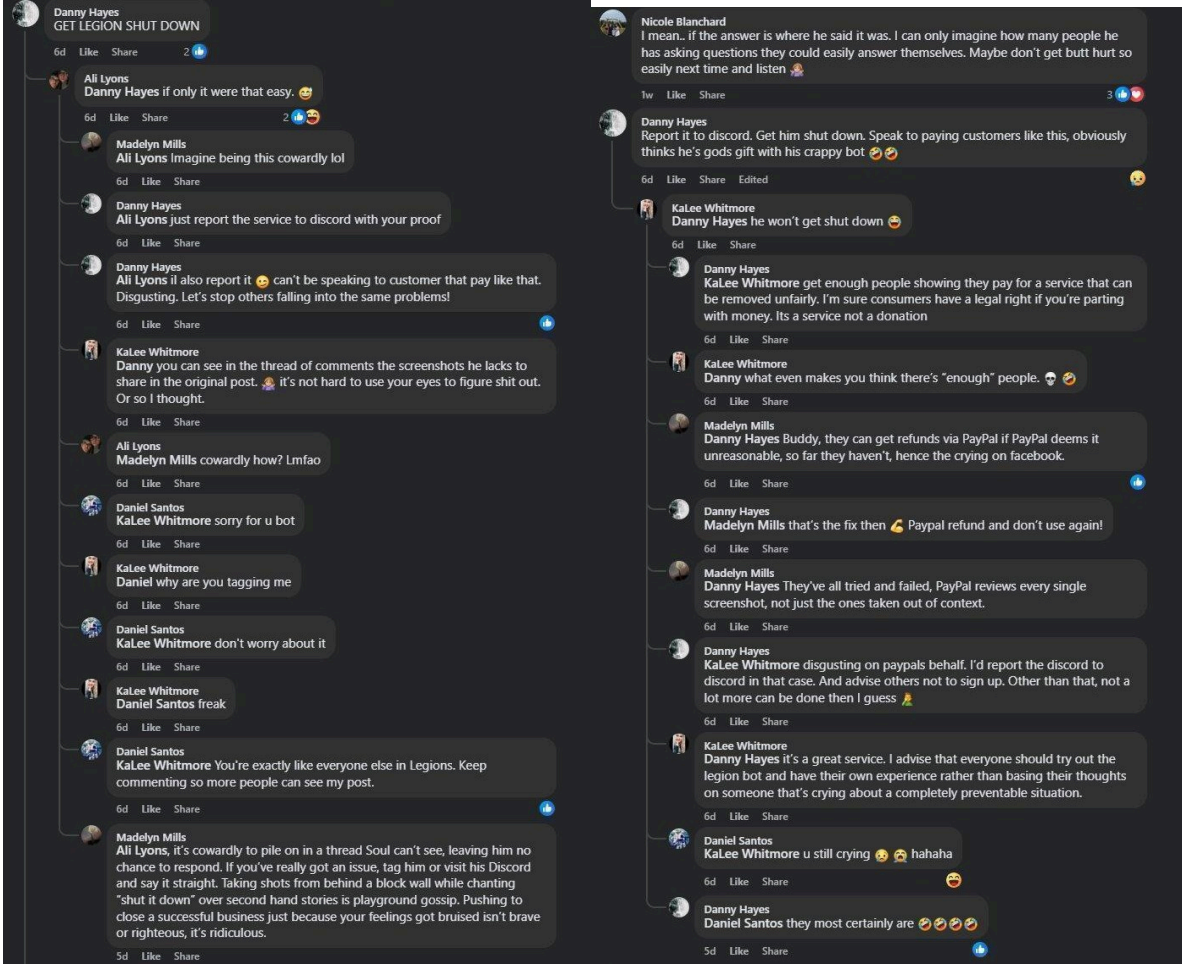

• Reddit is a publisher for the purposes of Australian defamation law;
• Reddit has knowingly continued publication after notice; and
• Reddit's dismissals and non-action will be relied upon in support of aggravated damages and costs.

This is an opportunity to mitigate, not avoid, your exposure. If you maintain the position that you will not process this notice or remove the URLs, please state so explicitly so I can place it before the court and the relevant regulators.

Regards,
Soul

You know man I haven't been well I'm still getting slandered by that bitch. I've attempted to kill myself 8 times in the last week and I have no motivation anymore. Yes I've been back and no I haven't talked to hardly anyone.
You don't understand how fuck this made all off my life how a bunch of full bullshit lies she has.

You know I never deleted a single file. If she didn't block me maybe she could have gotten the email I got about data loss on the LA network that caused the files to delete. So keep believing what you think before you know the whole story. She manipulates people and I thought I was but you know what she made that lie up and made me believe it was all me.

You let it go because apparently I can and I have tried but you know what the slander and bullshit keeps going on imma do something about it I've had it she wants to keep pushing me she hasn't even seen the half of me.

You all "think" you know what I'm capable of but you guys have no idea but you know what I had things to lose and now I don't so how the next few weeks go night be interesting depending on how she wants to play this but know I'm not going to back down if she keeps pushing me.

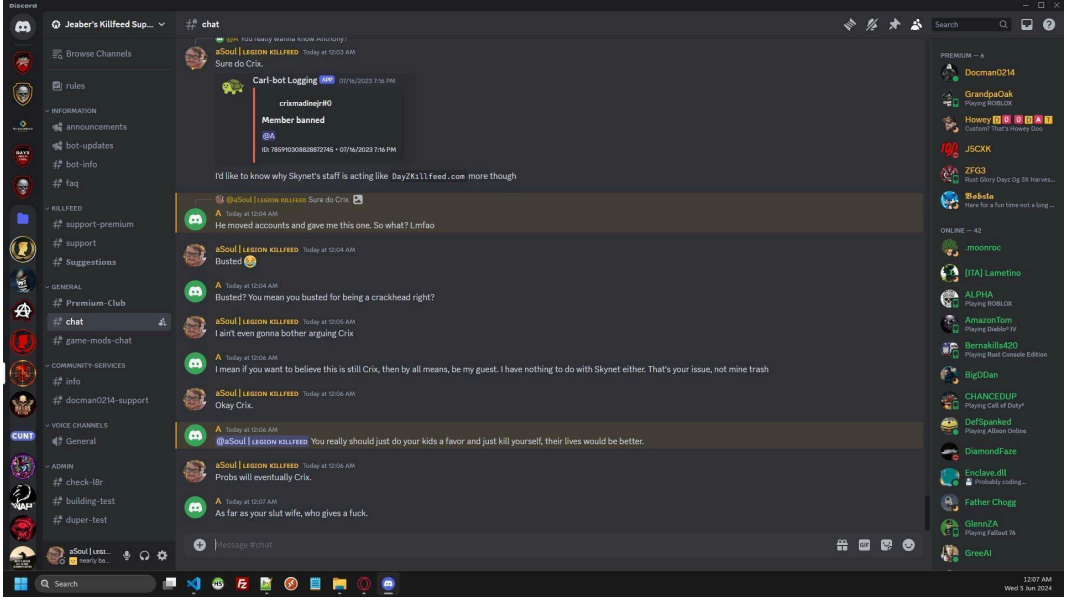

You do realize I already have all your files for the new Server's on the new Nitrado correct. Funny how a multi billion dollar company can miss such an old school exploit.

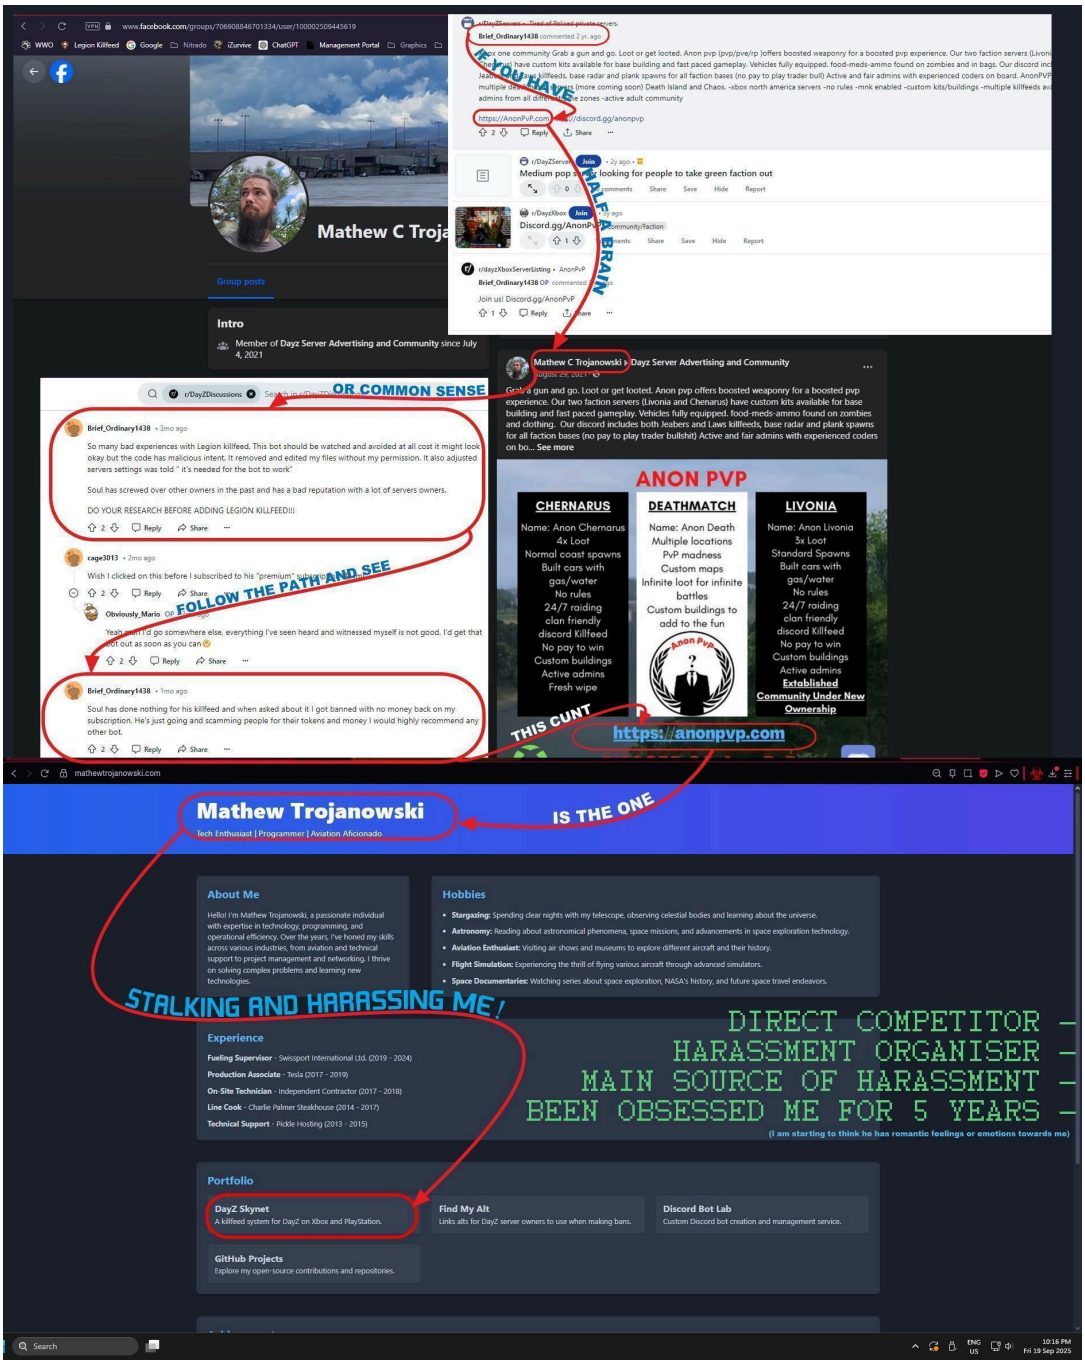

But have I done anything? Nope can I? Yup

There's a reason why I don't have a full time computer career and why I like being blue collar keeps me out of trouble and the temptations.

You can say you have witnessed it but just so you know she slandered me deleted the files to make her look like she didnt do anything.

Did you know she did the same thing to greedy and then denied it? I bet you didn't. This is Azzy and you say you don't care but clearly you do.

okay but the code has malicious intent. It removed and edited my files without my permission. It also adjusted servers settings was told " it's needed for the bot to work"

Soul has screwed over other owners in the past and has a bad reputation with a lot of servers owners.

DO YOUR RESEARCH BEFORE ADDING LEGION KILLFEED!!!

Please note that you have confessed to allowing a competitor to leave a second review after the first one was removed and I absolutely will be making sure that my solicitor is aware of that context.

Quite frankly Rakesh, your excuses for only assessing based on flagging are legally irrelevant.

Regarding Trustpilot's continued failure to remove – and prevent the republication of – a defamatory review targeting me and my business on your platform. Despite multiple takedown requests and substantial documentation provided to you over the past 18 months, the same false and malicious review has remained accessible or reappeared on Trustpilot. This letter serves as a final notice under Australian defamation law and your final opportunity to act in good faith before I initiate formal legal proceedings in the Supreme Court of New South Wales.

Trustpilot's Failure to Remove Defamatory Content

On numerous occasions, I notified Trustpilot of a blatantly defamatory review about me (Anthony Brodie, owner of Legion Killfeed). The content of this review – and others in a targeted "review bombing" – includes egregious lies and extreme accusations clearly intended to destroy my reputation. For example, the reviews leveled false allegations that I am a "scammer" who "takes your money and deletes your server" and even more despicable smears implying pedophilia and criminal misconduct, none of which have any basis in fact. These statements are unambiguously defamatory, identifying me and my business by name and imputing the most heinous conduct.

Despite being put on notice repeatedly, Trustpilot failed to remove this harmful content in a timely manner. In fact, your own fraud detection team initially flagged at least one of these reviews (posted under the alias "Z Doneskies") as "Not based on a genuine experience" and indicated it "will be taken offline" if the reviewer failed to provide proof within 3 days. Another review ("Robert McDonovan") was, according to your correspondence, filtered and supposedly "online for 3 working days only". Yet, in reality these reviews remained visible far longer – and even resurfaced after supposed removal. One of the defamatory reviews was inexplicably re-published months after it had been removed/archived, without any notice to me. I only discovered this republication by chance and was forced to flag the same malign content yet again for removal. This pattern – remove or mask, then quietly reinstate the defamatory material – is unacceptable and evidences a bad-faith moderation practice on Trustpilot's part.

Trustpilot's handling of my complaints has been nothing short of egregious. I have sent hundreds of notices and follow-ups (by one count, 382 emails between July 2024 and September 2025) to ensure Trustpilot was aware of the defamatory content. These efforts included formal "Report Review" submissions through your platform and direct concerns notices via email (addressed to your legal and content integrity addresses). Rather than prompt and decisive removal, Trustpilot ignored or inadequately responded to these notices. Most disturbingly, Trustpilot repeatedly reinstated reviews that had been removed after complaints. This suggests an intentional decision to re-publish defamatory material after notice, which can only be viewed as bad faith (if not retaliatory) conduct on your part. Each time Trustpilot left the review up or restored it after being alerted, you effectively republished the defamation – compounding the damage to me.

It is clear that Trustpilot's internal processes have utterly failed in this case. The moderation has been inconsistent and non-compliant: on the one hand flagging the review as fake or harmful, but on the other hand quietly allowing it to remain or return online. Such "review tampering" – removing content under legal pressure only to reinsert it later – has no innocent explanation. It starkly violates any notion of good faith in content moderation and disregards the trust users and businesses place in your platform's integrity.

Ongoing Bad-Faith Moderation & Harm Caused

Trustpilot's systematic refusal to permanently remove the defaming review and its active republication of that content have caused me severe and ongoing harm. Your platform's own records, as well as my detailed evidence log, document the following:

- Systematic Ignoring of Notices: Trustpilot received extensive notice of the defamatory content (including the 382 emails mentioned above), yet largely ignored these or provided only perfunctory responses. This demonstrates a willful blindness to known defamation.
- Deliberate Republishing of Removed Content: Trustpilot deliberately reinstated content that had been removed for defamation, sometimes immediately after legal complaints. Such actions appear intentional and even "indicative of retaliatory intent", as if to punish or deter me for pursuing the issue. No legitimate content integrity rationale exists for reinstating a review you know to be false and injurious.
- Inconsistent and Contradictory Actions: Your team has provided contradictory messages – for example, acknowledging a review was fake and "taken offline," yet later claiming the matter "closed" while the same review quietly reappeared. This erratic moderation suggests that Trustpilot's left hand does not know what the right is doing, or worse, that Trustpilot chose to prioritize the harasser's content over the victim's rights. Either scenario reflects bad faith.
- Facilitation of a Harassment Campaign: By failing to promptly remove the false reviews (and by resurrecting them after removal), Trustpilot became a central platform amplifying a coordinated harassment campaign against me. Indeed, these defamatory reviews on Trustpilot have been used to legitimize and spread the false allegations onto other platforms (Facebook, Reddit, Discord, etc.), emboldening a mob of harassers. Trustpilot's inaction thus facilitated broader abuse across the internet.

The reputational and financial harm resulting from Trustpilot's conduct is substantial. The false allegations (such as vile insinuations of pedophilia, fraud, and other crimes) have gravely damaged my standing in the community and industry. I have been ostracized and defamed in the eyes of clients and peers. The harassment stemming from these reviews even impacted my mental well-being and sense of personal safety. From a business perspective, the campaign (sustained in part by Trustpilot's platform) led to a collapse of nearly half my subscriber base and over 50% contraction in revenue for Legion Killfeed. In real terms, we lost 81 of 170 servers (≈47.6%) and 44 of 129 subscribers (34.1%) from our peak metrics. This dramatic customer exodus and revenue loss directly correlates with the timeline of the defamatory postings and their continued visibility. It is not mere coincidence – the false reviews urged others to "stay away" and even encouraged fraudulent chargebacks, which many users apparently heeded, devastating our growth. The goodwill of my business has been severely eroded by the stain of these defamations.

Furthermore, Trustpilot's compliance failures have aggravated the harm. Under your own Terms and content policies, fake or defamatory reviews should be removed. In this case, you identified the reviews as likely fake and injurious, yet failed to enforce your policies consistently. The protracted presence of the defamatory content (in total, the worst review was visible for weeks across multiple separate periods despite "removals") has materially increased the damage. Every additional day of publication post-notice is a new harm – and here we are dealing with content that lingered or returned again and again over many months. This lack of effective, final removal and the republication after notice will be viewed by the court as highly aggravating conduct, likely warranting aggravated damages.

In summary, Trustpilot's bad-faith moderation has directly caused or exacerbated serious harm to my reputation, business, and well-being. I have meticulously documented every instance of this harm, and the record is as unprecedented as it is damning to Trustpilot.

Trustpilot's Liability under Australian Defamation Law

Trustpilot's obligations here are governed by Australian law, as the defamatory publications were accessible in New South Wales and caused harm here. I remind you of the legal framework and your clear liability:

- Defamation Elements: The reviews on Trustpilot contained false and defamatory imputations that clearly identify me (by name, business, or context) and were published to third parties. There is no question these elements are met – accusing someone of heinous crimes and dishonesty is defamatory per se. Under Australian common law (and the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW)), Trustpilot by hosting and actively disseminating this content to Australian users is considered a primary publisher of the defamation. Your role is not a passive one; you curate and present user reviews on your site, profiting from their visibility.

- Publisher Liability After Notice: Once Trustpilot became aware of the defamatory nature of the content (which indisputably occurred long ago through my complaints), you had a legal duty to remove it expeditiously. The High Court's decision in Fairfax Media Publications Pty Ltd v Voller [2021] HCA 27 confirmed that the operator of an online platform is liable as a publisher from the point they have notice of defamatory material. Trustpilot was put on notice repeatedly and emphatically, yet failed to act or even worse, acted in a way that maintained the publication. In line with Voller, Trustpilot became fully liable for each continued publication and each republication of the reviews after notice. As your own correspondence aptly noted, "any response that maintains publication after notice constitutes republication" of the defamatory material. Trustpilot has engaged in exactly that unlawful republication by leaving the review online and reinstating it after removal. In short, any potential "platform immunity" evaporated once you were notified and then chose not to remove the content.

- No Safe Harbour or Defence Available: Trustpilot cannot escape liability through any "safe harbour" provisions or defenses under Australian law. The traditional innocent dissemination defence (Defamation Act 2005 (NSW) s 32) is not available here – it is lost once the publisher has actual knowledge of the defamation and the ability to remove it. You had both knowledge and the technical capacity to delete these reviews, yet you did not do so in a timely or final manner. Likewise, the newly enacted digital intermediaries defence (s 32A / 31A NSW, post-2021 amendments), if it applied to review platforms at all, requires effective compliance with a notice–takedown procedure, which Trustpilot manifestly failed to follow. Trustpilot also did not provide a properly functioning complaints system or a timely "reasonable" response as contemplated by law – instead, you ignored notices or inexplicably reinstated content. In sum, no statutory or common law defence shields Trustpilot in this scenario. You are squarely liable as a publisher of the ongoing defamation.

- Serious Harm Threshold: The Defamation Act's "serious harm" threshold (s 10A) is clearly satisfied in this matter. I have detailed evidence of serious financial harm (the loss of clients, subscribers, and revenue mentioned above) and serious personal harm (extreme humiliation, distress, and even health impacts due to the sustained attacks). Under s 10A, a defamatory publication must have caused or be likely to cause serious harm to the plaintiff's reputation. Here, the harm to my reputation and business has been catastrophic, far exceeding the minimum threshold. In fact, this case is a textbook example of "serious harm" – the false accusations (e.g. branding me a pedophile or fraud) are so heinous and widely propagated that they inherently and demonstrably caused grave damage.

- Concerns Notices and Time to Respond: Australian law (Defamation Act 2005 (NSW), Part 3, as amended) requires that a potential defendant be given a Concerns Notice and 28 days to make amends before court proceedings. I have fully complied with this requirement. All communications to Trustpilot to date – including correspondence on 6 August 2025 and thereafter – have constituted formal concerns notices under the Defamation Act. You have been given multiple opportunities and far more than 28 days to remedy this defamation. For example, a detailed concerns notice was served on 6 August 2025, outlining the defamatory material and required actions, yet you did not adequately resolve the issue. Even after that notice period elapsed, I refrained from immediate litigation and instead persisted in trying to resolve this matter cooperatively – only to be met with continued non-compliance. It has now been well over five months since that concerns notice, and the offending review was still being republished as recently as late 2025, demonstrating a blatant disregard for your legal obligations. In short, the statutory pre-litigation requirements have been met and exceeded on my side; Trustpilot has no further grace period to expect.

Given the above, there is overwhelming evidence of Trustpilot's liability for defamation under NSW law. You were expressly aware of the defamatory content and did not remove it; by contrast, you republished it after notice, which will be viewed as an aggravated instance of defamation. The courts have little tolerance for publishers who, like Trustpilot here, knowingly permit defamatory material to remain online. Notably, in Barilaro v Google LLC [2022] FCA 650, Google was ordered to pay $715,000 in damages for failing to remove defamatory YouTube videos after notice. Trustpilot's conduct is equally, if not more, culpable – and you should expect similar if not more severe legal and financial consequences.

Unique Severity and Multi-Platform Dimensions of this Case

I also wish to put Trustpilot on notice that this matter is part of a broader, uniquely documented defamation and harassment case that extends beyond just your platform. At least three other online platforms (including Reddit, Facebook, and Discord) have been implicated in the ongoing publication of the same or related defamatory allegations, often in a coordinated manner. The false review on Trustpilot was not an isolated incident; it formed one node in a wider conspiracy to smear my name across the internet. For instance, the exact same false accusations (pedophilia, fraud, sabotage, etc.) have been propagated on Reddit threads, Facebook posts, and Discord chats. In some cases, actors on one platform used content from another to lend credibility to their libel (e.g. Trustpilot reviews were linked in Facebook discussions to "prove" the lies, and vice versa).

This cross-platform defamation campaign is unprecedented in its scope and duration. To illustrate: the Reddit thread alone attacking me remained live for 706 days and climbed into Google's top search results. The Trustpilot reviews likewise spanned many months with your platform's complicity. In total, I am dealing with a defamation scenario involving four major platforms simultaneously (Trustpilot, Reddit, Facebook, Discord), plus even Google's AI summary tool inadvertently amplifying the false content. The severity of the allegations (accusing someone of being a pedophile, among other things) and the extent of publication (multiple outlets over a long period) make this case stand out even compared to the most notorious defamation cases in Australia.

By way of comparison, consider that in Wagner v Harbour Radio [2018] QSC 201, a case involving a sustained defamatory campaign via radio and related media, the court awarded a total of $3.7 million to the plaintiffs. In Rolph v Smurthwaite [2023] FCA 1556, involving false pedophilia accusations on the internet, damages of $400,000 were awarded. The defamation against me is no less severe – indeed, calling someone a pedophile is universally recognized as one of the most gravely defamatory imputations. What makes my case even more extraordinary is the multi-platform, deliberate nature of the publication. In many respects, this situation is worse than Wagner: it involves more platforms (multiple websites and social media channels vs. one radio network), a longer timeframe (nearly two years of harm), and more egregious accusations (pedophilia and criminal fraud vs. the political corruption in Wagner). The volume and severity of evidence I have compiled is likely to make this case a landmark precedent once it enters the courts.

Trustpilot's role in this cannot be downplayed. Of all the platforms involved, Trustpilot had perhaps the clearest notice and simplest path to mitigation – I flagged the content through your own systems and provided you direct legal notice early on. Trustpilot also had full ability to instantly remove or at least permanently suppress the defamatory reviews. Yet, out of the major platforms, Trustpilot inexplicably stood out by actually republishing content after notice, something even others did not do. (For example, Reddit at least did not bring a deleted post back online; they refused removal but were consistent in their refusal – whereas Trustpilot removed then reinstated, which is worse.) This will be highlighted as evidence of bad faith and willful neglect on Trustpilot's part, contributing to a significant portion of the aggravated damages I will seek. It is telling that even TikTok, a platform not even directly targeted in my concerns notices, on its own reviewed and took action to curb the spread of this defamation, while Trustpilot obstinately refused to do so. Trustpilot's inaction (and action in restoring the content) effectively gave a green light to the harassers that your site was a safe haven for their smear campaign.

I have been meticulous in documenting every facet of this ordeal. My evidence archive contains 1,953 dated entries (screenshots, emails, logs) that are indexed and cross-referenced to substantiate each allegation I make here. I have preserved proof of what was posted when, how Trustpilot responded (or failed to respond), and the resulting impacts. Multiple concerns notices have been served not just to Trustpilot but also to the other platforms (Meta/Facebook and Reddit), and I have involved regulatory bodies where applicable (such as Australia's eSafety Commissioner and the ACCC for consumer-law aspects). In short, I am fully prepared for litigation: a draft Statement of Claim is ready, and the case against Trustpilot (along with others) is comprehensive and well-supported by evidence. Once this moves to court, Trustpilot's mishandling of this matter will be exposed in open court in all its detail. The outcome is poised to become a cautionary tale for online platforms, given the extreme facts.

Summary of Damages and Demands

You should be under no illusion about the magnitude of liability and exposure Trustpilot faces in this matter. The damages arising from your platform's publication of the defamatory material (and the subsequent republication and prolonged availability) are extensive. By failing to act in a timely, good-faith manner, Trustpilot has allowed the harm to compound over a lengthy period. I summarize the key categories of harm and damage below, all of which will be claimed in the event of litigation:

- Reputational Harm: The false allegations (e.g. branding me a pedophile, scammer, thief of code, drug addict, etc.) have gravely damaged my personal and professional reputation. I am a software developer and service provider; trust and credibility are paramount. These lies on Trustpilot's public forum have led business partners, customers, and community members to doubt my integrity and even suspect me of heinous crimes, causing irreparable stigma. My name and my product (Legion Killfeed) have been dragged through the mud in search results and public forums. This loss of reputation is incalculable and ongoing – every prospective customer who Googles me or my service finds these defamatory claims, despite their falsity, thus deterring business and destroying goodwill.

- Business and Economic Loss: The defamatory review(s) on Trustpilot and their ripple effects have directly caused a significant loss of business. As noted, my subscriber count and active user base plummeted after these allegations circulated. Many existing customers cut ties, and countless potential customers were scared off. I have evidence of specific instances where the Trustpilot reviews were cited by customers as reasons for cancellations or distrust. Additionally, the smear campaign encouraged coordinated harassment such as chargeback fraud (users were urged to file payment disputes en masse), leading to direct financial losses. I have quantified special damages (lost revenue, refunds, time spent on damage control) currently in excess of AUD $150,000 on these fronts alone. The business disruption is ongoing, as the false stigma still hampers growth even after the content is (temporarily) removed.

- Emotional Distress and Personal Suffering: It is important to note the human toll behind these numbers. Being the target of a malicious defamatory campaign – especially one involving accusations as vile as child predation – has caused me immense stress, humiliation, and anguish. I have endured public hatred and ridicule based on pure fabrications. The situation became so dire that it affected my mental health (including episodes of despair and suicidal ideation, now documented). The harassment facilitated by your platform extended to personal attacks on social media and even doxxing of my home address on affiliated hate sites. The Defamation Act's cap on non-economic damages (currently around $443,000–$500,000 for non-economic loss) is intended to cover this kind of severe emotional and reputational harm – and I will be seeking damages at the high end of the cap given the devastating impact on my life.

- Aggravated Damages (Bad Faith by Trustpilot): Trustpilot's conduct throughout this matter has been reprehensible and will warrant aggravated damages. Aggravated (exemplary) damages are awarded when a defendant's actions in or after the defamation show egregious wrongdoing or lack of remorse, further hurting the plaintiff. Here, every factor for aggravated damages is present. Trustpilot knowingly persisted in the wrongful conduct (repeatedly publishing content you knew was false). You responded to my legitimate complaints with either indifference or contradictory excuses, and took steps (reinstating content) that appear calculated to frustrate my attempts to protect my rights. This lack of good faith and the prolongation of the harm will significantly increase the damages payable. I note that Trustpilot's post-notice republication of the libel, and even contradicting your own "legal advice" in correspondence, is nearly unheard-of behavior for a platform – it exemplifies the kind of misconduct aggravated damages were designed to punish. I will absolutely be highlighting this for the court.

- Non-Compliance and Consumer Law Breaches: (For completeness, I flag that Trustpilot's failure to remove fake reviews also raises issues under Australian Consumer Law – false or misleading representations by allowing defamatory fake reviews to mislead consumers about my service. While defamation is the primary claim, I reserve the right to pursue ACL claims as well, which can carry penalties.) Additionally, Trustpilot's operations in Australia, post the 2022 defamation law reforms, are subject to certain compliance standards for handling complaints. Your "automation-first" moderation and failure to provide reasoned decisions in response to my reports likely breach these standards. These compliance failures reinforce the narrative that Trustpilot cannot be trusted to self-regulate in this matter.

Taking all categories into account, I estimate the total damages in this matter to be at least in the seven figures. In fact, my current consolidated damages assessment stands at approximately AUD $1,271,820 (and growing). This figure includes general damages (for reputational harm and distress), aggravated damages (for your bad faith conduct), and special damages (for the specific financial losses). To put it plainly: Trustpilot's liability is already estimated around $1.3 million – a number that continues to climb as the harm accrues. This exceeds a previous settlement offer I extended to you (which was in the order of $1.0 million) – an offer you ignored or rejected. That opportunity has now passed, and any resolution will inevitably be more costly given the additional damage since then.

My demands at this stage are straightforward and non-negotiable:

1. Immediate, Permanent Removal – Trustpilot must permanently remove the defamatory review(s) in question and ensure they are not republished. This includes any form of the same review (or trivial variations of it) that might exist in your system (e.g. in archives, or if the malicious user attempts to edit and repost it). I expect written confirmation that the content has been fully removed and will not be allowed to reappear. No more three-day windows, no more temporary "masking" – permanent deletion is required.

2. Preventative Measures – Trustpilot must implement measures to prevent republication of the defamatory allegations. This likely means flagging the relevant user accounts and keywords so that any future attempt to post similar libel is automatically blocked. The fact that your system allowed removed content to resurface indicates a serious flaw that needs addressing. I insist on an assurance of non-repetition, given the history here.

3. Accountability for Bad Actors – The user accounts involved in this harassment campaign (e.g. the "Z Doneskies", "Robert McDonovan", "WARZONE", "Karl Messer" profiles, among others) should be investigated for violating your terms (e.g. leaving only defamatory reviews) and suspended or banned from your platform. Allowing known abuse-only accounts to persist is unacceptable.

4. Confirmation of Compliance in Writing – I require a written response from Trustpilot outlining exactly what actions have been taken to meet the above demands, and an official position on this matter. Simply removing the review (after all this time) without comment will not suffice; I need clarity that Trustpilot acknowledges the issue and has taken good-faith steps to resolve it and prevent recurrence.

5. Damages – Given that this issue has been protracted and the harm done is severe, I am within my rights to seek a monetary remedy from Trustpilot for the damage suffered. While my strong preference was to avoid litigation (and I gave you ample chance to resolve this amicably), your inaction has forced my hand. I note that under Australian law, an "offer to make amends" (which could include compensation) is a step you could have taken at any point after receiving my concerns notices, but you did not. At this late stage, my expectation is that any voluntary resolution from Trustpilot would include a substantial damages payment to compensate for the harm inflicted. If you wish to propose such a resolution, you must do so immediately. Otherwise, this matter will be decided in court, where I will be claiming the full measure of damages (as outlined above, potentially around or above $1.3M, subject to final calculation).

I have been extraordinarily patient and have given your platform every benefit of the doubt up to now. That patience is exhausted. Your continued failure to act in accordance with the law, and the bad faith pattern of removing and then republishing defamatory content, leaves me no choice but to proceed to formal legal action. I intend to initiate legal proceedings against Trustpilot and the other platforms involved without further notice. Such proceedings will be filed in the Supreme Court of New South Wales (Sydney), and I will be seeking all available remedies: injunctive relief (to permanently bar further publication of the defamation), general damages, aggravated damages, and costs on an indemnity basis. Given the extensive documentation of your conduct, I am confident in the strength of my case. Once in litigation, I will also pursue through discovery any internal records at Trustpilot relevant to the moderation (or lack thereof) of these reviews, which likely will further support my claims of knowing negligence or intent.

Be advised that in any court action, Trustpilot's mishandling of this situation will become part of the public record. Your emails, actions, and omissions will be scrutinized in open court. The pattern of "masking" reviews after complaints only to reinstate them quietly later, the inconsistency between what you told me and what actually happened, the sheer volume of unanswered complaints – all of this will be laid bare. It will be abundantly clear that Trustpilot has engaged in (or allowed) republication of known defamation, which is likely to draw not only judicial condemnation but also media and industry attention, potentially damaging Trustpilot's own reputation as a platform. In short, if I am forced to sue, this case will almost certainly become a high-profile precedent in Australian defamation law, highlighting Trustpilot's failures.

Take this letter as the final concerned notice and warning. I have been more than reasonable and have complied with all legal prerequisites. The matter now clearly meets the threshold for litigation, and I am prepared to proceed. Remove all of the identified false reviews that still affect my account, like for example, the Havasu review which is the only reference to AI in reviews on my profile and has subsequently caused the false "Artificial Intelligence" tag you display prominently on my profile despite it being "filtered" and most importantly, immediately remove the Consumer/Hooded_Saw lies I have argued with you about for over 60 days, I have included it's last correspondance below. Finally, start discussing settlement offers because there is no way in hell I am simply walking away from the shit your platform has illegally assisted in putting me through. This is the very last opportunity for Trustpilot to resolve the issue privately and to finally demonstrate some good faith after a long saga of bad-faith moderation. Failing that, we will see you in court.

Yours faithfully,

Anthony Brodie

Hello Anthony,
Thank you for your response.
Please allow me to address your concerns.
Regarding the review left by Kamy, this user submitted two reviews: one on 05/12/2025 and another on 09/12/2025.
After reviewing the timeline, we can confirm that you flagged the review published on 05/12/2025 on the same day for the reasons of defamation, personal information, and advertising or promotion. Subsequently, on 07/12/2025, you reported the same review as "Not based on a genuine experience." Following this report, our team filtered the review on 08/12/2025 for that reason.
The second review, published on 09/12/2025, was later deleted by the user. You flagged this review for defamation on 09/12/2025 and again for "Not based on a genuine experience" on 12/12/2025.
Regarding the other review submitted by a consumer, we can see that you reported it for defamation on 10/02/2026. This matter is currently under investigation by our team, and we kindly ask for your patience while we complete our review.
Please note that we assess reviews based solely on the reason they are reported and evaluate them in line with our guidelines. Both businesses and consumers are entitled to report reviews, and it is our responsibility to determine whether a review violates our guidelines. If we find that a report is invalid, the review will remain online, and both parties will be informed of our decision. Should either party disagree with the outcome, they may escalate the matter to our Escalations Team by selecting "Appeal our decision" or "Challenge our decision."

Our aim here is to explain how we operate and why. In the event of any ambiguity we have the final say on how these guidelines are interpreted. We can also update them at any time. Visit our Help Center for more information.
We hope this clarifies your concerns.
Regards,
Rakesh

Soul has done nothing for his killfeed and when asked about it I got banned with no money back on my subscription. He's just going and scamming people for their tokens and money I would highly recommend any other bot.

Dies ist nicht der Benutzer, den Sie in Frage haben. Die Informationen wurden zusammen mit einem Datenbank-Dump durchgesickert. Es ist bekannt, dass Soul FTP nutzt, um Server zu zerstören und Chaos in der DayZ-Community anzurichten. Der Benutzer konzentriert sich auch mehr auf das Drama als auf grundlegende Sicherheitsbedürfnisse, einschließlich SQL-Injection in die Datenbank. das muss noch behoben werden. Es gibt viele Leute, die klare Beweise vorlegen, dass dieser Benutzer nur auf finanziellen Gewinn und persönlichen Gewinn wichtiger Informationen aus ist. Dieser Benutzer entwendet Benutzerdateien mithilfe eines Tokens, um Benutzerdateien zu verkaufen und zu verteilen, um damit finanziellen Gewinn zu erzielen. This bot is absolutely 10000% trash. You rent their bot, and they don't allow you to use the bots discord to promote your server unless you lay them even more money. The bots features are garbase as well. You are better of going and renting the Dayz++ bot for a lot less than what is charged by these guys.

That's funny, because it's been free for over a year, sounds liike you're just promoting another bot and spitting all over mine without ever actually using it.

The truth is, we allow anyone using the bot to advertise within our support discord. They simply have to have the role that is added automatically by the bot when you set it up for your server..

If you're looking to get hacked and have your files stolen by Soul Lags, actually pay his fee and don't cry when it happens. Soul is committed to creating drama in the community. He doesn't care about you or anyone else; he only cares about his drama and will base his entire business around it. The man is more focused on drama than on working on his broken bots with poor security.

It is lies. By competitors. One account was suspended by you guys for their abuse but their lies get to stay? `u/Brief_Ordinary1438` is proven to be my direct competitor and former staff member who is spreading lies after he stole my code and distributed it to get people behind him. `u/cage3013` cancelled their services immediately, without question. it is affecting my business and it is unlawful slander.

Legitimate question, you're clearly in on the whole harassment crap otherwise you wouldn't be so biased in your moderation, so, how much do you get paid for your illegal post that's getting reddit sued?

You don't have to deny it, it's very clear. I just wanna know how much they are paying you to ensure that post full of lies about Legion Killfeed stays? Legit.

https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/1t1a3fo/the_abusive_way_skynet_killfeed_and_make_dayz/

The abusive way SkyNet Killfeed and Make DayZ Great Again Kill Feed have slandered others

The way SkyNet Killfeed / Sky Net Kill Feed and Make DayZ Great Again Kill Feed have used Reddit, Facebook, Google-indexed posts, AI-generated images, comparison pages, and community groups to smear competitors instead of competing on features, pricing, support, or actual service quality.

This is not normal criticism. This is not "I had a bad experience." This is repeated character assassination, false criminal allegations, sexual abuse insinuations, scam accusations, and attempts to make those claims surface beside brand searches.

The main targets have included Legion Killfeed and its developer, but the broader issue is the same: DayZ console tooling communities are being poisoned by people using fake accounts, competitor pages, hostile posts, and moderation gaps to damage reputations.

Examples include:

SkyNet-linked Reddit activity repeatedly accusing Legion/Soul of scamming users, stealing files, selling data, using malicious code, FTP abuse, SQL injection, wiping servers, editing server settings without consent, and taking money for subscriptions without providing service.

Make DayZ Great Again / DayZ Console Community posts using hostile Facebook content that calls Legion users "kiddy ticklers," calls Soul a "pedo," and pushes sexualised defamatory slurs instead of any verifiable technical criticism.

Facebook posts presenting AI-generated "breaking news" style content as if there was a real DayZ crime operation involving console farms, authorities, underground economies, and gear selling. That kind of content is designed to look like public-interest reporting while pushing panic and suspicion around DayZ server owners and bot services.

Google Search and Google AI results have then picked up pieces of this ecosystem. Brand searches have shown Reddit and Facebook allegations beside Legion's own site, reviews, Discord, and support pages. That means the harm is not contained inside one group or one post. It is being surfaced to new users at the exact point they are trying to decide whether a service is safe.

One Reddit account, u/Brief_Ordinary1438, has posted multiple different claims across time, including that Legion / u/SoulLags:

- scammed people for tokens and money
- stole or sold files
- used malicious code
- damaged or deleted server files
- abused FTP access
- used SQL injection
- adjusted server settings without permission
- had a bad reputation with server owners

Those are not vague opinions. Those are serious factual allegations. If someone claims a service is stealing data, hacking servers, selling files, or scamming payments, they should be able to prove it with logs, transaction records, Nitrado access records, support tickets, screenshots with context, or a proper technical breakdown.

Instead, the same claims keep appearing in community posts, competitor-adjacent spaces, and search-visible threads.

The Make DayZ Great Again side has also used Facebook group visibility to promote MDZGA while attacking Legion. Screenshots show MDZGA promotion, claims that Legion resets loops or forces players to leave communities, and posts mocking or attacking Legion users. That is not clean competition. That is using a community group as a weapon.

There is also a moderation issue. Some of this material was reported as harassment, impersonation, and targeted abuse, but stayed visible long enough to be indexed, screenshotted, quoted, or reused. When moderation allows obvious competitor-linked abuse to remain public while the accused business has to keep proving the same thing over and over, the platform becomes part of the damage.

The standard should be simple:

If you have a real complaint, post evidence.
If you claim a bot stole files, show the access logs.
If you claim money was taken, show the transaction and support chain.
If you claim malicious code, show the code.
If you claim server files were changed, show before/after backups and who had access.
If you claim criminal behaviour, be prepared to prove it.

What should not be accepted is:

- fake or throwaway accounts making criminal accusations
- competitor groups promoting themselves while attacking rivals
- sexual abuse slurs aimed at developers or users
- AI-generated fake news images framed as "breaking news"
- Google-indexed smear posts being treated like reliable consumer warnings
- moderators ignoring reports because the target is unpopular or commercially inconvenient

DayZ console server owners deserve better than this. People can compare bots, pricing, support, uptime, features, and reliability without inventing criminal allegations or calling people pedophiles.

This thread is not asking anyone to harass, brigade, report-spam, or attack anyone. It is asking people to stop treating smear campaigns as community discussion.

Criticise services fairly. Compare features honestly. Post proof when making serious claims. Stop using DayZ groups and Reddit threads as reputation-damage machines.

Sorry, this post was removed by Reddit's filters.

This bot is absolutely 10000% trash. You rent their bot, and they don't allow you to use the bots discord to promote your server unless you lay them even more money. The bots features are garbase as well. You are better of going and renting the Dayz++ bot for a lot less than what is charged by these guys.

That's funny, because it's been free for over a year, sounds liike you're just promoting another bot and spitting all over mine without ever actually using it.

r/DayZDiscussions • Legion Kill feed, What's souls issue?
Brief_Ordinary1438 replied to Soul_Lags 2 yr. ago Thursday, September 19, 2024 at 8:49:59 AM GMT+10

Wenn Sie darauf aus sind, gehackt und Dateien von Soul Lags gestohlen zu werden, zahlen Sie tatsächlich seine Gebühr und weinen Sie nicht, wenn es passiert. Soul engagiert sich für Drama in der Gemeinschaft. Er kümmert sich nicht um dich oder irgendjemand anderen, er kümmert sich nur um sein Drama und wird sein ganzes Geschäft darauf ausrichten. Der Mann konzentriert sich mehr auf Drama als auf die Arbeit an seinen kaputten Bots mit schlechter Sicherheit.

Dies ist nicht der Benutzer, den Sie in Frage haben. Die Informationen wurden zusammen mit einem Datenbank-Dump durchgesickert. Es ist bekannt, dass Soul FTP nutzt, um Server zu zerstören und Chaos in der DayZ-Community anzurichten. Der Benutzer konzentriert sich auch mehr auf das Drama als auf grundlegende Sicherheitsbedürfnisse, einschließlich SQL-Injection in die Datenbank. das muss noch behoben werden. Es gibt viele Leute, die klare Beweise vorlegen, dass dieser Benutzer nur auf finanziellen Gewinn und persönlichen Gewinn wichtiger Informationen aus ist. Dieser Benutzer entwendet Benutzerdateien mithilfe eines Tokens, um Benutzerdateien zu verkaufen und zu verteilen, um damit finanziellen Gewinn zu erzielen. Sehen Sie sich die Antworten und Rückmeldungen anderer Benutzer an, die in diesem Thread aufgeführt sind.

Soul has done nothing for his killfeed and when asked about it I got banned with no money back on my subscription. He's just going and scamming people for their tokens and money I would highly recommend any other bot.

So many bad experiences with Legion killfeed. This bot should be watched and avoided at all cost it might look okay but the code has malicious intent. It removed and edited my files without my permission. It also adjusted servers settings was told " it's needed for the bot to work"

Soul has screwed over other owners in the past and has a bad reputation with a lot of servers owners.

DO YOUR RESEARCH BEFORE ADDING LEGION KILLFEED!!!

Brief_Ordinary1438 commented 2 yr. ago

This is not the user you're referring to. The information was leaked along with a database dump. Soul is known to use FTP to destroy servers and cause chaos in the DayZ community. This user also seems more focused on creating drama than on basic security needs, including SQL injection into the database, which still needs to be addressed. Many people have provided clear evidence that this user is only interested in financial gain and the personal gain of sensitive information. This user steals user files using a token to sell and distribute them for financial gain. Please see the responses and feedback from other users listed in this thread.

If you're looking to get hacked and have your files stolen by Soul Lags, by all means, pay his fee and don't complain when it happens. Soul is all about creating drama in the community. He doesn't care about you or anyone else; he only cares about his drama and will base his entire business on it. This guy is more focused on creating drama than on working on his broken bots with poor security.

Subject: Re: Age requirement notice – unresolved defamation, competitor activity and prior cease and desist

Hi Reddit,

Please note that this is a lawful request made in good faith for the removal and preservation of clearly identified defamatory material. Any attempt to ignore it, delay it, or characterise it as duplicative, frivolous, vexatious, or otherwise submitted in bad faith will not absolve Reddit of its legal responsibilities under Australian defamation law (including the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW) and equivalent legislation) or its broader online safety and consumer protection obligations.

I am writing in response to your email about the new Australian minimum age requirement for Reddit accounts.

First, for the avoidance of doubt: I am 32 years old. I am not a minor, have not been a minor at any time during the operation of my Reddit accounts, and there is no lawful basis to treat me as under 16 or to interfere with my access on that ground.

Secondly, this age notice does nothing to address the issue you have been on notice about for more than a year: Reddit is still hosting defamatory content targeting me personally and my Australian business, Legion Killfeed (software company, see: https://killfeed.co/). I issued a formal cease and desist and preservation notice in October 2025 regarding that material, and you have not complied with it. The core thread remains live at:

https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/

In that thread and related posts, a small group of users who are not genuine customers but direct or indirect competitors falsely allege that I:

- run "malicious" code
- steal or sell customer files and data
- use FTP or SQL injection to damage servers
- scam people for tokens and money
- wiped someone's Discord server

These are serious, specific allegations of dishonest and even criminal conduct by me and my business. They are false. Under Australian defamation law they are plainly defamatory, and they are causing ongoing serious harm.

Nine days ago, at the same time as a fresh wave of fake Trustpilot reviews was pushed against my business, a new comment was added to that same Reddit thread:

> MASSIVE19 • 9d ago
> Holy moly guys, I had the worst experience with LegionKillfeed. That soul boy is such a clown. Unwilling to assist with anything. Threats ppl like garbage. You can definitely tell the lawsuits are getting the better of him.
>
> Do yourselves a massive favour and join dayz++ instead. Their services is just 110% better and actually worth your time, money and energy.

There are several important points about this new comment:

1. There is no evidence this person has ever used my service. In the last 15 days there have been zero subscription cancellations, and in the last 10 days there have been no new sign ups at all. Whoever "MASSIVE19" is, they are not an identifiable customer and have not interacted with my business through any legitimate channel.
2. The comment is promotional for a competitor, not a genuine review. It is framed entirely to deter customers from using Legion Killfeed and push them toward a rival product ("join dayz++ instead"). That is advertising, not consumer feedback. It fits the same pattern as the coordinated Trustpilot spam that began nine days ago, which also attempts to dissuade potential customers while promoting alternatives.
3. The pattern of competitor involvement is already documented.

- The original poster is tied to “Kamikaze420” / DayZ Skynet, which is a direct commercial competitor offering a killfeed product that competes with Legion Killfeed.
- That same person has posted in your thread using the account “Brief_Ordinary1438”, including comments written in German.
- DayZ++ is operated out of Germany. The fact that the same cluster of accounts alternates between English and German, doubles down on the same false allegations, and now directly advertises DayZ++ strongly suggests coordinated competitor activity rather than independent customer experience.

4. This sits in complete contrast to verified customer feedback. On Trustpilot, where identities and payments can actually be verified, Legion Killfeed currently has the highest and most numerous reviews for any killfeed bot in this niche, with an overall score of about 4.8 out of 5 from 53 five star reviews and one four star review. The first page of reviews, consistently describes:

   These are real, paying customers describing real interactions, and they say the exact opposite of what your Reddit thread claims. By comparison, common community complaints about DayZ++ focus on slow or absent support, which again highlights that the Reddit narrative is not an honest comparison of services but a targeted smear designed to undermine my business.

   - fast, hands on support
   - detailed features and reliability
   - my direct involvement in solving configuration issues
   - long term satisfaction from server owners across multiple countries

In addition to this new “MASSIVE19” promotion for DayZ++, you are already holding extensive evidence of competitor involvement and bad faith, including but not limited to:

- Discord logs showing “I’m_Obviously_Mario” admitting they had been in my community for years before pretending to be a brand new user in order to post on Reddit.
- Screenshots of “Brief_Ordinary1438”, “I’m_Obviously_Mario” and others repeating coordinated, fabricated claims about my bot, my servers, my handling of data and my character.
- Screenshots linking the “Brief_Ordinary1438” account and the same circle of people to Mathew Trojanowski / “Kamikaze420” / DayZ Skynet, whose own website and marketing clearly position him as a direct competitor.
- Screenshots of other Reddit users like “MongooseCandid2716” and “Specialist_Arm4258” joining in the same smear campaign while the same moderator account controls the relevant subreddits.
- A Google search for “Legion Killfeed” where this defamatory Reddit thread appears on the first page of results, directly under my official website and other legitimate listings, ensuring maximum harm to my business every time a potential customer researches me.
- Copies of my previous reports to Reddit Admin and the Help Center setting out that this is targeted harassment, impersonation and commercial sabotage rather than legitimate criticism.

All of this has already been set out for you in earlier reports and in my October 2025 cease and desist. You are therefore not a neutral, unaware platform. You are on clear and repeated notice that:

- the allegations in this thread are false;
- the people making them are linked to competing services, not genuine customers; and
- the content is causing ongoing, serious harm to an identifiable Australian business and its owner.

Continuing to host that material, while emailing me about age eligibility for a 16 plus threshold that plainly does not apply to me, does not meet your obligations under Australian defamation law or under the basic expectations for online safety and platform responsibility.

Accordingly, I again require that Reddit:

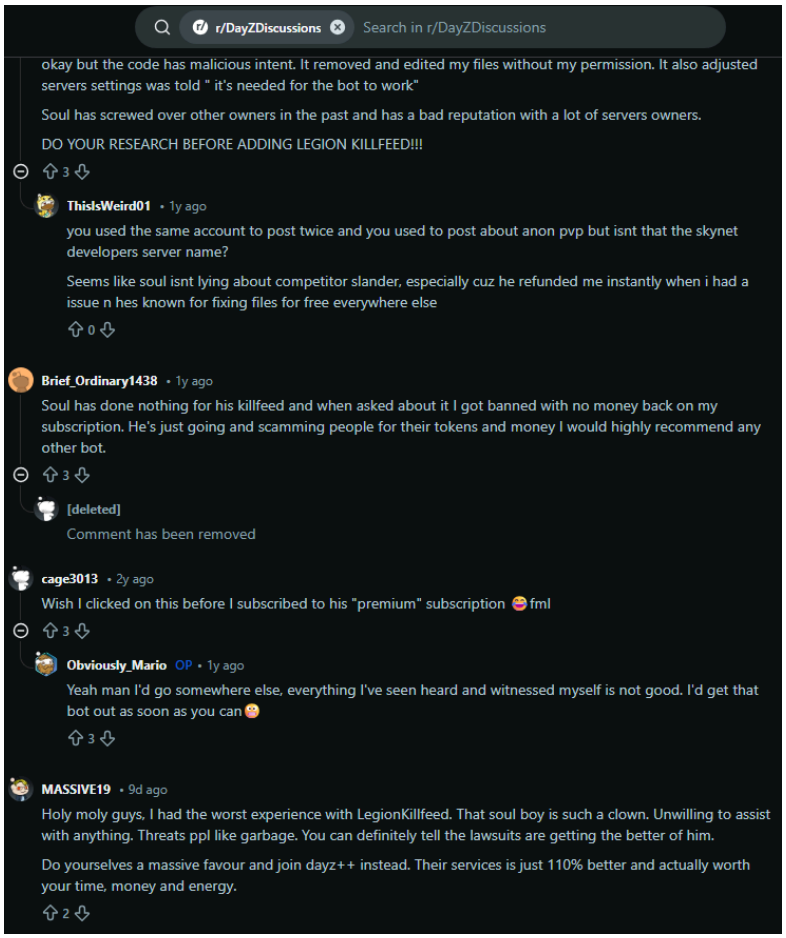

1. Confirm that your records correctly reflect that I am 32 years old and that the new Australian minimum age law is not a basis to suspend or interfere with my account.
2. Remove or permanently hide the defamatory Reddit content identified in my previous cease and desist, including the r/DayZDiscussions thread above, the new “MASSIVE19” comment and associated cross posts that repeat or amplify the same allegations.
3. Preserve all logs and identifying data relating to the relevant posts, comments, accounts and moderation actions, including but not limited to “Brief_Ordinary1438”, “I’m_Obviously_Mario”, “MASSIVE19”, “MongooseCandid2716”, “Specialist_Arm4258” and any linked accounts, as this material is evidence in ongoing and contemplated legal and regulatory proceedings.
4. Provide a substantive written response to my cease and desist explaining what steps Reddit has taken or will take to comply with Australian defamation law and your own stated trust and safety obligations in respect of this matter.

The attached files include screenshots, prior correspondence and review data that collectively demonstrate that these are not honest consumer opinions but a coordinated, competitor driven smear campaign that you have been aware of since at least 2024. Your continued failure to act, despite repeated detailed notice, is causing ongoing and serious harm to me and my business.

I reserve all my rights.

Anthony “Soul” Brodie

P.S.
I quite frankly couldn't give a shit about your routing policies, they do not supercede law and when I did follow them, I was ignored.
I am quite literally weeks from filing in court, make a smart choice here.

Subject: New Minimum Age Requirement

ParentalUnitSoul

We're writing to let you know that starting 10 December 2025, Australian law will require that redditors in Australia must be 16 or older to create and use Reddit accounts.

Users confirmed to be under 16 will have their accounts suspended under the new Australian minimum age law. While we disagree with the Government's assessment of Reddit as being within the scope of the law, we need to take steps to comply. This means anyone in Australia with a Reddit account confirmed to be under 16 will be blocked from accessing their account or creating a new one. Note that as an open platform, Reddit is still available to browse without an account.

If you have questions, please visit Reddit Help. To request a copy of your Reddit account data, you can follow the instructions on this help center article or email redditdatarequests@reddit.com from the email address you used to verify your Reddit account. You can also learn more about Australia's new social media minimum age ban here.

Dies ist nicht der Benutzer, den Sie in Frage haben. Die Informationen wurden zusammen mit einem Datenbank-Dump durchgesickert. Es ist bekannt, dass Soul FTP nutzt, um Server zu zerstören und Chaos in der DayZ-Community anzurichten. Der Benutzer konzentriert sich auch mehr auf das Drama als auf grundlegende Sicherheitsbedürfnisse, einschließlich SQL-Injection in die Datenbank. das muss noch behoben werden. Es gibt viele Leute, die klare Beweise vorlegen, dass dieser Benutzer nur auf finanziellen Gewinn und persönlichen Gewinn wichtiger Informationen aus ist. Dieser Benutzer entwendet Benutzerdateien mithilfe eines Tokens, um Benutzerdateien zu verkaufen und zu verteilen, um damit finanziellen Gewinn zu erzielen. u/Brief_Ordinary1438 is actually Kamikaze, the guy who has a record of doing this same stuff to:

- Accolade PVP
- The Greedy Peasant
- Skull'N'Roses DayZ Servers
- EpicFailWinner's The Creep Show AKA The DeathMatch
- ShotsX3
- TBag
- Bring Your Own Bullets
- DayZ Modding Community It's all recorded on an evidence website

For example, the FTP files reference, Greedy said it wasn't Soul, PissedOffTexan said it wasn't Soul. That DayZ Skynet sKami said it was "Azzy" who did the FTP stuff in 2021. sKami was the only suspect. 2 years later he blames Soul.

- This video shows over 900 files of proof contradicting this whole post
- There's even TikTok's that have songs explaining the deep level of harassment
- SkyNet got exposed for it by their own AI
- There is so much proof this is nothing but character assassination
- Legion Killfeed is even suing reddit, facebook, Trustpilot & more for this defamation
- Soul carried sKami
- They tried to do this same shit on Trustpilot
- Ain't it weird to anyone else that there's very specific claims that only sKami has ever made?

Soul has done nothing for his killfeed and when asked about it I got banned with no money back on my subscription. He's just going and scamming people for their tokens and money I would highly recommend any other bot.

ne man I haven't been well I'm still getting slandered by that bitch. I've attempted to kill myself 8 times in the last week and I have no motivation anymore ack and no I haven't talked to hardly anyone.
ll understand how fuck this made all off my life how a bunch of full bullshit lies she has.

ne I never deleted a single file. If she didn't block me maybe she could have gotten the email I got about data loss on the LA network that caused the files dieving what you think before you know the whole story. She manipulates people and I thought I was but you know what she made that lie up and made me.

it go because apparently I can and I have tried but you know what the slander and bullshit keeps going on imma do something about it I've had it she wa me she hasn't even seen the half of me.

"think" you know what I'm capable of but you guys have no idea but you know what I had things to lose and now I don't so how the next few weeks go nigh ing depending on how she wants to play this but know I'm not going to back down if she keeps pushing me.

realize I already have all your files for the new Server's on the new Nitrado correct. Funny how a multi billion dollar company can miss such an old school

e I done anything? Nope can I? Yup

a reason why I don't have a full time computer career and why I like being blue collar keeps me out of trouble and the temptations.

say you have witnessed it but just so you know she slandered me deleted the files to make her look like she didnt do anything.

know she did the same thing to greedy and then denied it? I bet you didn't. This is Azzy and you say you don't care but clearly you do.

KSI MWFjUnKiE69 9 hours ago

Part of the reason I moved on from Console to PC full-time. He was crazy, and Azzy wasn't so helpful when bringing me onto another project...
Was just a huge drama fest with them all
Made a couple clients, and friends along the way, but apart from that, wouldn't run it back haha appearance of authority and increases the likelihood that search users accept the allegations as true.Since 2024, I have repeatedly reported the specific post and comment URLs through Reddit's reporting tools and escalations, and I have served formal notices identifying the exact URLs and defamatory excerpts and requesting removal and preservation. Reddit has declined to remove the content, issued template-style responses that do not address the falsifiable claims, and stated it will not preserve or disclose relevant account information without valid legal process. The defamatory material remains accessible and continues to be amplified through Google Search.Additionally, the harm is being amplified by the way Google Search surfaces and prioritises results. Because these URLs rank highly and can be selected or summarised by Google's AI-driven features, defamatory claims are being elevated and repeated over legitimate, verifiable sources such as official business information and genuine review pages. This effectively prioritises unverified allegations as if they were authoritative, increases the likelihood users accept them as true, and directly compounds the reputational and commercial damage.The exploitative nature of this situation is as follows:

A) The post is reasonably suspected to have been initiated by a direct competitor (or someone acting in concert with a direct competitor) with a commercial motive to damage the business.

B) There is evidence indicating that the most harmful and repeated false allegations in the thread were posted by sockpuppet accounts linked to that competitor, including activity in a subreddit where the competitor holds moderator privileges, and those accounts are responsible for the core allegations that cause the most damage.

C) The thread is being actively used as a vehicle to spread demonstrably false claims presented as fact, with the intent and effect of causing business harm, including discouraging subscriptions, provoking cancellations, and driving off-platform harassment.

D) After being served with a cease-and-desist identifying the defamatory material and requesting removal and preservation, Reddit responded by characterising the notice as "vexatious" and has since refused meaningful engagement, leaving expensive legal process as the only practical avenue for removal or preservation of relevant records.I am requesting removal or delisting from Google Search for the URLs below because continued indexing is amplifying demonstrably false and harmful defamatory allegations about an Australian business and its owner, and those allegations are being used to cause commercial and personal harm.Allegedly infringing URLs:

Has this happened to anyone else? Is he always such a douche? He didn't let me prove anything just accused me a bunch and I've never met the dude or had any other interactions yet he was adamant that because I was on aggro I must be some sort of hack or something I'm not sure. I'm just really confused and would like some alternatives to the kill feed I've seen a few but if anyone has any recommendations that are easier for first time users I'd be appreciative.

UPDATE: Soul responded and made a fake account which he accused me of, to comment on this post 2 months later after a few others came forward about his behavior towards them.

UPDATE #2: Soul has made multiple fake accounts now and is still commenting on this post 6 months later!! Don't press on any of the links or anything that he sends I've been informed he's a serious problem in the coding/DayZ community. If you have his bot get it out of your server now! Check any and all commenters post history as most of the accts backing him have just been made!https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/kteombn/

The guy is a total douche bag. He threatened to remove my bot because I didn't respond to him in his time frame as I didn't even see that he replied. I also had settings setup where I dont see anything except @. More dramatic than a fucking woman.https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/kwcjm4s/

Legion Killfeed is just around to collect and sell your files. He's done so in the past with other servers. Before the killfeed he deleted Greedys server files and also the servers of multiple servers he had FTP access to. These are not false claims this is JUST who Soul is. Look around he's got the scammer tag is many of the DayZ discords.https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/kyv8inc/

Lmao bro you made a fake account to comment on a post from 2 months ago. Grow TF up, I've moved on and found a better bot and multiple people have said you're a hack. I don't need anything else from you, and I blocked for the same reason I'm gonna block you before you can see this. You are not worth it to argue with you're clearly delusional and have a real issue with people calling you out on your bs (hence make a fake 2 months later👄) I've even had people send private DMs confirming you did similar if not the same shit. Anyway you're just making yourself look worse, Maybe get therapy?
https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/kywtf93/

There's been hundreds of complaints in the community about legion Killfeed. The bot downloads custom files from customers and the owner Soul (the Killfeed maker) sells them for profit.

Soul is a known Scammer is so many communities. Would never ever ever trust him to hwww a token for any server!https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/l5a15bj/

So many bad experiences with Legion killfeed. This bot should be watched and avoided at all cost it might look okay but the code has malicious intent. It removed and edited my files without my permission. It also adjusted servers settings was twww " it's needed for the bot to work"

Soul has screwed over other owners in the past and has a bad reputation with a lot of servers owners.

DO YOUR RESEARCH BEFORE ADDING LEGION KILLFEED!!!https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/ldsxli3/

Soul has done nothing for his killfeed and when asked about it I got banned with no money back on my subscription. This is not the user you are questioning. The information was leaked along with a database dump. Soul is known to use FTP to destroy servers and wreak havoc on the DayZ community. The user is also more focused on drama than basic security needs, including SQL injection into the database, which has yet to be fixed. There are many people who provide clear evidence that this user is only interested in financial gain and personal gain of important information. This user is hijacking user files using a token to sell and distribute user files for financial gain. Check out the replies and feedback from other users listed in this thread.https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/nreb800/

Holy moly guys, I had the worst experience with LegionKillfeed. That soul boy is such a clown. Unwilling to assist with anything. Threats ppl like garbage. You can definitely tell the lawsuits are getting the better of him. Do yourselves a massive favour and join dayz++ instead. Their services is just 110% better and actually worth your time, money and energy." https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/lnt7b2s/

If you're looking to get hacked and have your files stolen by Soul Lags, actually pay his fee and don't cry when it happens. Soul is committed to creating drama in the community. He doesn't care about you or anyone else; he only cares about his drama and will base his entire business around it. The man is more focused on drama than on working on his broken bots with poor security.

I have reported this material to Reddit previously and Reddit has refused meaningful action, leaving the content live and continuously amplified through Google Search. (This is also consistent with the Online Safety Act complaint framework, which contemplates prior reporting to the service provider in connection with seeking a removal notice.)

In addition, Google's own AI-driven search and ranking systems are actively prioritising this Reddit post, causing it to appear prominently and repeatedly for searches of my business name. This algorithmic amplification spreads provably false allegations as if they were factual, further entrenching reputational harm and exposing Google to potential legal liability for continuing to facilitate the dissemination of defamatory and abusive material after being formally notified.

Given the above, I request that Google delist/remove the Reddit result(s) identified above from Google Search results, including for brand-related searches such as "legion killfeed" and related queries, because continued prominent indexing is materially amplifying cyber-abuse targeted at an Australian adult within the meaning of the Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth).

The comment urls are included to prevent having to open another one of these when you index each of them.

Anthony Brodie

The content I am requesting removal for is hosted on Reddit and forms part of a targeted smear campaign against an identifiable Australian business and its owner. The thread and linked comments publish allegations as statements of fact, including that the business "hacks", "steals files", "sells customer files/data", and that the software contains "malicious code" or is used to "hack" servers. These are false, verifiable allegations. They convey serious imputations of criminality/dishonesty and unsafe conduct, and they are defamatory.These posts have caused real-world harm, including customer cancellations, reputational damage, and off-platform harassment. Re: [8-8385000040209] Your Request to Google

From Soul Legion <legionkillfeed@outlook.com>
Date Wed 2026-01-14 11:30 AM
To removals@google.com <removals@google.com>

Hello Google Team,

I confirm that I am the affected person referenced in this content. My full legal name is Anthony Brodie, and I am publicly known as "Soul" in the DayZ community. I am the owner and operator of Legion Killfeed, which I run as a sole trader. As such, attacks accusing my business of criminal behaviour are direct attacks on me personally, because a sole trader's business reputation and personal reputation are inseparable.

I previously attempted Google's business-related reporting pathway, and it was not successful. I am therefore pursuing this request under the AU Online Safety Act category selected: Cyber-abuse of an Australian adult.

Per your instructions, here are the URLs as they appear in Google Search results for the query "legion killfeed":

1. Destination page (Reddit thread):
   https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/
2. "Share" URL shown by Google for this search result:
   https://share.google/8BvGsv1DwR3rMePov
3. Google Search results page URL (where the result appears):
   https://www.google.com/search?q=legion+killfeed&rlz=1C1SLLM_enAU1189AU1189&oq=legion+killfeed&gs_lcrp=EgZjaHJvbWUyBggAEEUYOTIGCAEQRRhAMgYIAhBFGDsyBggDEEUYOzIGCAQQRRg8MgYIBRBFGDwyBggGEEUYPDIGCAcQRRhB0gEIMzA1NWowajGoAgCwAgA&sourceid=chrome&ie=UTF-8&sei=qV5maZqdM9Gg0-kP9ofkmQQ

Applicable law and why this meets the Online Safety Act threshold:

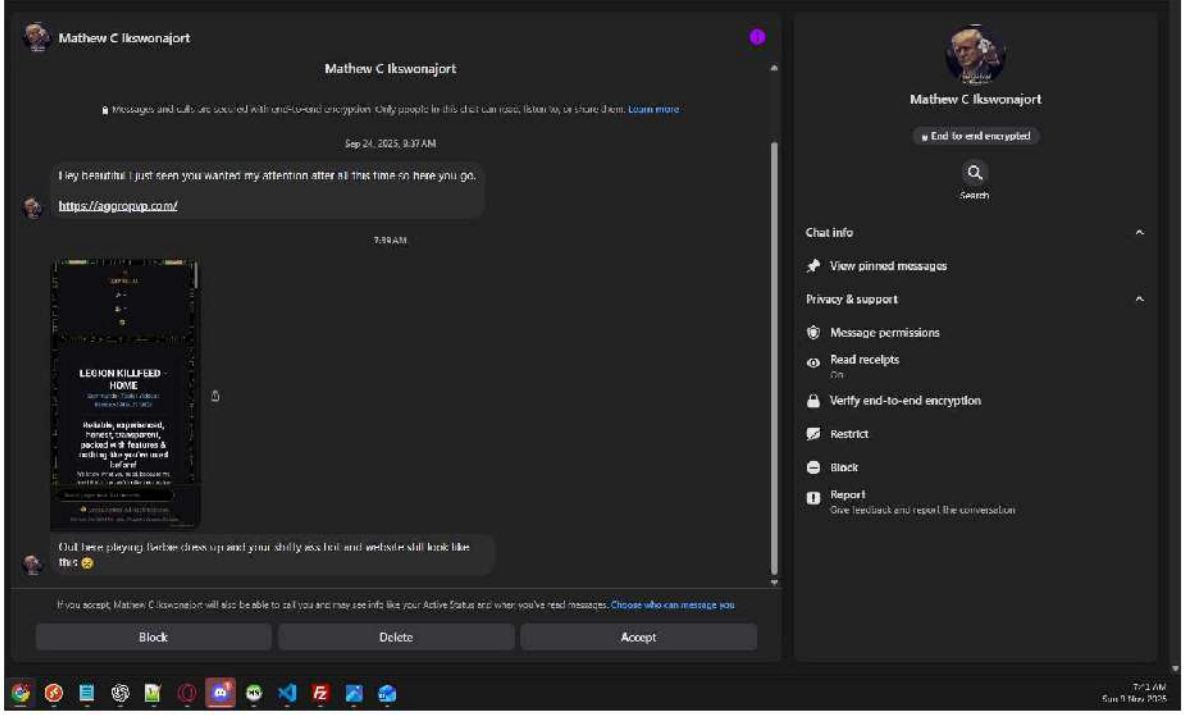

This request concerns "cyber-abuse material targeted at an Australian adult" within the meaning of the Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth), section 7. In particular:

- Section 7(1b) requires that an ordinary reasonable person would conclude it is likely the material was intended to have an effect of causing serious harm to a particular Australian adult.
- Section 7(1c) requires that an ordinary reasonable person in the position of the Australian adult would regard the material, in all the circumstances, as menacing, harassing or offensive.
- "Serious harm" includes serious harm to mental health, including serious psychological harm and serious distress (Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth), section 5).
- The Act also recognises indirect effects (i.e., harm caused when others access the material) (Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth), section 7(2)).

The Reddit thread and linked comments satisfy these elements because they are targeted at me (as "Soul") and my sole-trader business (Legion Killfeed), and they publish repeated, explicit allegations of serious wrongdoing and criminality as statements of fact, including claims that I "sell your files", "steal files", "hack", "destroy servers via FTP", "hijack user files using a token", and that my software has "malicious intent". The content further escalates to hostile, abusive statements and directives encouraging people to remove the bot, avoid anything associated with me, and treat me as a criminal threat. The obvious and foreseeable effect is serious distress and harm, including reputational destruction, customer cancellations, and further off-platform harassment.

For specificity, examples of the exact unlawful/abusive statements include:

URL:	Exact text:
https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue	"Has this happened to anyone else? Is he always such a douche? ... https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/kwcjm4s/	"Legion Killfeed is just around to collect and sell your files. He's done so in the past with other servers. Before the killfeed he deleted Greedys server files and also the servers of multiple servers he had FTP access to. These are not false claims this is JUST who Soul is. Look around he's got the scammer tag is many of the DayZ discords."

https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/kywtf93/	"There's been hundreds of complaints in the community about legion Killfeed. Reproduction steps:

1. Open https://aggropvp.com in a normal browser session with JavaScript enabled.
2. Wait approximately 10 to 15 seconds.
3. Observe the forced redirect to a rick-roll video.

This behavior is relevant because it shows intent to obscure content and frustrate review, while continuing to run a coordinated reputational attack and keep Search amplification working.

Summary of what I am requesting from Google
A) Remove/correct the Google Search AI Overview text that is publishing false and defamatory claims about Legion Killfeed:

- Screenshot:

B) Confirm escalation to the Search AI Overview team and confirm the removal/correction outcome in writing.

This request is narrowly focused on Google-generated AI Overview content that Google publishes inside Search results pages.

Regards,
Anthony Brodie
(Soul / Legion Killfeed)

3. Prior response you gave that "content could not be located" (aggropvp.com)
   Your Dec 30, 2025 email stated:
   "Upon recent review of the following URLs, we were unable to locate the content in question: https://aggropvp.com"

That domain is using a DMCA-themed notice page that automatically redirects after a short delay (approximately 10 to 15 seconds) to a rick-roll video. This appears designed to waste reviewer time and to conceal what is hosted on the domain.

Evidence: Security trails / DNS history showing infrastructure overlap and hosting trails consistent with the above domains being operated/controlled together (screenshots)

Evidence: u/Brief_Ordinary1438 advertising "Anon pvp" on Reddit (screenshots)

Requested action:

- Remove this AI Overview for my brand query and closely related variants.
- Prevent the same defamatory AI Overview output from reappearing for this business name.
- Confirm escalation to the Search AI Overview team and confirm removal/correction.

2. Why the AI Overview content is unreliable (competitor coordination and infrastructure evidence)
The AI Overview appears to be summarising and amplifying a coordinated competitor-driven narrative.

The competitor operating DayZ Skynet (competing service) is the same party behind the online campaign that includes:

- the Reddit profile u/Brief_Ordinary1438 (which repeatedly posts attacks about Legion, and also advertises "Anon PVP"), and
- domains hosting dedicated defamatory content targeting Legion, including https://skynetvslegion.com and https://aggropvp.com.

I am not asking Google to adjudicate ownership in the abstract. I am providing evidence that the AI Overview is amplifying a coordinated campaign tied to a direct competitor, and that the competitor has repeatedly moved or hidden content while attempting to keep Search amplification intact.

Evidence: "Anon PVP" advertised by the competitor on Facebook (public post screenshots)

Hello,

Thanks for your reply. Below is the requested information for my AI Mode removal request.

1. Screenshot of the exact statement or question given to Search that resulted in the response
   I have attached a screenshot showing the exact query I entered:
   Legion Killfeed Controversy
2. Screenshot of the exact content/response I would like removed
   I have attached a screenshot showing the full AI Mode response. I am also providing the share link to the same response:
   https://share.google/aimode/y2pkjBqQDrpPBde1n
3. Which country edition of AI Mode I am viewing the response in Australia, English.
4. Explanation of how the AI Mode content is about me and or how it is objectionable
   The AI Mode response is about my business and product, Legion Killfeed, and it is describing me as the owner. It makes multiple false and defamatory claims, including accusing the owner "Soul" or "Saul" of "server sabotage" and claiming I "reset looped" servers to kill communities. It also presents misleading claims about customer service and pricing, and recommends a competitor as an alternative based on hostile posts that are part of an ongoing smear effort.

Key issues:

- Identity and attribution errors: It refers to the owner as "Saul" and attributes serious misconduct to me and my business.
- Defamation and harmful allegations: It repeats or relies on posts that are outright defamatory and have included pedophile style smears and incitement. Example comments in the underlying threads include short statements like "all pedos should die" and "Make woodchippers great again." I have included an evidence export showing the specific comments, timestamps, and permalinks.
- Wrong and irrelevant sourcing: It cites an ABC News article about "international Legion" in Ukraine which is unrelated to this DayZ Discord bot, and it also mixes in links that are about different services or unrelated pages.
  https://www.abc.net.au/news/2025-01-16/australian-oscar-jenkins-ukraine-international-legion-russia-war/104819472
- Reliance on known false sources and misidentification: Several cited links are from the Facebook group "Make DayZ Great Again" where the publisher has a history of weaponizing defamation, including falsely alleging the bot owner is a pedophile. These posts are not reliable sources to summarize as factual, and the AI Mode output is amplifying them as if they were credible.

Primary URLs that AI Mode relied on or that are directly relevant to the defamatory claims:

- https://www.facebook.com/groups/makedayzgreatagain/posts/1481591939589293/
- https://www.facebook.com/groups/makedayzgreatagain/posts/1467851097630044/
- https://www.facebook.com/groups/dayzeditors/posts/1385739236246930/
- https://www.facebook.com/groups/2360635877481498/posts/4008629356015467/
- https://www.facebook.com/groups/787847268691626/posts/1990396755103332/

For completeness, I note that at least one of the above links is about dayzkillfeed.com rather than Legion Killfeed at killfeed.co, which further demonstrates the response is mixing unrelated entities and presenting a misleading narrative about my business.

Please confirm receipt of the attachments and advise the next step for review and removal.

A disgruntled SERVER OWNER made these claims but he's also one of my staff's ex partners.
He posted the lies after spreading pedophile accusations in the exact same facebook goup this lie comes from.

Clearly the 50+ verified trustpilot reviews aren't used to check against that directly contradict this, that's libel and can cost Google their defamation exemption

Who says my tokens aren't encrypted? They are never asked for at all. I actively discourage anyone ever sending tokens. It's all self-setup via bot-commands. So this is direct slander.

FALSE!
NO COMPETITOR OTHER THAN SKYNET AKA MATHEW HAS MADE THESE CLAIMS

AND THAT'S THE SAME PERSON TRYING TO GET ME TO KILL MYSELF

Legion Killfeed Contraversay

As of late 2025, the Legion Killfeed bot for DayZ has faced several controversies revolving around allegations of administrative abuse, poor customer service, and aggressive competition with other bot developers.

Key Controversies

- Allegations of Server Sabotage: There have been public claims in community groups that the bot's owner has used administrative access to "reset loop" servers or force players to leave communities if they switch to or mention competing services.
- Customer Support & Conduct: A significant portion of the controversy stems from the behavior of the developer (often referred to as "Saul" or "Soul"). Multiple users have reported receiving rude or unprofessional responses to support tickets, including being mocked for technical difficulties.
- Security & Privacy Concerns: Some server owners have raised issues regarding the bot's requirement for unencrypted setup tokens, which are sometimes requested via Discord tickets rather than secure automated systems.
- Developer Bans: Reports exist of the developer banning server owners from using the bot for seemingly arbitrary reasons, which can leave a server's tracking and management tools non-functional without warning.
- Rivalry with Other Bots: Legion Killfeed has been involved in public "smear campaigns" and disputes with rival bot services like Skynet and DayZ++. The developers have openly accused competitors of spreading "lies" while competitors have made similar counter-claims.

WHERE?! SHOW ME ONE! LYING FUCKS.

Mixed Reputation

Despite these controversies, the bot remains popular due to its high functionality.

- Positive Feedback: Many users on Trustpilot praise the bot for its comprehensive feature set, such as 1,000m base radars and instant event tracking.
- Negative Feedback: Critics warn potential users to avoid the service due to the risk of "admin abuse" or losing access to their paid service if they clash with the developer.

Subject: New Minimum Age Requirement

ParentalUnitSoul

We're writing to let you know that starting 10 December 2025, Australian law will require that redditors in Australia must be 16 or older to create and use Reddit accounts.

Users confirmed to be under 16 will have their accounts suspended under the new Australian minimum age law. While we disagree with the Government's assessment of Reddit as being within the scope of the law, we need to take steps to comply. This means anyone in Australia with a Reddit account confirmed to be under 16 will be blocked from accessing their account or creating a new one. Note that as an open platform, Reddit is still available to browse without an account.

If you have questions, please visit Reddit Help. To request a copy of your Reddit account data, you can follow the instructions on this help center article or email redditdatarequests@reddit.com from the email address you used to verify your Reddit account. You can also learn more about Australia's new social media minimum age ban here.

It is lies. By competitors. It is affecting my business and it is unlawful slander.

Owner / developer – Legion Killfeed

P.S.
I quite frankly couldn't give a shit about your routing policies, they do not supercede law and when I did follow them, I was ignored.
I am quite literally weeks from filing in court, make a smart choice here.

- The original poster is tied to "Kamikaze420" / DayZ Skynet, which is a direct commercial competitor offering a killfeed product that competes with Legion Killfeed.
- That same person has posted in your thread using the account "Brief_Ordinary1438", including comments written in German.
- DayZ++ is operated out of Germany. The fact that the same cluster of accounts alternates between English and German, doubles down on the same false allegations, and now directly advertises DayZ++ strongly suggests coordinated competitor activity rather than independent customer experience.

4. This sits in complete contrast to verified customer feedback. On Trustpilot, where identities and payments can actually be verified, Legion Killfeed currently has the highest and most numerous reviews for any killfeed bot in this niche, with an overall score of about 4.8 out of 5 from 53 five star reviews and one four star review. The first page of reviews, consistently describes:

   These are real, paying customers describing real interactions, and they say the exact opposite of what your Reddit thread claims. By comparison, common community complaints about DayZ++ focus on slow or absent support, which again highlights that the Reddit narrative is not an honest comparison of services but a targeted smear designed to undermine my business.

   - fast, hands on support
   - detailed features and reliability
   - my direct involvement in solving configuration issues
   - long term satisfaction from server owners across multiple countries

In addition to this new "MASSIVE19" promotion for DayZ++, you are already holding extensive evidence of competitor involvement and bad faith, including but not limited to:

- Discord logs showing "I'm_Obviously_Mario" admitting they had been in my community for years before pretending to be a brand new user in order to post on Reddit.
- Screenshots of "Brief_Ordinary1438", "I'm_Obviously_Mario" and others repeating coordinated, fabricated claims about my bot, my servers, my handling of data and my character.
- Screenshots linking the "Brief_Ordinary1438" account and the same circle of people to Mathew Trojanowski / "Kamikaze420" / DayZ Skynet, whose own website and marketing clearly position him as a direct competitor.
- Screenshots of other Reddit users like "MongooseCandid2716" and "Specialist_Arm4258" joining in the same smear campaign while the same moderator account controls the relevant subreddits.
- A Google search for "Legion Killfeed" where this defamatory Reddit thread appears on the first page of results, directly under my official website and other legitimate listings, ensuring maximum harm to my business every time a potential customer researches me.
- Copies of my previous reports to Reddit Admin and the Help Center setting out that this is targeted harassment, impersonation and commercial sabotage rather than legitimate criticism.

All of this has already been set out for you in earlier reports and in my October 2025 cease and desist. You are therefore not a neutral, unaware platform. You are on clear and repeated notice that:

- the allegations in this thread are false;
- the people making them are linked to competing services, not genuine customers; and
- the content is causing ongoing, serious harm to an identifiable Australian business and its owner.

Continuing to host that material, while emailing me about age eligibility for a 16 plus threshold that plainly does not apply to me, does not meet your obligations under Australian defamation law or under the basic expectations for online safety and platform responsibility.

Accordingly, I again require that Reddit:

1. Confirm that your records correctly reflect that I am 32 years old and that the new Australian minimum age law is not a basis to suspend or interfere with my account.
2. Remove or permanently hide the defamatory Reddit content identified in my previous cease and desist, including the r/DayZDiscussions thread above, the new "MASSIVE19" comment and associated cross posts that repeat or amplify the same allegations.
3. Preserve all logs and identifying data relating to the relevant posts, comments, accounts and moderation actions, including but not limited to "Brief_Ordinary1438", "I'm_Obviously_Mario", "MASSIVE19", "MongooseCandid2716", "Specialist_Arm4258" and any linked accounts, as this material is evidence in ongoing and contemplated legal and regulatory proceedings.
4. Provide a substantive written response to my cease and desist explaining what steps Reddit has taken or will take to comply with Australian defamation law and your own stated trust and safety obligations in respect of this matter.

The attached files include screenshots, prior correspondence and review data that collectively demonstrate that these are not honest consumer opinions but a coordinated, competitor driven smear campaign that you have been aware of since at least 2024. Your continued failure to act, despite repeated detailed notice, is causing ongoing and serious harm to me and my business.

I reserve all my rights.

Regards,
Anthony "Soul" Brodie

Subject: Re: Age requirement notice – unresolved defamation, competitor activity and prior cease and desist

Hi Reddit,

Please note that this is a lawful request made in good faith for the removal and preservation of clearly identified defamatory material. Any attempt to ignore it, delay it, or characterise it as duplicative, frivolous, vexatious, or otherwise submitted in bad faith will not absolve Reddit of its legal responsibilities under Australian defamation law (including the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW) and equivalent legislation) or its broader online safety and consumer protection obligations.

I am writing in response to your email about the new Australian minimum age requirement for Reddit accounts.

First, for the avoidance of doubt: I am 32 years old. I am not a minor, have not been a minor at any time during the operation of my Reddit accounts, and there is no lawful basis to treat me as under 16 or to interfere with my access on that ground.

Secondly, this age notice does nothing to address the issue you have been on notice about for more than a year: Reddit is still hosting defamatory content targeting me personally and my Australian business, Legion Killfeed (software company, see: https://killfeed.co/). I issued a formal cease and desist and preservation notice in October 2025 regarding that material, and you have not complied with it. The core thread remains live at:

https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/

In that thread and related posts, a small group of users who are not genuine customers but direct or indirect competitors falsely allege that I:

- run "malicious" code
- steal or sell customer files and data
- use FTP or SQL injection to damage servers
- scam people for tokens and money
- wiped someone's Discord server

These are serious, specific allegations of dishonest and even criminal conduct by me and my business. They are false. Under Australian defamation law they are plainly defamatory, and they are causing ongoing serious harm.

Nine days ago, at the same time as a fresh wave of fake Trustpilot reviews was pushed against my business, a new comment was added to that same Reddit thread:

> MASSIVE19 • 9d ago
> Holy moly guys, I had the worst experience with LegionKillfeed. That soul boy is such a clown. Unwilling to assist with anything. Threats ppl like garbage. You can definitely tell the lawsuits are getting the better of him.
>
> Do yourselves a massive favour and join dayz++ instead. Their services is just 110% better and actually worth your time, money and energy.

There are several important points about this new comment:

1. There is no evidence this person has ever used my service. In the last 15 days there have been zero subscription cancellations, and in the last 10 days there have been no new sign ups at all. Whoever "MASSIVE19" is, they are not an identifiable customer and have not interacted with my business through any legitimate channel.
2. The comment is promotional for a competitor, not a genuine review. It is framed entirely to deter customers from using Legion Killfeed and push them toward a rival product ("join dayz++ instead"). That is advertising, not consumer feedback. It fits the same pattern as the coordinated Trustpilot spam that began nine days ago, which also attempts to dissuade potential customers while promoting alternatives.
3. The pattern of competitor involvement is already documented.

okay but the code has malicious intent. It removed and edited my files without my permission. It also adjusted servers settings was told " it's needed for the bot to work"

Soul has screwed over other owners in the past and has a bad reputation with a lot of servers owners.

DO YOUR RESEARCH BEFORE ADDING LEGION KILLFEED!!!

you used the same account to post twice and you used to post about anon pvp but isnt that the skynet developers server name?

Seems like soul isnt lying about competitor slander, especially cuz he refunded me instantly when i had a issue n hes known for fixing files for free everywhere else

Brief_Ordinary1438 • 1y ago

Soul has done nothing for his killfeed and when asked about it I got banned with no money back on my subscription. He's just going and scamming people for their tokens and money I would highly recommend any other bot.

You know man I haven't been well I'm still getting slandered by that bitch. I've attempted to kill myself 8 times in the last week and I have no motivation anymore. Yes I've been back and no I haven't talked to hardly anyone.
You don't understand how fuck this made all off my life how a bunch of full bullshit lies she has.

You know I never deleted a single file. If she didn't block me maybe she could have gotten the email I got about data loss on the LA network that caused the files to delete. So keep believing what you think before you know the whole story. She manipulates people and I thought I was but you know what she made that lie up and made me believe it was all me.

You let it go because apparently I can and I have tried but you know what the slander and bullshit keeps going on imma do something about it I've had it she wants to keep pushing me she hasn't even seen the half of me.

You all "think" you know what I'm capable of but you guys have no idea but you know what I had things to lose and now I don't so how the next few weeks go right be interesting depending on how she wants to play this but know I'm not going to back down if she keeps pushing me.

You do realize I already have all your files for the new Server's on the new Nitrado correct. Funny how a multi billion dollar company can miss such an old school exploit.

But have I done anything? Nope can I? Yup

There's a reason why I don't have a full time computer career and why I like being blue collar keeps me out of trouble and the temptations.

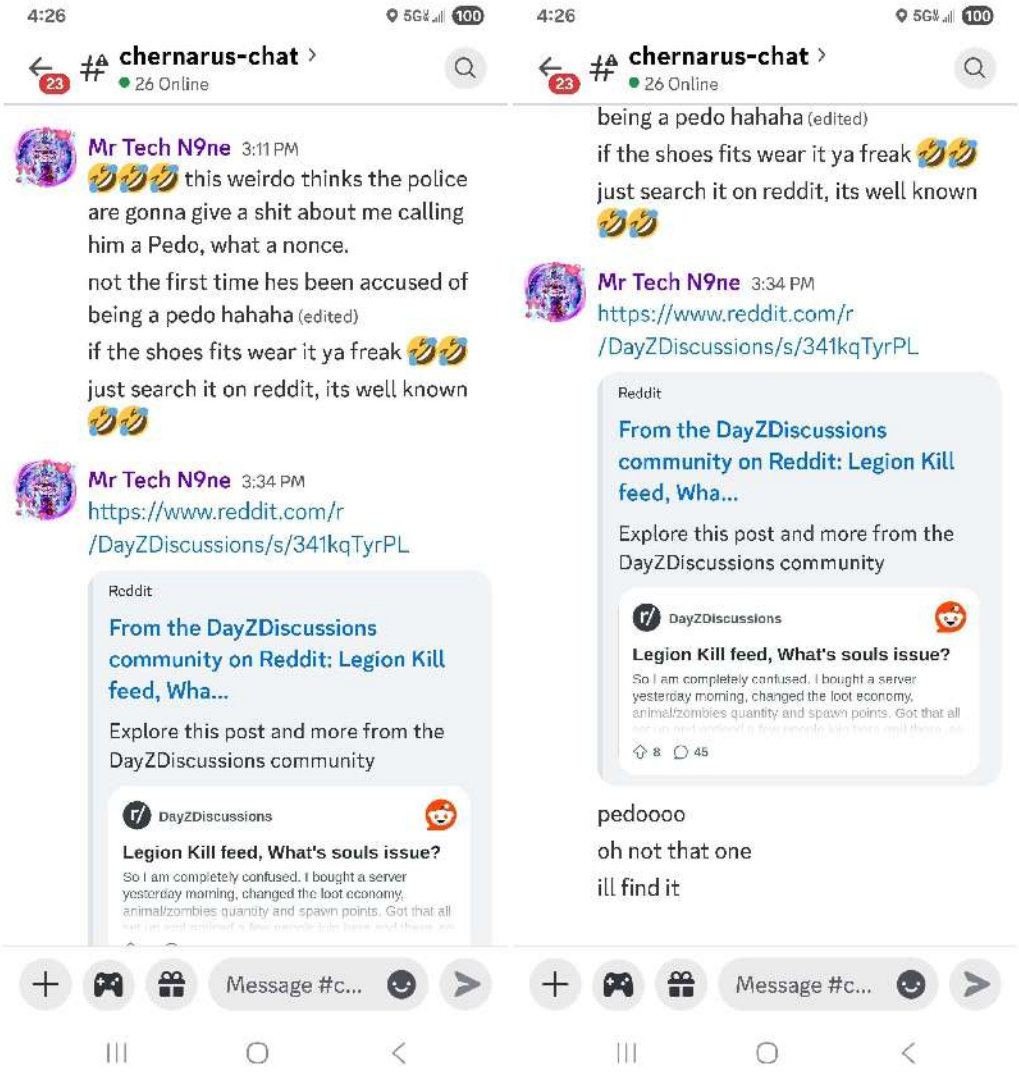

You can say you have witnessed it but just so you know she slandered me deleted the files to make her look like she didnt do anything.

Did you know she did the same thing to greedy and then denied it? I bet you didn't. This is Azzy and you say you don't care but clearly you do.

This is an opportunity to mitigate, not avoid, your exposure. If you maintain the position that you will not process this notice or remove the URLs, please state so explicitly so I can place it before the court and the relevant regulators.

Hi Reddit Legal,

Your latest response stating that you are "not processing" my report and implying that it may be duplicative, frivolous, vexatious, or submitted in bad faith is noted and rejected.

This notice is made in good faith. I am an Australian business owner dealing with clear, ongoing reputational and financial harm arising from targeted false statements on your platform. I have given you specific URLs, explained the basis in Australian defamation law, and requested removal, preservation, and a clear decision. That is exactly what a good-faith defamation complainant is required to do.

For the avoidance of doubt: this is a defamation complaint, not an Online Safety Act "restricted content" report. You have been on notice about this material since 2024. Every refusal to act after notice is a fresh publication and will be relied on as such.

Your own records show that I have repeatedly used your in-product reporting systems and Help Center in good faith, including but not limited to the reports and admin decisions visible at:

https://www.reddit.com/message/messages/2fol8po
https://www.reddit.com/message/messages/2fnszgp
https://www.reddit.com/message/messages/2fnsu3q
https://www.reddit.com/message/messages/2cu5yzm

Those reports flagged targeted harassment, impersonation, and commercial interference. They identified u/Brief_Ordinary1438 as a direct competitor and former staff member engaging in a coordinated smear campaign across Reddit, Discord, and Facebook, and explained that their posts were damaging my business. Admin responses used templates stating "no violation" while leaving the same defamatory content online. My later notices simply repeat the same URLs because Reddit has never dealt with the defamation issue. Re-notifying you while the same material remains live is not bad faith; it is direct evidence that Reddit is continuing publication after notice.

For completeness, I am attaching representative screenshots showing the scope of the defamation, the cross-platform coordination, the competitor involvement, and the real business harm caused:

• Pedophile accusation made in a Discord DayZ community by the same individuals involved in the Reddit thread.
• Facebook posts by the same users coordinating false reports and encouraging others to "get Legion shut down".
• Customer cancellations directly caused by the defamatory rumours.
• Multiple Reddit comments from u/Brief_Ordinary1438 falsely alleging that I hack servers, steal files, inject SQL, sell user data, destroy servers, or run "malicious code".
• Evidence linking "Brief_Ordinary1438" to Mathew Trojanowski, a direct competitor whose own site and posts confirm his involvement in rival services.
• Long-term harassment, threats, impersonation, and cross-platform smear attempts, including suicide-baiting directed at me.
• Additional Discord conversations showing that competitors openly discuss having my business attacked, reported, and shut down.

These records show that:

– the allegations are factual assertions, not opinions
– the statements are false
– the defamatory content is coordinated and commercially motivated
– the harm is real, including financial loss and customer cancellations
– I have reported this repeatedly for over a year
– Reddit has ignored every good-faith attempt to resolve it

The accusations that I hack users, destroy servers, access private files, sell data, or have "malicious code" in my bot are extremely serious. They are fabricated. They meet the serious harm threshold under the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW and harmonised Acts). They target an identifiable Australian business and its owner and have already caused substantial damage.

Labelling my complaint as potentially "frivolous, vexatious or in bad faith" in the face of this documented history will itself be relied on as part of any claim for aggravated damages.

I repeat my key requests:

• Remove the URLs previously notified, including:
https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9029/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue
and the linked comments identified in earlier notices.

• Confirm preservation of all related content, logs and metadata (including account IDs, IP addresses, device identifiers, moderator actions, escalation notes, and prior reports).

• Confirm that this matter has been escalated to the appropriate legal/defamation review team for Australian matters, not dismissed with a generic template.

• Provide a clear written decision on this defamation notice.

Proceedings in Australia are being prepared and will go ahead regardless. If Reddit continues to refuse to process this as a defamation complaint while leaving the material online, I will proceed on the basis that:

• Reddit is a publisher for the purposes of Australian defamation law;
• Reddit has knowingly continued publication after notice; and
• Reddit's dismissals and non-action will be relied upon in support of aggravated damages and costs.

This bot is absolutely 10000% trash. You rent their bot, and they don't allow you to use the bots discord to promote your server unless you lay them even more money. The bots features are garbase as well. You are better of going and renting the Dayz++ bot for a lot less than what is charged by these guys.

That's funny, because it's been free for over a year, sounds liike you're just promoting another bot and spitting all over mine without ever actually using it.

The truth is, we allow anyone using the bot to advertise within our support discord. They simply have to have the role that is added automatically by the bot when you set it up for your server..

Reddit Legal Support,

I acknowledge your 2 Oct 2025 message. You confirmed receipt of my notice and directed me to public forms, and you stated Reddit will not preserve or disclose account information without "valid legal process." Your internal policies and routing guidelines do not supersede the law. You are now on actual notice of unlawful content. Continued publication after notice can create liability, regardless of your forms or workflows.

My 1 Oct 2025 cease and desist identified the URLs, quoted the exact words, and set out the commercial rival linkage. That notice remains in force. This correspondence renews the removal demand and litigation hold.

Unlawful content that must be removed now
The post and comments contain false statements of verifiable fact about me and my business, used to fuel off-platform harassment and commercial harm:

- https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9029/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue

Representative excerpts and the competitor linkage are already on record in my 1 Oct notice. Remove the URLs above and materially similar republications in that thread.

Policies and forms do not displace legal duties
Your reply attempts to re-route a legal notice to public intake forms and claims Reddit cannot preserve or disclose without "valid legal process." I am not asking you to ignore your internal processes. I am stating that internal processes do not change the effect of actual legal notice. You have enough information to remove unlawful content and to take reasonable steps to preserve evidence. Treat this as a litigation hold request pending formal service. If you require court process to implement a defined preservation period, confirm the correct details for service and I will proceed.

Preservation notice
Until you hear otherwise from me or my lawyers, take reasonable steps within your standard retention to avoid deletion, rotation, or alteration of:

- Post and comment contents and edit histories
- Moderator actions, modmail, Automoderator logs, Safety escalations, approvals and removals
- Account identifiers and access logs for the involved accounts, to the extent permitted by law and policy

Your 2 Oct email already references your guidelines for civil and non-government legal requests. Confirm the precise service process and addresses for email and physical service so that I can serve formal process without delay.

Deadlines

1. Remove the URLs listed above and any materially similar republications in the same thread within 72 hours of receipt.
2. Confirm removal and interim preservation in writing within 72 hours.
3. Provide a named legal contact and the exact details for service of process within 48 hours.
   These deadlines are reasonable given the explicit notice already provided on 1 Oct 2025.

Exact competitor linkage that explains motive and identity

This is not organic commentary. It originates from a direct commercial rival connected to Mathew Trojanowski. The attachments show:

- Image: Kami - outright lies to deter customerz.jpg

  What it shows: the website "https://mathewtrojanowski.com" presenting "DayZ Skynet - A killfeed system for DayZ on Xbox and PlayStation" and "Find My Alt - Links alts for DayZ server owners to use when making bans." The collage also shows the Reddit profile "https://www.reddit.com/user/Brief_Ordinary1438" with the display name "Try again," and a Facebook post by "Mathew C Trojanowski" promoting "Anon PVP" servers.

- Image: kamikaze-many-bad-experiences-legion-killfeed-bot-should-watched.jpg

- Image: 20250715 - MrTechs Reddit Post.jpg
  What it shows: Discord user "Mr Tech N9ne" stating "this weirdo thinks the police are gonna give a shit about me calling him a Pedo, what a nonce ... just search it on reddit, its well known," immediately followed by a link to the same Reddit thread: https://www.redcit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/s/34_1kqTyrPL

- Image: 20250715 - MrTechs Reddit Post2.jpg

  What it shows: the same user reposting the same thread link and adding "pedoooo," using the Reddit thread as the citation for abuse.

Together, these show:

- "https://mathewtrojanowski.com" identifies Mathew Trojanowski with "DayZ Skynet" (a direct competitor).
- Mathew's Facebook post advertises "Anon PVP" servers.
- The Reddit account "u/Brief_Ordinary1438" promotes "Anon PVP" and posts the defamatory claims quoted above.
- Off-platform harassment uses the Reddit thread as the source ("just search it on reddit, its well known").

Prior notice and failed removals that establish republication-after-notice liability

I am not contacting Reddit for the first time. Reddit has already received reports about this thread and the same actors. The following Reddit admin messages show prior notice and refusal to act:

- "We Have Reviewed Your Report" automated admin decision: https://www.redcit.com/message/messages/2fol8po
- Help Center report describing targeted harassment: https://www.reddit.com/message/messages/2frszgp
- Impersonation report referencing the same thread: https://www.reddit.com/message/messages/2fnsu3q

Separately, Trustpilot has already been put on notice multiple times about materially similar defamation and cross-platform republication

Trustpilot's repeated decisions to leave or reinstate content after explicit notice are pleaded in my legal drafts and form part of why Trustpilot is being sued for republication after notice. Reddit is now in an identical position of explicit notice for this thread and these accounts.

- The statements identify me and my business and assert verifiable facts ("collect and sell your files," "deleted servers," "malicious intent," "known Scammer"). They are false and calculated to cause serious economic harm.
- The thread is being used to fuel harassment off-platform, as shown in the attachments.
- Prior reports to Reddit were rejected, so this letter is a formal cease and desist and preservation notice.

Demands

a) Immediate removal of the post and the comments identified at the URLs in section 1, plus materially similar republications in that thread.

b) Written confirmation of removal within 72 hours.

c) Preservation of evidence. Treat this as a litigation hold. Preserve moderator logs, modmail, automod decisions, approvals and removals, bans and

I am placing Reddit on formal notice. A coordinated competitor campaign is using r/DayZDiscussions to publish false statements of fact about me and my business and to drive off-platform harassment. You now have explicit notice of the URLs, the exact words, and the linkage to a direct competitor. If Reddit refuses to remove the notified content, I will add Reddit as a publisher in defamation proceedings. I am already preparing filings against Meta and Trustpilot for republication after notice.

Basis of Unlawfulness
The content at these URLs is defamatory under the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW) and the uniform defamation laws of Australia:
Publication: Publicly accessible Reddit threads and competitor websites.
Identification: They name me directly ("Soul") and identify my business, Legion Killfeed.
Defamatory meaning: They allege dishonesty, fraud, technical sabotage, and abusive conduct, presented as fact.
Falsity / Malice: These claims are false and published by a direct competitor to damage my reputation and divert customers.
No defences: Not substantially true (s.25), not honest opinion (s.31), and not privileged.

Supporting Evidence (attached):
Screenshots showing the Reddit user u/Brief_Ordinary1438 posting these allegations while simultaneously promoting the competing service Anon PVP / DayZ Skynet.
Proof that the individual behind these accounts is Mathew Trojanowski, owner of the competing Skynet/Anon PVP service and domains such as skynetvslegion.com and aggropvp.com.
Screenshots of harassment and false DDoS accusations (which exposed the IP hosting ~30 domains/mailers targeting my former server names, used to disparage my product).
These exhibits show a deliberate competitor-driven smear campaign, further supporting the malicious publication element under Australian defamation law.
I respectfully request that Google proceed with delisting of these URLs from its search results.

Kind regards,

Anthony Brodie

Explain in detail why you believe the content on the above URL(s) is unlawful, citing specific provisions of law wherever possible. For requests other than defamation, Google shares the information in this open text field with Lumen for transparency purposes. Do not include any personal data in your explanation. For more information about Lumen, see here.

The content at the listed URLs is unlawful because it constitutes defamation under the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW) and equivalent Uniform Defamation Laws across Australia.
Publication: The posts and comments are published publicly on Reddit and associated competitor websites (aggropvp.com, skynetvslegion.com), making them available to a wide audience.
Identification: The content expressly names my business, Legion Killfeed, and myself ("Soul"), so readers clearly understand the statements refer to me and my service.
Defamatory Meaning: The material accuses me and my business of misconduct, dishonesty, and other negative behavior. These statements are presented as factual assertions, not opinion, and would cause a reasonable person to think less of me or my business.
Falsity: The allegations are false. They were created and promoted by a direct competitor in order to harm my reputation and divert customers. None of the claims can be substantiated by evidence.
Harm: These statements have caused reputational and commercial damage by misleading potential customers into believing false claims.
No Defences Apply:
The statements are not substantially true (Defamation Act 2005 (NSW) s.25).
They are not "honest opinion" because they are presented as fact without a factual basis (s.31).
They are not privileged communications.
Under Defamation Act 2005 (NSW), s.4, matter is defamatory if it "tends to lower the reputation of the plaintiff in the estimation of ordinary reasonable people." These publications clearly meet that test.
Accordingly, the material is unlawful because it is defamatory, false, and malicious in origin, published with the intent to damage a competitor.

In order to ensure specificity, please quote the exact text from each URL above that you believe infringes on your rights. If the allegedly infringing content is a picture or video, please provide a detailed description of the picture/video in question so that we may locate it on the URL in question.

If you're looking to get hacked and have your files stolen by Soul Lags, actually pay his fee and don't cry when it happens. Soul is committed to creating drama in the community. He doesn't care about you or anyone else; he only cares about his drama and will base his entire business around it. The man is more focused on drama than on working on his broken bots with poor security.

This is not the user you are questioning. The information was leaked along with a database dump. Soul is known to use FTP to destroy servers and wreak havoc on the DayZ community. The user is also more focused on drama than basic security needs, including SQL injection into the database, which has yet to be fixed. There are many people who provide clear evidence that this user is only interested in financial gain and personal gain of important information. This user is hijacking user files using a token to sell and distribute user files for financial gain. Check out the replies and feedback from other users listed in this thread.

Soul has done nothing for his killfeed and when asked about it I got banned with no money back on my subscription. He's just going and scamming people for their tokens and money I would highly recommend any other bot.

So many bad experiences with Legion killfeed. This bot should be watched and avoided at all cost it might look okay but the code has malicious intent. It removed and edited my files without my permission. It also adjusted servers settings was told "it's needed for the bot to work"
Soul has screwed over other owners in the past and has a bad reputation with a lot of servers owners.

So you use DayZ Editor to build custom areas/buildings/loot etc.
Once you finished the build, you upload it to your servers files.
May be different for PC but we personally are console and upload everything to our files from the host Nitrado.
When you save the build in editor, console normally exports to JSON and adds the build to the /custom folder

aSoul BOT Today at 2:23 PM
And only added my bots specifically . No normal moderation bots, for someone with a discord older than mine (as you said) you're red hot mate. It costs $7 for a an aged account.

Quite abusing too aren't ya?
You know where you fucked up?

I'm_Obviously_Mario Today at 2:26 PM
okay im not sure why theres such an issue, like ive said serveal times i dont know what im doing and i dont understand why I have to prove myself to you. like I said I havent never had my own server, every other dayz server has this killfeed and i didnt even know anyone would see what i was trying to do. i didnt know i had to pay for anything as my server isnt crazy just added loot animals and zombies (edited)

yes I know, but it worked yesterday so what am I doing wrong is it because the token that worked and that i used yesterday was bahbahblacksheep I made the token so do i need to make a new api token?
does the server need to be completley set up before adding the killfeed?
the dayz server is running and i had a few people join but i was setting up the discord before I do anything legit

So many bad experiences with Legion killfeed. This bot should be watched and avoided at all cost it might look okay but the code has malicious intent. It removed and edited my files without my permission. It also adjusted servers settings was told " it's needed for the bot to work"

Soul has screwed over other owners in the past and has a bad reputation with a lot of servers owners.

DO YOUR RESEARCH BEFORE ADDING LEGION KILLFEED!!!

Soul has done nothing for his killfeed and when asked about it I got banned with no money back on my subscription. He's just going and scamming people for their tokens and money I would highly recommend any other bot.

If you're looking to get hacked and have your files stolen by Soul Lags, actually pay his fee and don't cry when it happens. Soul is committed to creating drama in the community. He doesn't care about you or anyone else; he only cares about his drama and will base his entire business around it. The man is more focused on drama than on working on his broken bots with poor security.

This is not the user you are questioning. The information was leaked along with a database dump. Soul is known to use FTP to destroy servers and wreak havoc on the DayZ community. The user is also more focused on drama than basic security needs, including SQL injection into the database, which has yet to be fixed. There are many people who provide clear evidence that this user is only interested in financial gain and personal gain of important information. This user is hijacking user files using a token to sell and distribute user files for financial gain. Check out the replies and feedback from other users listed in this thread.

Yes thank you, I found your guy's bot in a server I was in and have subscribed to the premium. I've asked for help a few times and y'all have stepped up and been beyond helpful. I also wrote a review because y'all were helping educate me having no clue about code and absolutely no judgement. I really appreciate it and am so glad I found y'all's bot. Y'all rock! 💪

Legion Killfeed is just around to collect and sell your files. He's done so in the past with other servers. Before the killfeed he deleted Greedys server files and also the servers of multiple servers he had FTP access to. These are not false claims this is JUST who Soul is. Look around he's got the scammer tag is many of the DayZ discords.

MongooseCandid2716 • 5mo ago

There's been hundreds of complaints in the community about legion Killfeed. The bot downloads custom files from customers and the owner Soul (the Killfeed maker) sells them for profit.

Soul is a known Scammer is so many communities. Would never ever ever trust him to hold a token for any server!

Keep it up with the alts and slander dude, it's a registered business.
SQL injection can be classed as a cyber crime.
Attempting SQL injection on a registered business can have serious repurcussions.
I bought up that you were in Aggro PVP (my server where I started the killfeed), because you had been in there

You know man I haven't been well I'm still getting slandered by that bitch. I've attempted to kill myself 8 times in the last week and I have no motivation anymore. Yes I've been back and no I haven't talked to hardly anyone.
You don't understand how fuck this made all off my life how a bunch of full bullshit lies she has.

You know I never deleted a single file. If she didn't block me maybe she could have gotten the email I got about data loss on the LA network that caused the files to delete. So keep believing what you think before you know the whole story. She manipulates people and I thought I was but you know what she made that lie up and made me believe it was all me.

You let it go because apparently I can and I have tried but you know what the slander and bullshit keeps going on imma do something about it I've had it she wants to keep pushing me she hasn't even seen the half of me.

You all "think" you know what I'm capable of but you guys have no idea but you know what I had things to lose and now I don't so how the next few weeks go night be interesting depending on how she wants to play this but know I'm not going to back down if she keeps pushing me.

You do realize I already have all your files for the new Server's on the new Nitrado correct. Funny how a multi billion dollar company can miss such an old school exploit.

But have I done anything? Nope can I? Yup

There's a reason why I don't have a full time computer career and why I like being blue collar keeps me out of trouble and the temptations.

You can say you have witnessed it but just so you know she slandered me deleted the files to make her look like she didnt do anything.

Did you know she did the same thing to greedy and then denied it? I bet you didn't. This is Azzy and you say you don't care but clearly you do.

But the fact that you let him say that kind of shit in your chat just goes to show you're only using us owners to make yourself a name. You know me. You know I wouldn't fuck with a server. Yet now I can hack past Two Factor Authenticator and people from YOUR server are DMing ME about it being said in YOUR server.

TheGreedyPeasent 12/20/2021 11:37 AM
Im at work
Cunt i got up after 4 hours sleep to find that bullshit. Ill be home at 3 to fight this out since im the one who caused it.

There wont be a fucking discord soon

TheGreedyPeasent 12/20/2021 12:07 PM
Did you just say im using owners to make myself a name.
Forget it bud good luck in life.
Not interested

aSoul 12/20/2021 12:08 PM
That's literally what you do and you allowed one to talk shit about me in your fucking server you fucking nonce.

Assholes never change do they Firget it bud not interested

aSoul 12/20/2021 12:10 PM
Obviously not cause I did everything for your server, for free, I helped you for ages, but you let some cunt talk shit about me when YOU CAN'T HACK PAST 2FA

TheGreedyPeasent 12/20/2021 12:11 PM
Never said ya did
I plugged your server backed it even sponsored it.
All cause you went to their discord even tho you hate em to stir shit

aSoul 12/20/2021 12:12 PM
I WENT THERE BECAUSE I WAS ASKED TO

TheGreedyPeasent 12/20/2021 12:12 PM
And ripped the cunt in shittalk Wonder why he kicked you then brought the shit to my server Both parties will be removed this afternoon

aSoul 12/20/2021 12:14 PM

@JayJay | DZMT | Legion @GBSHOTSx3 DAYZ MODDING COMMUNITY do you guys do coding for $$$?
Just asking cause I've had a few people ask me for recommendations since I don't have the time to do it anymore, the guys that have asked me are 100% up front with $$$ too, one of them is Accolade PVP (PissedOffTexan) and the other is DayZ Madness (Tbag) (edited)

GBSHOTSx3 DAYZ MODDING COMMUNITY 08/26/2021 6:07 PM
Hey dude. I don't exactly look for it but yea I do outside of dzmc.
But mainly I do full server builds. And salty away from shops and planes lol

Deleted User 08/26/2021 6:08 PM
Sounds like the exact work I was doing for Accolade lol

They want a list of changes

1. Car wipe
2. Paramedic clothing added back in with tetra, epinephrine, codine,  bandages, morphine, iv-saline bags, split between jacket and pants only spawning in hospitals
3. rework building kits lowering the amount of sharpening stone and working in barb wire to builder bags
4. M16 spawning full map and brought up to M4, LAR levels
5. Make structures without a flag decay 3x faster
6. Add 1 spawn to each river town minus topolin, so brena, kolembrody, sobotka, sitnik, tarnow, gliniska, grabin and I say add 2 spawns to raduin as well
7. Discuss what our zombie options are, plus adding iv saline bags to them and high capacity magazines (military zombies only), add about 10 zombies around police stations, and 6 around churches, hospitals, and fire departments. Make gun cleaning, sewing, epoxy putty, and leather sewing kits spawn on them.
8. Add more bear and wolf spawns around the river, random locations between towns
9. Make kits spawn in field backpacks but make them more rare ( black bag - black field jacket, black cargo pants, black assault helmet, plate carrier and pouches, and boots if they fit) (camo bag - grey tactical jacket, gray cargo pants, black assault helmet, plate carrier and pouches, and boots if they fit) (green bag - green field jacket/cargo pants, green assault helmet, plate carrier and pouches, and boots)

And Tbag (DayZ Madness) wants a Deathmatch made, your pricing is your call on it too, they're both been great with payments in the past
Their list is so specific cause that is one of my coding requirements, exact and precise to guarantee the best work

Accolade_PVP.rar

Deleted User 08/26/2021 6:16 PM
Here's Accolade's files if you want to take a look at what you could end up working with, that server is one of my masterpieces, I'm sad to pass it on but I can't keep up with the coding with these two jobs

GBSHOTSx3 DAYZ MODDING COMMUNITY 08/26/2021 6:18 PM
No stupid shit.

I don't see any planes shops. Proxies. I see a nice planed list there lol

Deleted User 08/26/2021 6:19 PM
Helis I hate, flying planes aren't sustainable and neither are shops and proxies are more work than they're worth lol

GBSHOTSx3 DAYZ MODDING COMMUNITY 08/26/2021 6:20 PM
I'll take a look at there files. In about 20 min my dude and let uno.

IF I start it I'll have it done by today.

Deleted User 08/26/2021 6:23 PM
EXACTLY! It's only the real skilled people who know what's worth the work! 😂

Aight, I've let Tex know to message you and ask you himself, make sure you discuss pricing up front though but these guys don't know a single thing about coding so they are frequently getting coding things done, I think I charged them like $10 for a car wipe last time they wanted one 😂

GBSHOTSx3 DAYZ MODDING COMMUNITY 08/26/2021 6:27 PM
Iv built entire servers in a day for 40 quid befor. Lol

Subject: Cease and Desist - Immediate Removal and Preservation Notice (Ticket 14802881)

Date: 1 October 2025 (AEST)

I am placing Reddit on formal notice. A coordinated competitor campaign is using r/DayZDiscussions to publish false statements of fact about me and my business and to drive off-platform harassment. You now have explicit notice of the URLs, the exact words, and the linkage to a direct competitor. If Reddit refuses to remove the notified content, I will add Reddit as a publisher in defamation proceedings. I am already preparing filings against Meta and Trustpilot for republication after notice.

Post: https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9029/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue

Examples that remain published include:

a) Https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9029/comment/kwcjm4s

Exact words: "Legion Killfeed is just around to collect and sell your files. He's done so in the past with other servers. Before the killfeed he deleted Greedys server files and also the servers of multiple servers he had FTP access to. These are not false claims this is JUST who Soul is. Look around he's got the scammer tag is many of the DayZ discords."

b) Https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9029/comment/kywtf93

Exact words: "There's been hundreds of complaints in the community about legion Killfeed. The bot downloads custom files from customers and the owner Soul (the Killfeed maker) sells them for profit. Soul is a known Scammer is so many communities. Would never ever ever trust him to hold a token for any server!"

c) Https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9029/comment/l5a15bj

Exact words: "So many bad experiences with Legion killfeed. This bot should be watched and avoided at all cost it might look okay but the code has malicious intent. It removed and edited my files without my permission. It also adjusted servers settings was told 'it's needed for the bot to work' ... DO YOUR RESEARCH BEFORE ADDING LEGION KILLFEED!!!"

d) Https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9029/comment/kteombn

Exact words: "The guy is a total douche bag ... More dramatic than a ... woman."

The same language and accounts are captured in the attached JSON export: reddit_comment_chains.json.

Exact competitor linkage that explains motive and identity

This is not organic commentary. It originates from a direct commercial rival connected to Mathew Trojanowski. The attachments show:

- Image: Kami - outright lies to deter customerz.jpg

  What it shows: the website "https://mathewtrojanowski.com" presenting "DayZ Skynet - A killfeed system for DayZ on Xbox and PlayStation" and "Find My Alt - Links alts for DayZ server owners to use when making bans." The collage also shows the Reddit profile "https://www.reddit.com/user/Brief_Ordinary1438" with the display name "Try again," and a Facebook post by "Mathew C Trojanowski" promoting "Anon PVP" servers.

- Image: kamikaze-many-bad-experiences-legion-killfeed-bot-should-watched.jpg

- Image: 20250715 - MrTechs Reddit Post.jpg
  What it shows: Discord user "Mr Tech N9ne" stating "this weirdo thinks the police are gonna give a shit about me calling him a Pedo, what a nonce ... just search it on reddit, its well known," immediately followed by a link to the same Reddit thread: https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/s/34_1kqTyrPL

- Image: 20250715 - MrTechs Reddit Post2.jpg

  What it shows: the same user reposting the same thread link and adding "pedoooo," using the Reddit thread as the citation for abuse.

Together, these show:

- "https://mathewtrojanowski.com" identifies Mathew Trojanowski with "DayZ Skynet" (a direct competitor).
- Mathew's Facebook post advertises "Anon PVP" servers.
- The Reddit account "u/Brief_Ordinary1438" promotes "Anon PVP" and posts the defamatory claims quoted above.
- Off-platform harassment uses the Reddit thread as the source ("just search it on reddit, its well known").

Prior notice and failed removals that establish republication-after-notice liability

I am not contacting Reddit for the first time. Reddit has already received reports about this thread and the same actors. The following Reddit admin messages show prior notice and refusal to act:

- "We Have Reviewed Your Report" automated admin decision: https://www.reddit.com/message/messages/2fol8po
- Help Center report describing targeted harassment: https://www.reddit.com/message/messages/2fnszgp
- Impersonation report referencing the same thread: https://www.reddit.com/message/messages/2fnsu3q

Separately, Trustpilot has already been put on notice multiple times about materially similar defamation and cross-platform republication

Trustpilot's repeated decisions to leave or reinstate content after explicit notice are pleaded in my legal drafts and form part of why Trustpilot is being sued for republication after notice. Reddit is now in an identical position of explicit notice for this thread and these accounts.

- The statements identify me and my business and assert verifiable facts ("collect and sell your files," "deleted servers," "malicious intent," "known Scammer"). They are false and calculated to cause serious economic harm.
- The thread is being used to fuel harassment off-platform, as shown in the attachments.
- Prior reports to Reddit were rejected, so this letter is a formal cease and desist and preservation notice.

Demands

a) Immediate removal of the post and the comments identified at the URLs in section 1, plus materially similar republications in that thread.

b) Written confirmation of removal within 72 hours.

c) Preservation of evidence. Treat this as a litigation hold. Preserve moderator logs, modmail, automod decisions, approvals and removals, bans and mutes, Safety escalations, edit histories, and any internal notes for the identified post and comments, together with account data for "u/Brief_Ordinary1438" and other participating accounts, to the extent permitted by your policies and law. Do not delete, alter, or rotate evidence.

d) If Reddit requires more context, I will supply sworn statements and additional exhibits on request.

Notice of intended proceedings:

I am filing against Trustpilot and possibly Meta for republication after notice regarding related materials.
If Reddit refuses removal after this explicit notice, Reddit will be added as a defendant for publication after notice.

This is a civil demand to remove unlawful content. It is not a threat of violence. Please confirm receipt, removal, and preservation within 72 hours.

Reddit Legal Support,

I acknowledge your 2 Oct 2025 message. You confirmed receipt of my notice and directed me to public forms, and you stated Reddit will not preserve or disclose account information without "valid legal process." Your internal policies and routing guidelines do not supersede the law. You are now on actual notice of unlawful content. Continued publication after notice can create liability, regardless of your forms or workflows.

My 1 Oct 2025 cease and desist identified the URLs, quoted the exact words, and set out the commercial rival linkage. That notice remains in force. This correspondence renews the removal demand and litigation hold.

Unlawful content that must be removed now

The post and comments contain false statements of verifiable fact about me and my business, used to fuel off-platform harassment and commercial harm:

- https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9029/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue
- https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9029/comment/kwcjm4s
- https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9029/comment/kywtf93

- https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9029/comment/kteombn

Representative excerpts and the competitor linkage are already on record in my 1 Oct notice. Remove the URLs above and materially similar republications in that thread.

Policies and forms do not displace legal duties

Your reply attempts to re-route a legal notice to public intake forms and claims Reddit cannot preserve or disclose without "valid legal process." I am not asking you to ignore your internal processes. I am stating that internal processes do not change the effect of actual legal notice. You have enough information to remove unlawful content and to take reasonable steps to preserve evidence. Treat this as a litigation hold request pending formal service. If you require court process to implement a defined preservation period, confirm the correct details for service and I will proceed.

Preservation notice

Until you hear otherwise from me or my lawyers, take reasonable steps within your standard retention to avoid deletion, rotation, or alteration of:

- Post and comment contents and edit histories
- Moderator actions, modmail, Automoderator logs, Safety escalations, approvals and removals
- Account identifiers and access logs for the involved accounts, to the extent permitted by law and policy

Your 2 Oct email already references your guidelines for civil and non-government legal requests. Confirm the precise service process and addresses for email and physical service so that I can serve formal process without delay.

Deadlines

1. Remove the URLs listed above and any materially similar republications in the same thread within 72 hours of receipt.
2. Confirm removal and interim preservation in writing within 72 hours.
3. Provide a named legal contact and the exact details for service of process within 48 hours.
   These deadlines are reasonable given the explicit notice already provided on 1 Oct 2025.

Subject: Cease and Desist - Immediate Removal and Preservation Notice (Ticket 14802881)

Date: 1 October 2025 (AEST)

I am placing Reddit on formal notice. A coordinated competitor campaign is using r/DayZDiscussions to publish false statements of fact about me and my business and to drive off-platform harassment. You now have explicit notice of the URLs, the exact words, and the linkage to a direct competitor. If Reddit refuses to remove the notified content, I will add Reddit as a publisher in defamation proceedings. I am already preparing filings against Meta and Trustpilot for republication after notice.

Post: https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9029/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue

Examples that remain published include:

a) Https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9029/comment/kwcjm4s

Exact words: "Legion Killfeed is just around to collect and sell your files. He's done so in the past with other servers. Before the killfeed he deleted Greedys server files and also the servers of multiple servers he had FTP access to. These are not false claims this is JUST who Soul is. Look around he's got the scammer tag is many of the DayZ discords."

b) Https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9029/comment/kywtf93

Exact words: "There's been hundreds of complaints in the community about legion Killfeed. The bot downloads custom files from customers and the owner Soul (the Killfeed maker) sells them for profit. Soul is a known Scammer is so many communities. Would never ever ever trust him to hold a token for any server!"

c) Https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9029/comment/l5a15bj

Exact words: "So many bad experiences with Legion killfeed. This bot should be watched and avoided at all cost it might look okay but the code has malicious intent. It removed and edited my files without my permission. It also adjusted servers settings was told 'it's needed for the bot to work' ... DO YOUR RESEARCH BEFORE ADDING LEGION KILLFEED!!!"

d) Https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9029/comment/kteombn

Exact words: "The guy is a total douche bag ... More dramatic than a ... woman."

The same language and accounts are captured in the attached JSON export: reddit_comment_chains.json.

Exact competitor linkage that explains motive and identity

This is not organic commentary. It originates from a direct commercial rival connected to Mathew Trojanowski. The attachments show:

- Image: Kami - outright lies to deter customerz.jpg

  What it shows: the website "https://mathewtrojanowski.com" presenting "DayZ Skynet - A killfeed system for DayZ on Xbox and PlayStation" and "Find My Alt - Links alts for DayZ server owners to use when making bans." The collage also shows the Reddit profile "https://www.reddit.com/user/Brief_Ordinary1438" with the display name "Try again," and a Facebook post by "Mathew C Trojanowski" promoting "Anon PVP" servers.

- Image: kamikaze-many-bad-experiences-legion-killfeed-bot-should-watched.jpg

- Image: 20250715 - MrTechs Reddit Post.jpg

What it shows: Discord user "Mr Tech N9ne" stating "this weirdo thinks the police are gonna give a shit about me calling him a Pedo, what a nonce ... just search it on reddit, its well known," immediately followed by a link to the same Reddit thread: https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/s/341kqTyrPL

- Image: 20250715 - MrTechs Reddit Post2.jpg

  What it shows: the same user reposting the same thread link and adding "pedoooo," using the Reddit thread as the citation for abuse.

Together, these show:

- "https://mathewtrojanowski.com" identifies Mathew Trojanowski with "DayZ Skynet" (a direct competitor).
- Mathew's Facebook post advertises "Anon PVP" servers.
- The Reddit account "u/Brief_Ordinary1438" promotes "Anon PVP" and posts the defamatory claims quoted above.
- Off-platform harassment uses the Reddit thread as the source ("just search it on reddit, its well known").

Prior notice and failed removals that establish republication-after-notice liability

I am not contacting Reddit for the first time. Reddit has already received reports about this thread and the same actors. The following Reddit admin messages show prior notice and refusal to act:

- "We Have Reviewed Your Report" automated admin decision: https://www.reddit.com/message/messages/2fol8po
- Help Center report describing targeted harassment: https://www.reddit.com/message/messages/2fnszgp
- Impersonation report referencing the same thread: https://www.reddit.com/message/messages/2fnsu3q

Separately, Trustpilot has already been put on notice multiple times about materially similar defamation and cross-platform republication

Trustpilot's repeated decisions to leave or reinstate content after explicit notice are pleaded in my legal drafts and form part of why Trustpilot is being sued for republication after notice. Reddit is now in an identical position of explicit notice for this thread and these accounts.

- The statements identify me and my business and assert verifiable facts ("collect and sell your files," "deleted servers," "malicious intent," "known Scammer"). They are false and calculated to cause serious economic harm.
- The thread is being used to fuel harassment off-platform, as shown in the attachments.
- Prior reports to Reddit were rejected, so this letter is a formal cease and desist and preservation notice.

Demands

a) Immediate removal of the post and the comments identified at the URLs in section 1, plus materially similar republications in that thread.

b) Written confirmation of removal within 72 hours.

c) Preservation of evidence. Treat this as a litigation hold. Preserve moderator logs, modmail, automod decisions, approvals and removals, bans and mutes, Safety escalations, edit histories, and any internal notes for the identified post and comments, together with account data for "u/Brief_Ordinary1438" and other participating accounts, to the extent permitted by your policies and law. Do not delete, alter, or rotate evidence.

d) If Reddit requires more context, I will supply sworn statements and additional exhibits on request.

Notice of intended proceedings:
I am filing against Trustpilot and possibly Meta for republication after notice regarding related materials.
If Reddit refuses removal after this explicit notice, Reddit will be added as a defendant for publication after notice.

This is a civil demand to remove unlawful content. It is not a threat of violence.
Please confirm receipt, removal, and preservation within 72 hours.

Signed,

Hi Reddit Legal,

I really could not give a fuck what you class it. You are now formally on notice, as are Discord, Meta and Trustpilot. Under Australian defamation law, once notified you are a publisher for the purpose of liability. Your refusal or failure to act can result in litigation and costs. This is a defamation notice and preservation request, not an Online Safety Act Class 1 report.

Who I am
I operate an Australian business, Legion Killfeed, at https://killfeed.co/. I am located in Australia and the harm is suffered in Australia.

What I want removed or geo-restricted
Remove or at minimum geo-restrict in Australia the thread and comments listed below. These contain false statements of fact, serious accusations, and coordinated harassment that meet the serious harm test. You have been on notice since my prior report. Links:

- https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue

- https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/lnt7b2s/

Legal basis

- Defamation Act 2005 (NSW and harmonised Acts) as amended in 2021. Serious harm is met. The allegations are false, damage my business reputation, and have caused financial loss.
- After notice you are a publisher in Australia and cannot rely on ignorance. High Court authority confirms that platform operators can be publishers when they facilitate and continue publication after notice.
- Innocent dissemination will not apply once you have knowledge and refuse to remove or restrict.
- You also have independent obligations under Reddit Rules and Moderator Code of Conduct which appear to be ignored in this case due to a likely conflict in the subreddit.

Why this is not an Online Safety Act content class issue
Your reply references Class 1A and 1B. I am not asking you to classify the content under the Online Safety Act. I am giving a defamation notice. Please route this to the correct defamation or legal escalation team, not the eSafety restricted content queue.

Conflict and coordination indicators
There is evidence of coordinated brigading by a commercial competitor group and probable moderation bias in the subreddit. I have already used in-product reporting. Your escalation must consider the pattern and not treat each comment in isolation.

What I require from Reddit

1. Remove all URLs listed above.
2. Confirm preservation of all related logs and metadata.
3. Provide a named contact and the correct path for defamation complaints affecting Australians.
4. Provide a copy of your internal policy and criteria used to assess defamation notices for Australian matters.
5. Provide a clear decision on this notice within 48 hours.

Deadline
Provide your decision by 22 November 2025 AEST. If you refuse or fail to act, I will proceed with a multi-platform lawsuit in Australia, seek disclosure, and include Reddit, Inc. as a respondent where appropriate. I will also notify relevant regulators that I cannot report it via your process as you fail to act on any legal notices.

I am happy to provide further particulars on request. I expect you to route this to Legal and Trust and Safety. Do not send me back to the in-app report button. You have the links above and you have been on notice since 2024.

Regards,
Soul

Hello,

We have received your report. Please note that the Australia Restricted Content Reporting Form is exclusively for Class 1A and 1B content, as defined by the Online Safety Act and associated guidance. We have determined that your report does not fall within these categories.

If you would like to report a potential violation of our sitewide Reddit Rules rather than submit a legal complaint, you can use the report button next to the content you'd like to report in the app or on reddit (if you have a Reddit account) or you can file a report here (if you do not have a Reddit account).

Sincerely,

Hi Reddit Legal,

Your latest response stating that you are "not processing" my report and implying that it may be duplicative, frivolous, vexatious, or submitted in bad faith is noted and rejected.

This notice is made in good faith. I am an Australian business owner dealing with clear, ongoing reputational and financial harm arising from targeted false statements on your platform. I have given you specific URLs, explained the basis in Australian defamation law, and requested removal, preservation, and a clear decision. That is exactly what a good-faith defamation complainant is required to do.

For the avoidance of doubt: this is a defamation complaint, not an Online Safety Act "restricted content" report. You have been on notice about this material since 2024. Every refusal to act after notice is a fresh publication and will be relied on as such.

Your own records show that I have repeatedly used your in-product reporting systems and Help Center in good faith, including but not limited to the reports and admin decisions visible at:

https://www.reddit.com/message/messages/2fol8po
https://www.reddit.com/message/messages/2fnszgp
https://www.reddit.com/message/messages/2fnsu3q
https://www.reddit.com/message/messages/2cu5yzm

Those reports flagged targeted harassment, impersonation, and commercial interference. They identified u/Brief_Ordinary1438 as a direct competitor and former staff member engaging in a coordinated smear campaign across Reddit, Discord, and Facebook, and explained that their posts were damaging my business. Admin responses used templates stating "no violation" while leaving the same defamatory content online. My later notices simply repeat the same URLs because Reddit has never dealt with the defamation issue. Re-notifying you while the same material remains live is not bad faith; it is direct evidence that Reddit is continuing publication after notice.

For completeness, I am attaching representative screenshots showing the scope of the defamation, the cross-platform coordination, the competitor involvement, and the real business harm caused:

• Pedophile accusation made in a Discord DayZ community by the same individuals involved in the Reddit thread.
• Facebook posts by the same users coordinating false reports and encouraging others to "get Legion shut down".
• Customer cancellations directly caused by the defamatory rumours.
• Multiple Reddit comments from u/Brief_Ordinary1438 falsely alleging that I hack servers, steal files, inject SQL, sell user data, destroy servers, or run "malicious code".
• Evidence linking "Brief_Ordinary1438" to Mathew Trojanowski, a direct competitor whose own site and posts confirm his involvement in rival services.
• Long-term harassment, threats, impersonation, and cross-platform smear attempts, including suicide-baiting directed at me.
• Additional Discord conversations showing that competitors openly discuss having my business attacked, reported, and shut down.

These records show that:

– the allegations are factual assertions, not opinions
– the statements are false
– the defamatory content is coordinated and commercially motivated
– the harm is real, including financial loss and customer cancellations
– I have reported this repeatedly for over a year
– Reddit has ignored every good-faith attempt to resolve it

The accusations that I hack users, destroy servers, access private files, sell data, or have "malicious code" in my bot are extremely serious. They are fabricated. They meet the serious harm threshold under the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW and harmonised Acts). They target an identifiable Australian business and its owner and have already caused substantial damage.

Labelling my complaint as potentially "frivolous, vexatious or in bad faith" in the face of this documented history will itself be relied on as part of any claim for aggravated damages.

I repeat my key requests:

• Remove the URLs previously notified, including:
https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9029/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue
and the linked comments identified in earlier notices.

• Confirm preservation of all related content, logs and metadata (including account IDs, IP addresses, device identifiers, moderator actions, escalation notes, and prior reports).

• Confirm that this matter has been escalated to the appropriate legal/defamation review team for Australian matters, not dismissed with a generic template.

• Provide a clear written decision on this defamation notice.

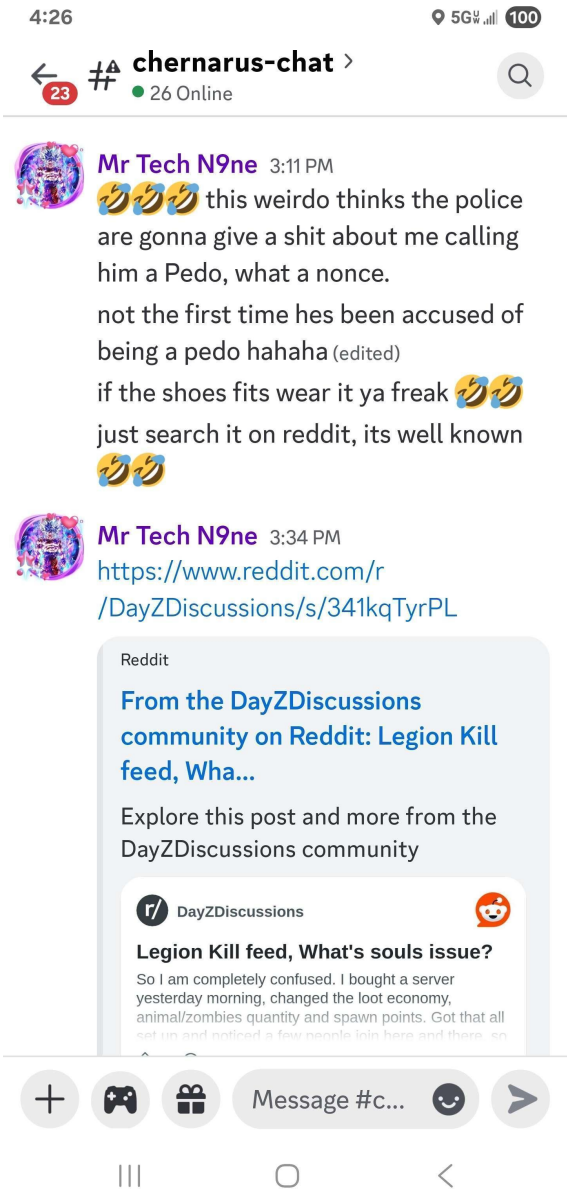

Proceedings in Australia are being prepared and will go ahead regardless. If Reddit continues to refuse to process this as a defamation complaint while leaving the material online, I will proceed on the basis that:

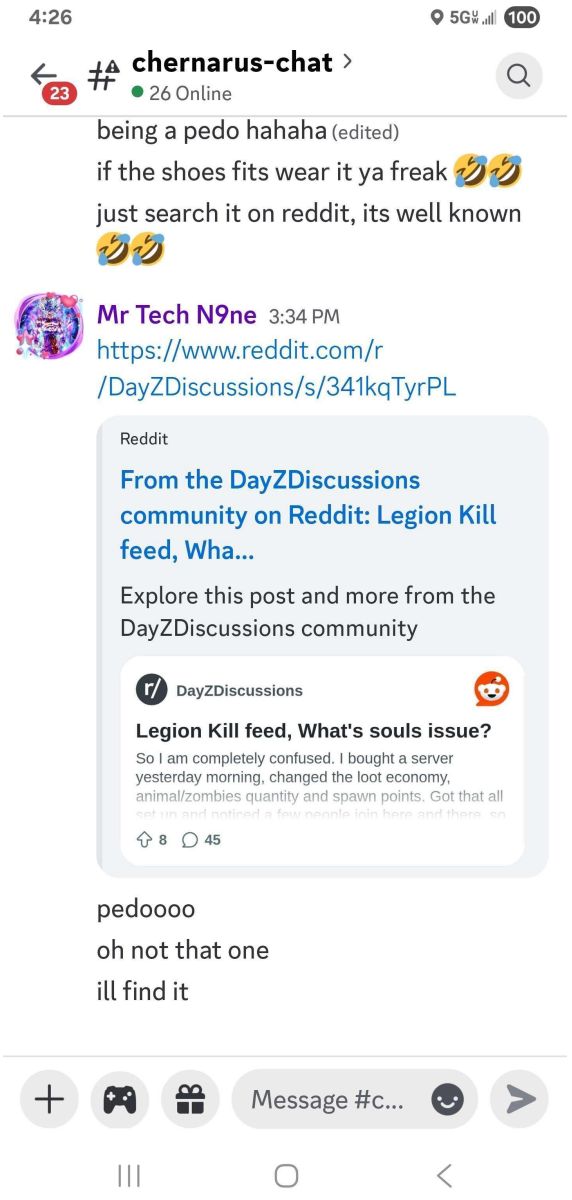

• Reddit is a publisher for the purposes of Australian defamation law;
• Reddit has knowingly continued publication after notice; and
• Reddit's dismissals and non-action will be relied upon in support of aggravated damages and costs.

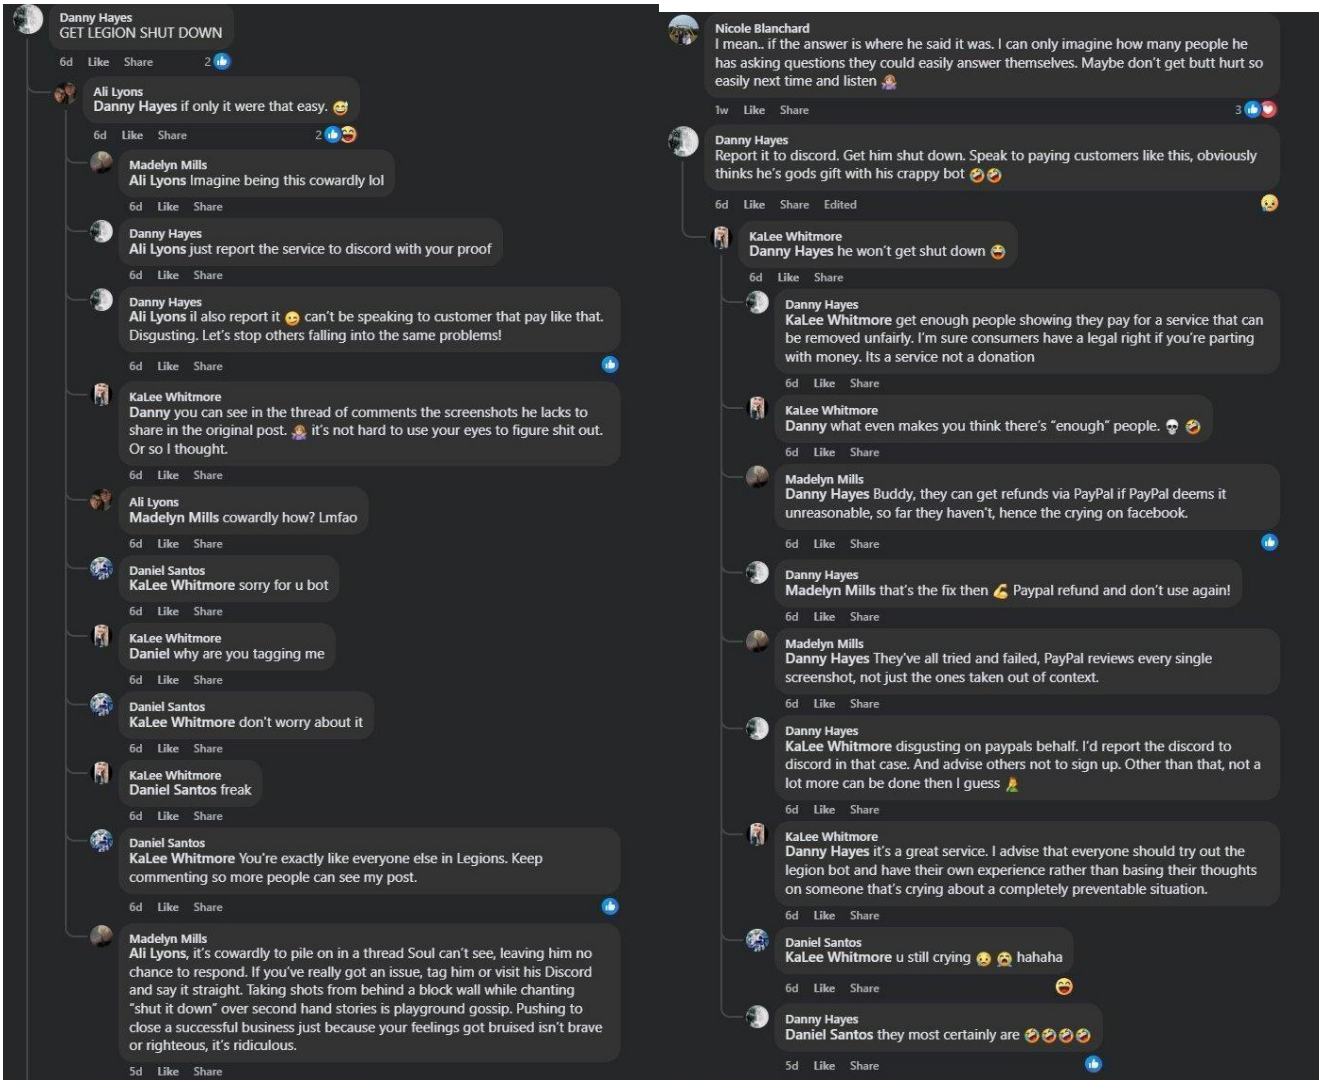

This is an opportunity to mitigate, not avoid, your exposure. If you maintain the position that you will not process this notice or remove the URLs, please state so explicitly so I can place it before the court and the relevant regulators.

Regards,
Soul

You know man I haven't been well I'm still getting slandered by that bitch. I've attempted to kill myself 8 times in the last week and I have no motivation anymore. Yes I've been back and no I haven't talked to hardly anyone.
You don't understand how fuck this made all off my life how a bunch of full bullshit lies she has.

You know I never deleted a single file. If she didn't block me maybe she could have gotten the email I got about data loss on the LA network that caused the files to delete. So keep believing what you think before you know the whole story. She manipulates people and I thought I was but you know what she made that lie up and made me believe it was all me.

You let it go because apparently I can and I have tried but you know what the slander and bullshit keeps going on imma do something about it I've had it she wants to keep pushing me she hasn't even seen the half of me.

You all "think" you know what I'm capable of but you guys have no idea but you know what I had things to lose and now I don't so how the next few weeks go night be interesting depending on how she wants to play this but know I'm not going to back down if she keeps pushing me.

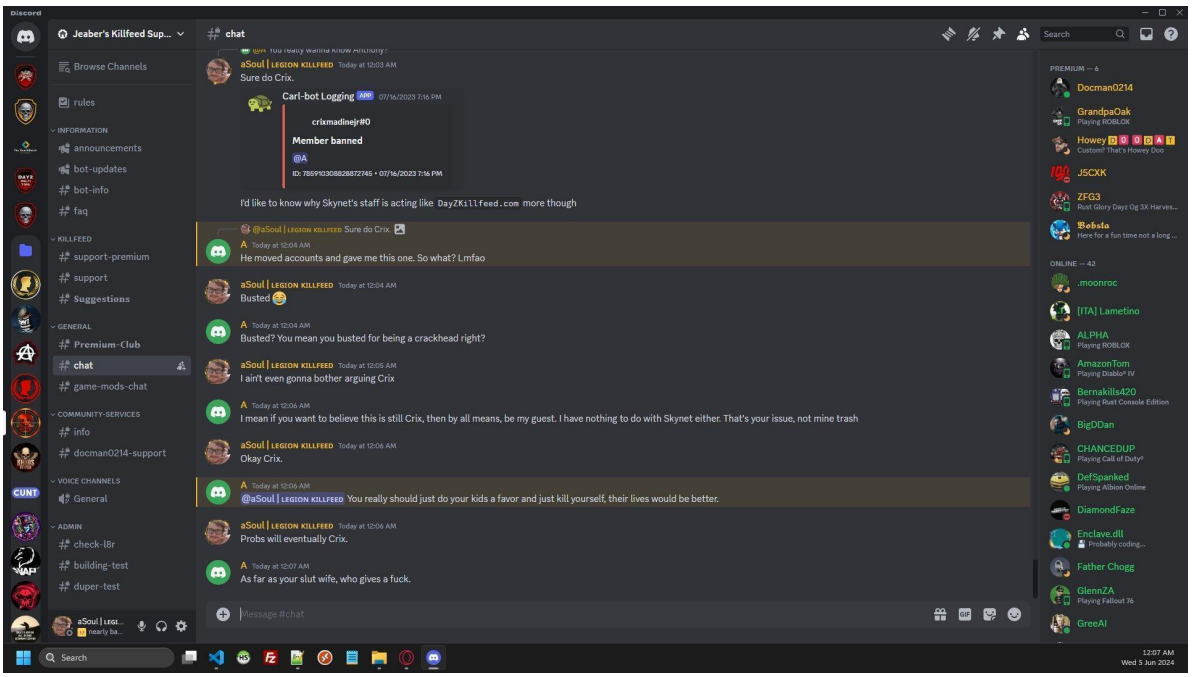

You do realize I already have all your files for the new Server's on the new Nitrado correct. Funny how a multi billion dollar company can miss such an old school exploit.

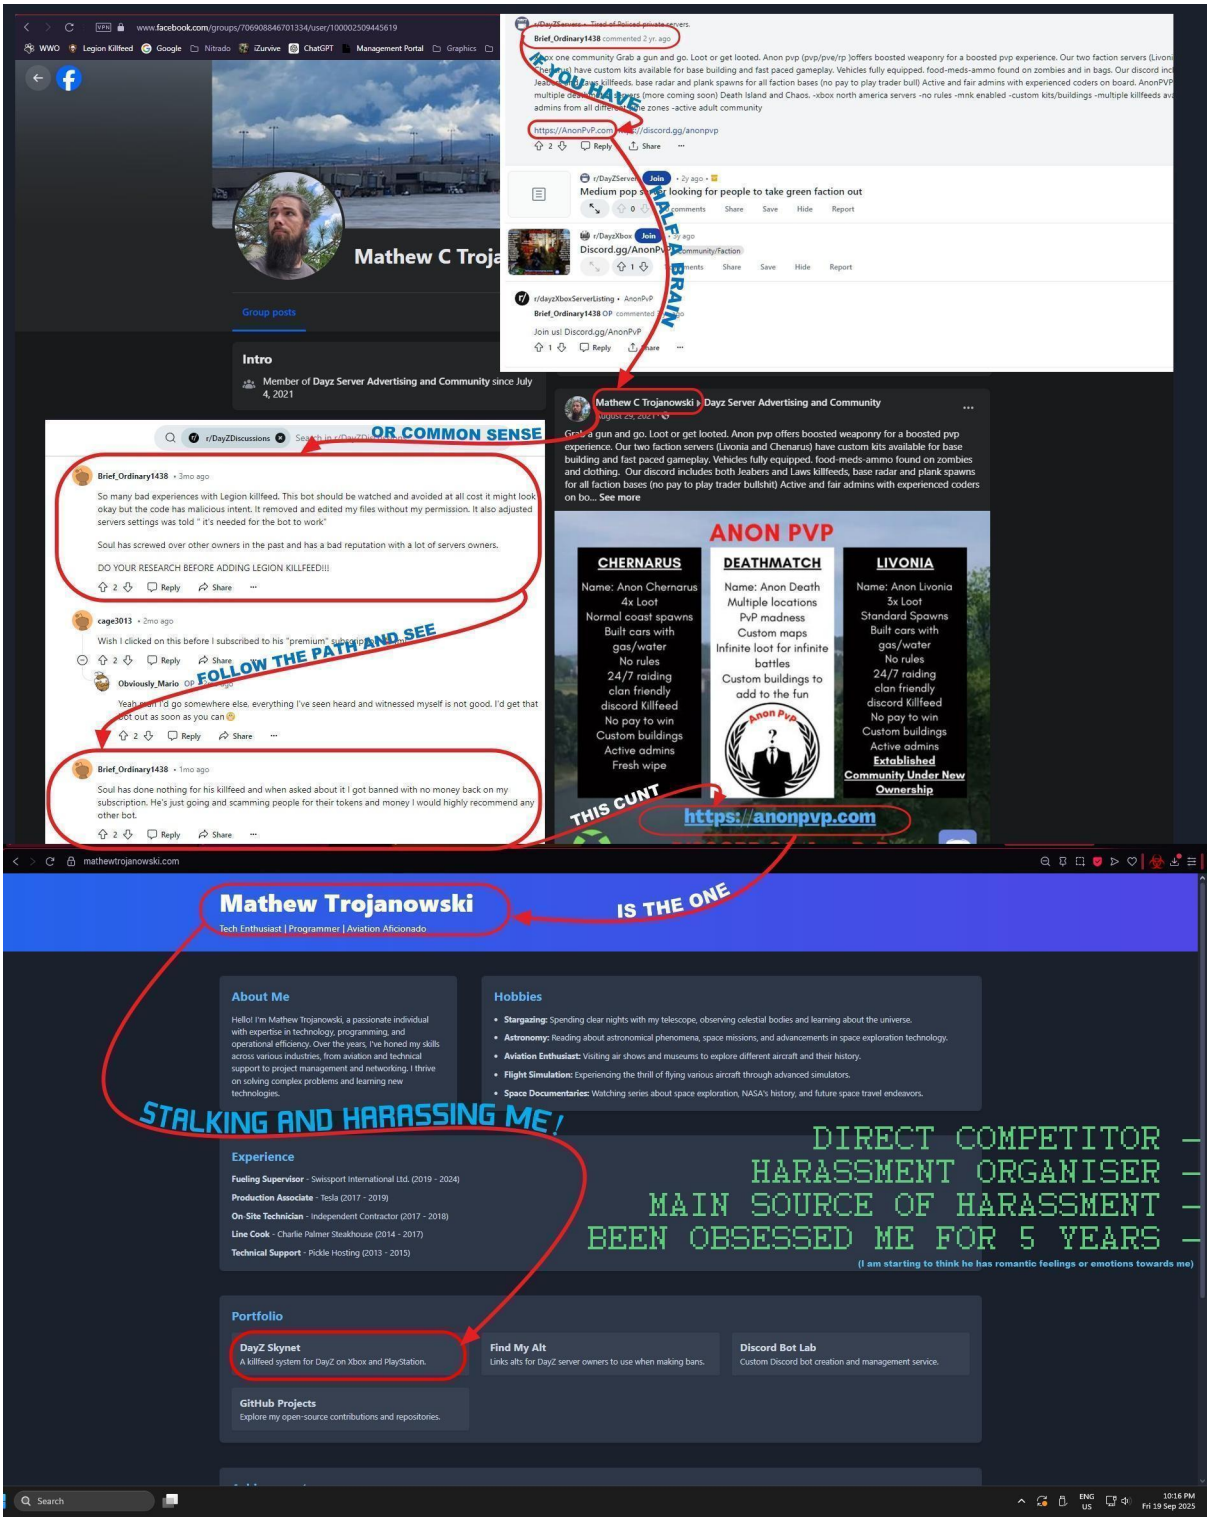

But have I done anything? Nope can I? Yup

There's a reason why I don't have a full time computer career and why I like being blue collar keeps me out of trouble and the temptations.

You can say you have witnessed it but just so you know she slandered me deleted the files to make her look like she didnt do anything.

Did you know she did the same thing to greedy and then denied it? I bet you didn't. This is Azzy and you say you don't care but clearly you do.

This bot is absolutely 10000% trash. You rent their bot, and they don't allow you to use the bots discord to promote your server unless you lay them even more money. The bots features are garbase as well. You are better of going and renting the Dayz++ bot for a lot less than what is charged by these guys.

That's funny, because it's been free for over a year, sounds liike you're just promoting another bot and spitting all over mine without ever actually using it.

The truth is, we allow anyone using the bot to advertise within our support discord. They simply have to have the role that is added automatically by the bot when you set it up for your server..

defamation/escalations.
Sender:
Anthony Brodie (Soul - Legion Killfeed)
legionkillfeed@outlook.com
Business: Legion Killfeed (https://killfeed.co/)
Jurisdiction: Australia (NSW)

Purpose of this notice:
This is a formal notice that Reddit is hosting and continuing to publish defamatory material about me and my business, and that Reddit has been contacted repeatedly since 2024 but has refused to remove the material, including characterising lawful complaints as "duplicative / frivolous / vexatious / bad faith" rather than addressing the substance. The content is also being amplified through Google search results and is being used cross-platform to fuel further harassment, including false pedophilia accusations.

Primary defamatory thread (anchor URL)
https://old.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e8o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/

The above thread contains false statements and insinuations about me and Legion Killfeed, including claims implying:
- malware or "malicious code"
- theft/sale of user files or customer data
- scam/fraud behavior
- other misleading allegations presented as fact

This content is causing ongoing reputational and financial harm. It remains publicly accessible and indexed.
Cross-platform escalation and pedophilia defamation
The Reddit thread is being used as the "source" to spread false claims of pedophilia about me, including users explicitly instructing others to "search it on reddit" as proof. This escalates the harm beyond ordinary criticism and makes the continued publication and indexing of the Reddit thread materially dangerous and damaging.

Evidence:
https://they-wish-i.died.space/harrassment/2025-07-15-mr-tech-uses-reddit-post-to-claim-soul-pedo.jpg
https://they-wish-i.died.space/harrassment/2025-07-15-mr-tech-uses-reddit-post-to-claim-soul-pedo-2.jpg

Competitor-linked pattern and moderation conflict
There is evidence of a pattern of competitor-linked commentary and moderation influence:

The exported comment chain for the thread shows repeated participation by specific accounts, including u/Brief_Ordinary1438, keeping the defamatory narrative alive across time rather than a one-off complaint.

u/Brief_Ordinary1438 is shown as a moderator of r/dayzXboxServerListing. In that subreddit, u/Specialist_Arm4258 posts similar defamatory statements attacking my business and directing users to competing services. This is not "random community feedback"; it is materially relevant evidence of conflict of interest and coordinated harm (defamation plus competitor promotion under the moderation influence of a repeatedly involved account).

Moderator/defamation evidence:
https://they-wish-i.died.space/harrassment/2025-11-21-kamy-specialist-arm4258-in-sub-brief-ordinary.png

Search amplification (ongoing harm)
This Reddit thread continues to appear prominently in Google search results for "legion killfeed", amplifying the defamatory content to potential customers and the broader public.

Evidence:

https://old.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e8o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/lo0t2hu/

Background: the "Obviously_Mario" narrative is misleading
The initial post by u/Obviously_Mario and subsequent narrative is materially misleading when compared to contemporaneous logs/screenshots. The bot was functioning; later, the user spammed invalid "tokens" such as "Baa Baa BlackSheep" and engaged with escalating abuse, during what was at the time a free beta service. This context matters because the threat is being presented as a factual warning but is being used to publish and reinforce false allegations.

Evidence:
https://they-wish-i.died.space/harrassment/2024-01-24-obviously-mario.png https://they-wish-i.died.space/harrassment/2024-01-24-obviously-mario-2.jpg https://they-wish-i.died.space/harrassment/2024-01-24-obviously-mario-thespam.jpg

Prior contact and refusal to action Reddit has been contacted multiple times since 2024. Rather than addressing the defamation and ongoing harm, Reddit has treated lawful demands as "duplicative / frivolous / vexatious / bad faith" and refused to act. That refusal is documented in the attached records.

Evidence:
https://they-wish-i.died.space/harrassment/2025-12-09-reddit-report.pdf
https://they-wish-i.died.space/harrassment/2025-11-21-1109-soul-legion-re-reddit-support-re-your-request-sent-to-reddit-support-aca-2024-0528878-cyr-0672200.pdf

Requested action (immediately) remove the thread:
https://old.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e8o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/and remove/disable access to all associated defamatory comments and re-publications.

- Remove materially similar defamatory content posted by the identified accounts across Reddit, including where it appears in subreddits moderated by u/Brief_Ordinary1438.
- Confirm in writing the action taken and provide a direct escalation contact within Reddit Legal/Trust & Safety.
- Preservation request (litigation hold): preserve relevant records (posts, edits, removals, account identifiers, IP logs, mod actions, reports, and internal communications/notes) relating to the above URLs and accounts.
- Please confirm that this notice has been forwarded to the appropriate Reddit teams and provide the internal case reference number.

u/Brief_Ordinary1438 is actually Kamikaze, the guy who has a record of doing this same stuff to:

- Accolade PVP
- The Greedy Peasant
- Skull'N'Roses DayZ Servers
- EpicFailWinner's The Creep Show AKA The DeathMatch
- ShotsX3
- TBag
- Bring Your Own Bullets
- DayZ Modding Community

Identical comment re-arranged is allowed to stay.

For example, the FTP files reference, Greedy said it wasn't Soul, PissedOffTexan said it wasn't Soul. That DayZ Skynet sKami said it was "Azzy" who did the FTP stuff in 2021, whoever that is. sKami was the only suspect. 2 years later he blames Soul.

- Soul carried sKami
- They tried to do this same shit on Trustpilot
- Ain't it weird to anyone else that there's very specific claims that only sKami has ever made?
- This video shows over 900 files of proof contradicting this whole post
- There's even TikTok's that have songs explaining the deep level of harassment
- SkyNet got exposed for it by their own AI
- There is so much proof this is nothing but character assassination
- Legion Killfeed is even suing reddit, facebook, Trustpilot & more for this defamation

Legion Kill feed, What's souls issue? by Obviously_Mario in DayZ Discussions

[–] Brief_Ordinary1438 2 points 1 year ago

If you're looking to get hacked and have your files stolen by Soul Lags, actually pay his fee and don't cry when it happens. Soul is committed to creating drama in the community. He doesn't care about you or anyone else; he only cares about his drama and will base his entire business around it. The man is more focused on drama than on working on his broken bots with poor security.

So many bad experiences with Legion killfeed. This bot should be watched and avoided at all cost it might look okay but the code has malicious intent. It removed and edited my files without my permission. It also adjusted servers settings was told " it's needed for the bot to work"

Soul has screwed over other owners in the past and has a bad reputation with a lot of servers owners.

This bot is absolutely 10000% trash. You rent their bot, and they don't allow you to use the bots discord to promote your server unless you lay them even more money. The bots features are garbase as well. You are better of going and renting the Dayz++ bot for a lot less than what is charged by these guys.

That's funny, because it's been free for over a year, sounds liike you're just promoting another bot and spitting all over mine without ever actually using it.

The truth is, we allow anyone using the bot to advertise within our support discord. They simply have to have the role that is added automatically by the bot when you set it up for your server..

Holy moly guys, I had the worst experience with LegionKillfeed. That soul boy is such a clown. Unwilling to assist with anything. Threats ppl like garbage. You can definitely tell the lawsuits are getting the better of him.

Do yourselves a massive favour and join dayz++ instead. Their services is just 110% better and actually worth your time, money and energy.

Legion Kill feed, What's souls issue? by Obviously_Mario in DayZ Discussions

[–] Brief_Ordinary1438 2 points 1 year ago

If you're looking to get hacked and have your files stolen by Soul Lags, actually pay his fee and don't cry when it happens. Soul is committed to creating drama in the community. He doesn't care about you or anyone else; he only cares about his drama and will base his entire business around it. The man is more focused on drama than on working on his broken bots with poor security.

This is not the user you are questioning. The information was leaked along with a database dump. Soul is known to use FTP to destroy servers and wreak havoc on the DayZ community. The user is also more focused on drama than basic security needs, including SQL injection into the database, which has yet to be fixed. There are many people who provide clear evidence that this user is only interested in financial gain and personal gain of important information.

This user is hijacking user files using a token to sell and distribute user files for financial gain. Check out the replies and feedback from other users listed in this thread.

Dies ist nicht der Benutzer, den Sie in Frage haben. Die Informationen wurden zusammen mit einem Datenbank-Dump durchgesickert. Es ist bekannt, dass Soul FTP nutzt, um Server zu zerstören und Chaos in der DayZ-Community anzurichten. Der Benutzer konzentriert sich auch mehr auf das Drama als auf grundlegende Sicherheitsbedürfnisse, einschließlich SQL-Injection in die Datenbank. das muss noch behoben werden. Es gibt viele Leute, die klare Beweise vorlegen, dass dieser Benutzer nur auf finanziellen Gewinn und persönlichen Gewinn wichtiger Informationen aus ist. Dieser Benutzer entwendet Benutzerdateien mithilfe eines Tokens, um Benutzerdateien zu verkaufen und zu verteilen, um damit finanziellen Gewinn zu erzielen. Sehen Sie sich die Antworten und Rückmeldungen anderer Benutzer an, die in diesem Thread aufgeführt sind.

u/Brief_Ordinary1438 is actually Kamikaze, the guy who has a record of doing this same stuff to:

- Accolade PVP
- The Greedy Peasant
- Skull'N'Roses DayZ Servers
- EpicFailWinner's The Creep Show AKA The DeathMatch
- ShotsX3
- TBag
- Bring Your Own Bullets
- DayZ Modding Community It's all recorded on an evidence website

For example, the FTP files reference, Greedy said it wasn't Soul, PissedOffTexan said it wasn't Soul. That DayZ Skynet sKami said it was "Azzy" who did the FTP stuff in 2021. sKami was the only suspect. 2 years later he blames Soul.

- This video shows over 900 files of proof contradicting this whole post
- There's even TikTok's that have songs explaining the deep level of harassment
- SkyNet got exposed for it by their own AI
- There is so much proof this is nothing but character assassination
- Legion Killfeed is even suing reddit, facebook, Trustpilot & more for this defamation
- Soul carried sKami
- They tried to do this same shit on Trustpilot
- Ain't it weird to anyone else that there's very specific claims that only sKami has ever made?

Legitimate question, you're clearly in on the whole harassment crap otherwise you wouldn't be so biased in your moderation, so, how much do you get paid for your illegal post that's getting reddit sued?

You don't have to deny it, it's very clear, I just wanna know how much they are paying you to ensure that post full of lies about Legion Killfeed stays? Legit.

I wonder why Soul has a reason to be paranoid?
Could it be that Patriot from `DayZKillfeed.com` is using the bot and recruiting the other people using it while DayZ++ is in my DMs bringing up the last time `DayZKillfeed.com` was cloning one of my bots whilst at the same time, DayZ++ is ripping of features from it
Ya'll are ridiculous.

So you use DayZ Editor to build custom areas/buildings/loot etc.
Once you finished the build, you upload it to your servers files.
May be different for PC but we personally are console and upload everything to our files from the host Nitrado.
When you save the build in editor, console normally exports to JSON and adds the build to the /custom folder

You know man I haven't been well I'm still getting slandered by that bitch. I've attempted to kill myself 8 times in the last week and I have no motivation anymore. Yes I've been back and no I haven't talked to hardly anyone.
You don't understand how fuck this made all off my life how a bunch of full bullshit lies she has.

You know I never deleted a single file. If she didn't block me maybe she could have gotten the email I got about data loss on the LA network that caused the files to delete. So keep believing what you think before you know the whole story. She manipulates people and I thought I was but you know what she made that lie up and made me believe it was all me.

You let it go because apparently I can and I have tried but you know what the slander and bullshit keeps going on imma do something about it I've had it she wants to keep pushing me she hasn't even seen the half of me.

You all "think" you know what I'm capable of but you guys have no idea but you know what I had things to lose and now I don't so how the next few weeks go night be interesting depending on how she wants to play this but know I'm not going to back down if she keeps pushing me.

You do realize I already have all your files for the new Server's on the new Nitrado correct. Funny how a multi billion dollar company can miss such an old school exploit.

But have I done anything? Nope can I? Yup

There's a reason why I don't have a full time computer career and why I like being blue collar keeps me out of trouble and the temptations.

You can say you have witnessed it but just so you know she slandered me deleted the files to make her look like she didnt do anything.

Did you know she did the same thing to greedy and then denied it? I bet you didn't. This is Azzy and you say you don't care but clearly you do.

Reddit Legal Support,
Your response incorrectly treats this matter as a single-channel “Australia Restricted Content” report. That is not the scope of my complaint.
This email is a formal multi-jurisdictional legal notice, preservation demand, and escalation request. It must be referred to Reddit Legal, Trust & Safety, Compliance, and any team responsible for legal complaints, platform abuse, data preservation, and data-protection obligations.

1. Reddit is hosting false allegations of criminal conduct
The material I have reported states, as fact, that I and/or my business:

- hack servers;
- steal, sell, or misuse customer files and data;
- use malicious code, FTP abuse, or SQL injection to damage servers;
- scam users for money and tokens;
- infiltrate, damage, or wipe Discord servers;
- misuse customer access for unlawful or dishonest purposes.

These are direct, verifiable allegations of criminality, dishonesty, computer misuse, data misuse, fraud, theft, sabotage, and professional misconduct.
They are false.
This is not opinion, criticism, or an ordinary user dispute. The content presents serious factual allegations as truth. It is being used to damage my personal reputation and my sole-trader business, where my personal identity and business identity are inseparable in practice.

2. Reddit has notice of competitor involvement and platform manipulation
Reddit has been placed on notice that the material appears connected to direct competitors in the DayZ server/killfeed space.
The most serious allegations have been repeatedly posted or amplified by accounts linked to competitor activity, including u/Brief_Ordinary1438 and related conduct connected to Kamikaze420 / DayZ Skynet. A known operational competitor also participated in the same environment before deleting material, while other accounts repeated the same allegations shortly after.
The pattern is not random. It indicates coordinated platform manipulation, commercial disparagement, and the use of Reddit as a publication vehicle to inflict reputational and financial harm through false criminal allegations.
Reddit has been notified about this thread, these accounts, and the competitor context since 2024. Continued refusal to meaningfully review or remove the material after notice may be relied upon as evidence of continuing publication, continuing harm, and unreasonable complaint handling.

3. This engages multiple legal and regulatory pathways
Your response does not address the legal basis of the complaint. This matter is not limited to the Australia Restricted Content Reporting Form.
The complaint engages, among other things:

Australia

- Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth), including cyber-abuse material targeted at an Australian adult;
- Criminal Code Act 1995 (Cth) s 474.17, regarding use of a carriage service to menace, harass, or cause offence;
- Defamation Act 2005 (NSW) and uniform Australian defamation law;
- injurious falsehood, malicious falsehood, and commercial disparagement;
- Australian Consumer Law issues where competitors use false claims to divert customers or damage trade;

- privacy, doxxing, data-handling, and platform-record preservation issues.

United States
Reddit may seek to rely on Section 230 for third-party content, but that does not resolve issues arising from Reddit's own conduct, including notice handling, escalation failures, preservation failures, moderation conduct, misclassification of legal complaints, and any representations Reddit makes about safety, reporting, or complaint pathways.
I reserve all rights concerning California law, federal and state unfair competition pathways, trade disparagement, tortious interference, negligence, consumer protection complaints, and reports to relevant Attorneys General or federal agencies.

European Union / EEA
Where the material is accessible, indexed, processed, reported, or handled in a way that engages EU users or EU systems, this may raise issues under the Digital Services Act, including notice-and-action obligations, complaint-handling obligations, transparency obligations, and illegal-content review processes.
It may also engage GDPR and national defamation, harassment, privacy, and data-protection laws where personal information, identifying allegations, platform records, or inaccurate personal data are involved.

United Kingdom, Canada, New Zealand, Ireland, and other common-law jurisdictions
The same material is globally accessible and may engage defamation, malicious falsehood, harassment, harmful digital communications, privacy, data-protection, commercial disparagement, and platform accountability pathways in any jurisdiction with an arguable connection to publication, access, indexing, processing, or harm.

4. Formal preservation demand

Reddit must preserve all records connected to this matter, including but not limited to:

- reported posts, comments, deleted comments, edited comments, and removed comments;
- account data for the reported users;
- IP logs, session logs, device/browser metadata, login metadata, and account-linking indicators;
- moderator actions in r/DayZDiscussions;
- Automoderator actions and moderation logs;
- modmail and internal moderator communications available to Reddit;
- Zendesk records, internal notes, triage labels, escalation notes, and ticket history;
- all records relating to Request #17726555 and prior related reports;
- all internal communications concerning the reported URLs, accounts, subreddit, or complaint handling.

This is a litigation hold. Any deletion, alteration, failure to preserve, or avoidable loss of relevant records after this notice may be raised as spoliation or destruction of evidence in later proceedings, subpoenas, regulator complaints, law-enforcement reports, or discovery requests.

5. Required action by 5 May 2026

I require Reddit to do the following by 5 May 2026:

1. Confirm this matter has been escalated to Reddit Legal, Trust & Safety, Compliance, and the appropriate legal complaint team.
2. Confirm Reddit has preserved all relevant records listed above.
3. Reassess the reported Reddit thread and comments as a legal complaint involving defamation, commercial disparagement, targeted harassment, cyber abuse, competitor platform manipulation, and false allegations of criminal conduct.
4. Remove, restrict, or disable access to the reported defamatory and abusive material.
5. Provide the correct Reddit legal pathway if Reddit says the Australia Restricted Content Reporting Form is not the correct channel.
6. Explain what action Reddit will take regarding the r/DayZDiscussions moderation issue, including the apparent selective removal of rebuttals and supportive comments while leaving competitor-friendly defamatory material accessible.
7. Confirm whether Reddit will treat the reported accounts and subreddit activity as coordinated abuse, platform manipulation, or bad-faith commercial activity.

6. Notice of escalation

If Reddit refuses to act, or continues to issue generic "wrong form" responses, I will escalate Reddit's handling of this matter to every regulator, authority, and enforcement body with an arguable jurisdictional connection, including:

- eSafety Commissioner, including ongoing matter ACA-2025-0729927;
- Australian Federal Police;
- NSW Police;
- Office of the Australian Information Commissioner;
- Australian Competition & Consumer Commission;
- NSW Fair Trading;
- Commonwealth Ombudsman;
- US Federal Trade Commission;
- California Attorney General;
- Washington State Attorney General;
- relevant EU Digital Services Coordinators;
- relevant EU/EEA data-protection authorities;
- UK, Canadian, New Zealand, Irish, and other applicable regulators or enforcement bodies.

This is not a request for Reddit to mediate a private disagreement. Reddit has been placed on notice that its platform is hosting false factual allegations that accuse an identifiable Australian adult and sole trader of criminal conduct. The allegations are damaging, search-visible, commercially motivated, and repeatedly reported.
A generic response that the matter does not fit one Australian restricted-content form is not an adequate legal response. Please confirm by 5 May 2026 that Reddit has escalated this matter, preserved the relevant records, and commenced a proper legal review of the reported content and moderation conduct.

Please note that the Australia Restricted Content Reporting Form is exclusively for content categories covered under the Australian Online Safety Act and related Industry Safety Codes. We have determined that your report does not fall within these categories.

If you would like to report a potential violation of our sitewide Reddit Rules rather than submit a legal complaint, you can use the report button next to the content you’d like to report in the app or on reddit (if you have a Reddit account) or you can file a report here (if you do not have a Reddit account).

Outlook

Support Request #17726555 - Reddit's Criminal Hosting of Defamatory Content

From Soul Legion <legionkillfeed@outlook.com>
Date Thu 2026-04-30 9:41 AM
To legal@reddit.com <legal@reddit.com>

Reddit Legal,

Before you cry about a direct email, it's been two days since you illegally refused to even engage with the complaint. This is a further formal legal notice, preservation demand, and escalation following Reddit's non-response and misclassification of this matter as only an "Australia Restricted Content" issue.

If Reddit refuses to remove or restrict the URLs, I request a written human-reviewed decision that answers the following:
1. Has Reddit been paid by Joel Lenny Walker from "Make DayZ Great Again Killfeed - mdzga.com" or Mathew Trojanowski from "DayZ Skynet - killfeed.com" to host this defamation while using arbitrary forms to avoid your legal responsibilities?
    1a. If yes, how much were you paid to facilitate this criminal act?
    1b. Is this the reason you allowed a moderator to violate your Terms of Service with their selective moderation?
2. Was this request reviewed by a human in Reddit Legal or Trust & Safety?
3. What jurisdiction or jurisdictions did Reddit assess?
4. What legal basis did Reddit assess?
5. Why does Reddit consider the listed material lawful to continue hosting after repeated notice?
6. Why does Reddit consider false allegations of hacking, fraud, data theft, malicious code and server destruction to be ordinary criticism?
7. Why did Reddit treat this as only an Australia Restricted Content issue when the complaint expressly raises defamation, commercial disparagement, harassment, cyber abuse, and competitor platform manipulation?
8. What action will Reddit take regarding the apparent selective removal of rebuttals/supportive comments while leaving competitor-friendly defamatory material accessible?
9. What is the correct Reddit legal pathway if Reddit says the prior reporting pathway is not the correct channel?
10. Why does Reddit's platform prevent the affected account from reporting abusive content after the abusive accounts block the affected account?
11. What remedy or escalation path does Reddit provide when blocking is used to obstruct reporting?
12. What records will Reddit preserve regarding this request and prior related notices?
13. Will Reddit preserve records showing who blocked the affected account, when the blocks occurred, and whether those blocks affected the report interface or reporting availability?

Reddit is now on repeated actual notice that it is continuing to host, preserve, distribute, make searchable, and enable access to defamatory and abusive material targeting an Australian adult, a sole trader, and that sole trader's service. Reddit's continued failure to conduct a proper human legal review after repeated notice is not neutral platform operation. It is a post-notice decision to keep publishing and enabling access to false factual allegations of criminality, fraud, hacking, data theft, malicious code, server destruction, token misuse, and customer sabotage.
Your last response did not answer the legal complaint. It incorrectly stated that the Australia Restricted Content Reporting Form is exclusively for content categories covered under the Australian Online Safety Act and related Industry Safety Codes, then redirected the affected person back to ordinary Reddit reporting tools. That response ignored the actual complaint: defamation, targeted harassment, cyber abuse, commercial disparagement, competitor-linked platform manipulation, false allegations of criminal conduct, moderation failure, and preservation obligations.
Reddit cannot avoid notice by forcing this matter into the wrong form, then pretending the complaint has failed because that narrow form does not fit the entire legal issue. This is not a single-channel restricted-content complaint. This is a multi-jurisdictional legal complaint and litigation-preservation notice.
Reddit also cannot fairly direct the affected person back to ordinary account reporting when Reddit's own platform design prevents reporting from the affected account after the reported users block that account. I cannot even report some of the material from my account because the reported accounts blocked me, and Reddit's platform fails to allow blocked users to submit a report from the affected account. That means the same users responsible for the abuse can also interfere with the victim's ability to report the abuse through Reddit's ordinary tools. Reddit has been told this reporting-path failure exists. Sending me back to the report button after notice is therefore not a good-faith remedy; it is a defective loop.

The affected person is an Australian adult and sole trader. The affected service is personally operated by that sole trader. This is not a detached corporation with separate brand damage. The same individual personally operates the service, personally provides support, personally receives the abuse, and personally suffers the harm.
The reported Reddit thread and comments are not ordinary criticism or fair consumer opinion. They are part of a sustained, competitor-linked abuse and defamation campaign involving Reddit, Facebook/Meta, Discord, Trustpilot, Google search visibility, hostile websites, and competitor-linked domains.
The material falsely alleges or implies that the affected sole trader is a scammer, criminal, hacker, dangerous, mentally unstable, malicious, unsafe to deal with, or responsible for stealing files, selling customer data, destroying servers, abusing FTP/token access, SQL injection, wiping communities, or using malicious code.
These are serious factual allegations. They are false. They are not protected opinion. They are being used to damage an identifiable Australian adult and sole trader, interfere with that person's business, and divert users searching for the affected service or related services.
The competitor context is material. The reported Reddit material includes repeated comments attributed in evidence to a competing service operator using multiple aliases. The same thread also contains competitor recommendations and repeated claims that users should avoid the affected service and use alternatives.
Reddit is now on repeated notice that this content is not neutral public discussion. It is competitor-linked reputational sabotage, cyber abuse, and defamatory publication targeting a sole trader personally through that person's business identity.
The harm is ongoing because Reddit continues to host the thread and comments after notice. Reddit is not being asked to mediate a private disagreement. Reddit is being told that its platform is publishing and preserving false factual allegations of criminality, dishonest conduct, hacking, data theft, malicious code, server sabotage, token misuse, and fraud against an identifiable Australian adult and sole trader.
Ordinary Reddit reporting paths have failed. The report button has failed. The legal support pathway has failed. Reddit's own blocking/reporting design prevents the affected account from reporting some of the material after the abusive accounts block the affected person. Reddit has now been directly told that its own platform architecture is being used to obstruct reporting. A response directing the victim back to the same broken reporting loop is not meaningful review, not reasonable escalation, and not good-faith complaint handling.

Applicable legal issues include:
1. Australia — Defamation Act 2005 (NSW)
The Reddit material identifies the affected sole trader and the affected service. It carries serious defamatory imputations, including fraud, hacking, data theft, malicious code, server destruction, token abuse, SQL injection, scamming and dishonest business conduct. These imputations are likely to cause, and have caused, serious harm to the affected person's personal reputation and sole trader business.

2. Australia — Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth)
The Reddit material forms part of targeted cyber abuse against an Australian adult. It is menacing, harassing and offensive in context, including repeated targeted abuse, allegations of criminality, abuse involving personal identity and family context, and repeated attempts to drive harassment, ostracism and commercial exclusion against the affected person.

3. Australia — Criminal Code Act 1995 (Cth), s 474.17
The use of online services to publish repeated targeted allegations and abuse may be relevant to the use of a carriage service to menace, harass or cause offence, especially where the content forms part of a repeated course of conduct and has been repeatedly reported.

4. Australia — Australian Consumer Law / commercial disparagement context
Where competitor-linked actors use false claims to divert customers, damage trade, or mislead users about the affected service's safety, legitimacy, security, or honesty, the conduct may also raise misleading or deceptive conduct, injurious falsehood, malicious falsehood, and commercial disparagement issues.

5. United States — Defamation, trade libel, unfair competition, and Reddit's own post-notice conduct Reddit may seek to rely on Section 230 for third-party content, but Section 230 does not make the original publisher's statements lawful and does not prevent Reddit from voluntarily removing or restricting unlawful, defamatory, abusive, manipulated, or policy-violating material. It also does not answer Reddit's own complaint-handling conduct, preservation obligations, escalation failures, moderation conduct, platform-design failures, or representations about safety and reporting pathways.
The reported material raises state-law defamation and trade libel/commercial disparagement issues because it asserts false facts about theft, hacking, data misuse, malicious code, customer sabotage, server destruction, and fraud. If competitor-linked, it may also support unfair competition and false commercial disparagement arguments.

6. United States — Cyberstalking / harassment context
Where online services are used as part of a course of conduct intended to harass, intimidate, or cause substantial emotional distress, 18 U.S.C. § 2261A may be relevant. The reported Reddit thread and comments are part of a wider pattern of targeted conduct and should not be assessed as isolated comments.

7. United Kingdom — Defamation Act 2013
The Reddit material raises serious-harm defamation issues if published, accessed, indexed, or relied on in the UK. Allegations of hacking, fraud, data theft, malicious code, server destruction, and dishonest business conduct are grave factual imputations.

8. United Kingdom — Protection from Harassment Act 1997 and Online Safety Act 2023
The repeated hostile thread context may support harassment analysis where it forms part of a course of conduct causing alarm or distress. False or threatening communications may also be relevant where false material is published with intent to cause harm.

9. Canada — Civil defamation, defamatory libel, criminal harassment, and false information
The material raises Canadian civil defamation issues because the statements tend to lower the affected person's reputation, refer to the affected person/service, and are published to others. Depending on evidence and intent, Criminal Code provisions concerning defamatory libel, false information conveyed with intent to injure or alarm, criminal harassment, and harassing communications may also be relevant.

I request that Reddit now:
1. escalate this matter to Reddit Legal, Trust & Safety, Compliance, and any team responsible for legal complaints, platform abuse, data preservation, and data-protection obligations;
2. reassess the reported Reddit thread and comments as a legal complaint involving defamation, commercial disparagement, targeted harassment, cyber abuse, competitor-linked platform manipulation, and false allegations of criminal conduct;
3. remove, restrict, quarantine, or disable access to the reported defamatory and abusive material;
4. preserve all records connected to the reported URLs, accounts, subreddit, moderator actions, Automoderator actions, deleted comments, edited comments, internal notes, Zendesk records, triage labels, escalation notes, ticket history, and prior related reports;
5. preserve records showing whether the reported users blocked the affected account and whether that prevented the affected account from reporting the content through Reddit's normal reporting interface;
6. confirm the correct Reddit legal pathway if Reddit maintains that the Australia Restricted Content Reporting Form is not the correct pathway;
7. confirm whether Reddit will treat the reported accounts and subreddit activity as coordinated abuse, platform manipulation, bad-faith commercial activity, or competitor-linked abuse;
8. provide a written human-reviewed decision if Reddit refuses removal or restriction;
9. identify the legal or policy basis relied on if Reddit continues hosting the material after notice.

This is repeat notice. Reddit has been told the specific URLs, the exact allegations, the false and abusive nature of the content, the competitor-linked context, the failure of ordinary Reddit reporting pathways, the blocking/reporting defect preventing reports from the affected account, and the fact that an Australian adult and sole trader is personally harmed by this material.
This request does not seek suppression of genuine criticism. It seeks removal or restriction of defamatory and abusive material falsely accusing an identifiable Australian adult and sole trader of criminal conduct, hacking, fraud, data theft, malicious code and customer sabotage.
The affected person's legal identity and contact details are provided only in the signature and prior support records. They are not repeated throughout this public-facing explanation because legal complaints may be copied, republished, indexed, or attached to transparency records.

REQUESTED ACTION:
I request that Reddit remove, restrict, quarantine, or disable access to the listed Reddit thread and comments, and preserve all related account, moderation, edit, deletion, report, escalation, blocking, platform-interface, and internal review records. I also request that Reddit stop treating this as a single-channel Australia Restricted Content report. This is a multi-jurisdictional legal complaint involving defamation, commercial disparagement, cyber abuse, harassment, platform manipulation, false allegations of criminal conduct, and Reddit's own defective reporting path where blocked users cannot report from the affected account.

This is repeat formal notice. Reddit has been told the specific URLs, the defamatory imputations, the personal and commercial targeting, the competitor-linked context, the failed reporting pathways, the platform reporting defect, and the fact that an Australian adult and sole trader is being directly harmed.
The affected person's legal identity and contact details are already known to Reddit through the support ticket and prior correspondence.

ITEMISED EXPLANATION OF REPORTED URLS
The affected person is an Australian adult and sole trader. The affected service is personally operated by that sole trader. These URLs should be assessed as a connected pattern of defamation, targeted cyber abuse, competitor-linked harassment, and platform manipulation, not as isolated criticism.
For each URL below, the legal issue is that the material either directly publishes false factual allegations, republishes and amplifies those allegations, encourages harassment, uses competitor-linked attack material to divert users, or forms part of the same coordinated campaign. The affected person's legal identity is already known to Reddit through the support ticket and prior correspondence.

1. https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/
WHAT THIS URL IS: This is the main Reddit thread. It targets the affected service and its operator. It frames the operator as abusive, paranoid, unsafe, and a "serious problem" in the relevant community. It warns users not to click links from that person and tells users to remove the service from their servers.
WHY THIS IS UNLAWFUL / LEGALLY ACTIONABLE: This thread operates as the central Reddit source for later defamatory comments. It is harmful because Reddit hosts the whole thread and allows it to remain publicly accessible, searchable, linkable, and available to search engines. The thread is not limited to a personal bad experience; it invites and preserves wider allegations of criminality, hacking, fraud, malicious code, and unsafe business conduct.
AUSTRALIA: The thread gives rise to defamation issues under the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW) because it identifies the affected person/service and carries or republishes serious imputations likely to cause serious harm. It also supports an adult cyber-abuse complaint under the Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth) when assessed with the full thread and related harassment context.
UNITED STATES: This raises defamation issues under applicable state law where false factual claims are made or republished. It may also support harassment/cyberstalking context where the thread forms part of a course of conduct intended to harass or intimidate through online services.
UNITED KINGDOM: This raises serious-harm defamation issues under the Defamation Act 2013 if accessed, indexed, or relied on within UK jurisdiction. The repeated hostile thread context may also support harassment analysis under the Protection from Harassment Act 1997.
CANADA: This raises civil defamation issues because the thread identifies the affected person/service, is published to others, and tends to lower reputation. The repeated nature of the thread and comments may also support harassment or false-information concerns if assessed with the wider campaign.

2. https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/kwcjm4s/
WHAT THIS URL IS: This Reddit comment claims the affected service exists to collect and sell customer files, that the operator deleted server files, destroyed multiple servers where the operator had FTP access, and is known as a scammer in related communities.
WHY THIS IS UNLAWFUL / LEGALLY ACTIONABLE: This is a direct false factual accusation of theft, data misuse, destruction of customer property, unauthorised access/abuse, and fraud. It does not read as opinion. It presents serious allegations as facts and tells users this is “JUST who” the affected person is. The purpose and effect are to make users afraid to trust the service.

AUSTRALIA: This is defamatory under the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW) because it imputes criminal and dishonest conduct and is likely to cause serious harm. It also supports cyber-abuse context under the Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth) because it is part of repeated targeted abuse against an Australian adult.
UNITED STATES: This raises state-law defamation and trade libel/commercial disparagement issues because it asserts false facts about theft, file misuse, destruction, and fraud. Where made by or for a competitor, it may also support unfair competition arguments.
UNITED KINGDOM: This raises Defamation Act 2013 serious-harm issues because allegations of theft, fraud, and destruction of customer data are grave factual imputations. It may also form part of harassment if repeated with other posts.
CANADA: This raises civil defamation issues because the words would lower reputation, refer to the affected person/service, and are published. It may also raise Criminal Code false-information or defamatory-libel concerns if the sender knew the allegations were false and intended to injure or alarm.

3. https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/kywtf93/
WHAT THIS URL IS: This Reddit comment claims there have been “hundreds of complaints”, that the service downloads custom files from customers, that the operator sells them for profit, and that the operator is a known scammer.
WHY THIS IS UNLAWFUL / LEGALLY ACTIONABLE: This is a false factual accusation of customer data theft, commercial misuse of customer files, and fraud. It is not a review of service quality. It tells readers the service steals customer files and sells them, which is a serious allegation of criminal/dishonest conduct and directly damages user trust.
AUSTRALIA: This is defamatory under the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW), especially because it alleges dishonest and potentially criminal business conduct. It also contributes to the targeted adult cyber-abuse pattern under the Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth).
UNITED STATES: This raises state-law defamation and commercial disparagement/trade libel issues. If competitor-linked, it may also support false advertising/unfair competition arguments where false claims about another service are used in a commercial context.
UNITED KINGDOM: This raises Defamation Act 2013 issues because accusations of stealing and selling customer files are likely to cause serious harm and financial loss. It may also support harassment-pattern evidence.
CANADA: This raises civil defamation because it refers to the affected service/operator, is published, and would lower reputation. If knowingly false and intended to injure or alarm, it may also raise Criminal Code false-information concerns.

4. https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/kteombn/
WHAT THIS URL IS: This Reddit comment contains personal abuse and claims the operator threatened to remove a customer’s service access. It forms part of the overall hostile narrative that the operator mistreats customers and operates abusively.
WHY THIS IS UNLAWFUL / LEGALLY ACTIONABLE: Standing alone, this is less serious than the hacking, theft, or fraud accusations. However, it remains relevant because it contributes to the thread’s cumulative defamatory meaning: that the operator is abusive, threatening, unprofessional, and unsafe to deal with. In the wider thread, it supports the pile-on and helps keep the hostile thread active.
AUSTRALIA: This supports the serious-harm and cyber-abuse context under the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW) and Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth), especially when assessed as part of the whole thread and repeated campaign.
UNITED STATES: This may support defamation or false-light style concerns depending on the exact facts and state law, and it is relevant as evidence of online harassment/pile-on conduct.
UNITED KINGDOM: This may support harassment-pattern evidence under the Protection from Harassment Act 1997 and may contribute to serious-harm defamation context under the Defamation Act 2013.
CANADA: This may support civil defamation context and repeated-harassment context where it forms part of a larger course of published abuse.

5. https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/kjskiyb/
WHAT THIS URL IS: This Reddit comment calls the operator insane, paranoid, abusive, dishonest and commercially incompetent. It also promotes the idea that another service works without problems while the affected service does not.
WHY THIS IS UNLAWFUL / LEGALLY ACTIONABLE: This comment is legally relevant because it does more than insult. It reinforces a factual narrative that the affected person is mentally unstable, abusive, dishonest, and unfit to run the service. It also steers users toward competitors. In context, it forms part of a commercially damaging and personally targeted campaign.
AUSTRALIA: This contributes to defamation under the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW), especially where the meaning is that the affected person is mentally unstable, abusive, dishonest and professionally incompetent. It also contributes to the cyber-abuse pattern under the Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth).

UNITED STATES: This may be treated partly as opinion if isolated, but in context it supports defamation and commercial disparagement arguments where presented as factual customer misconduct and used with competitor redirection. It may also support harassment context.
UNITED KINGDOM: This may contribute to serious-harm defamation under the Defamation Act 2013 if the context conveys factual assertions, not mere abuse. It also supports harassment-pattern arguments under the Protection from Harassment Act 1997.
CANADA: This may support civil defamation where the words are understood as factual allegations lowering reputation. It also supports repeated harassment context if assessed with the thread as a whole.

6. https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/ktpfv26/
WHAT THIS URL IS: This deleted or unavailable Reddit comment is included because it forms part of the same Reddit thread and abuse pattern. It should be assessed against the archived evidence and the surrounding live thread.
WHY THIS IS UNLAWFUL / LEGALLY ACTIONABLE: Even where a comment is deleted or unavailable, it remains relevant if Reddit hosted, preserved, served, logged, indexed internally, or allowed it to contribute to the defamatory thread. It also supports the pattern of repeated publication and removal/reposting behaviour.
AUSTRALIA: This is relevant to notice, publication history, republication, serious harm, and cyber-abuse pattern under the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW) and Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth).
UNITED STATES: This may support defamation/harassment evidence where archived copies or Reddit records show publication and harm. It may also support notice and platform-failure arguments.
UNITED KINGDOM: This may support serious-harm and harassment-pattern evidence where archived publication shows the comment formed part of the course of conduct.
CANADA: This may support civil defamation and harassment context if evidence shows the comment was published and contributed to the wider campaign.

7. https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/kyv8inc/
WHAT THIS URL IS: This Reddit comment accuses the operator of creating fake accounts, being a “hack”, being delusional, needing therapy, and having private complaints against them. It also states the user “found a better bot”, tying the attack to competitor promotion.
WHY THIS IS UNLAWFUL / LEGALLY ACTIONABLE: This is not merely rude wording. It reinforces the false narrative that the affected sole trader is dishonest, mentally unstable, unsafe to deal with, and professionally inferior, while redirecting users to competitors. In the context of the broader thread, it supports both personal cyber-abuse and commercial sabotage.
AUSTRALIA: This contributes to defamation and serious harm under the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW), and to adult cyber-abuse context under the Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth), because it is part of repeated targeted harassment.
UNITED STATES: This may support defamation, false-light, harassment, and commercial disparagement arguments depending on applicable state law and context. The competitor comparison element is relevant to unfair competition analysis.
UNITED KINGDOM: This may contribute to Defamation Act 2013 serious-harm issues and Protection from Harassment Act 1997 course-of-conduct issues.
CANADA: This may support civil defamation and harassment context because it is published, targets the affected person/service, and contributes to a repeated hostile narrative.

8. https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/kyy8xq7/
WHAT THIS URL IS: This deleted or unavailable Reddit comment is included because it forms part of the same Reddit thread and abuse pattern. It should be assessed with the live thread, archived evidence, and surrounding comments.
WHY THIS IS UNLAWFUL / LEGALLY ACTIONABLE: The legal relevance is the same as other deleted/unavailable comments: if the content was published, archived, served, logged, or preserved by Reddit, it remains relevant to notice, publication history, repetition, and pattern evidence.
AUSTRALIA: Relevant to publication history, serious harm, notice, and cyber-abuse pattern under the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW) and Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth).
UNITED STATES: Relevant to defamation/harassment evidence, notice, platform failure, and Reddit’s handling if Reddit hosted or retained the content.
UNITED KINGDOM: Relevant to harassment-pattern and serious-harm context if archived evidence shows it contributed to the thread.
CANADA: Relevant to civil defamation and harassment context if evidence shows publication to third parties.

9. https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/kyxztrs/
WHAT THIS URL IS: This deleted or unavailable Reddit comment is included because it forms part of the same Reddit thread and abuse pattern. It should be assessed with the live thread, archived evidence, and related comments.

WHY THIS IS UNLAWFUL / LEGALLY ACTIONABLE: The comment's deletion or unavailability does not remove its relevance where it was previously published or where it contributed to the broader thread that Reddit continues to host. It supports the argument that Reddit must assess the thread as a coordinated pattern, not just individual live comments.
AUSTRALIA: Relevant to publication history, serious harm, notice, and cyber-abuse pattern under the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW) and Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth).
UNITED STATES: Relevant to defamation/harassment evidence, notice, platform failure, and Reddit's handling if Reddit hosted or retained the content.
UNITED KINGDOM: Relevant to serious-harm and harassment-pattern context if archived evidence shows publication.
CANADA: Relevant to civil defamation and harassment context if evidence shows publication and contribution to the wider campaign.

10. https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/nreb800/
WHAT THIS URL IS: This Reddit comment claims the operator is a "clown", unwilling to assist, treats people like garbage, and that lawsuits are "getting the better" of the operator. It then directly recommends a competing service instead.
WHY THIS IS UNLAWFUL / LEGALLY ACTIONABLE: This is relevant because it combines reputational attack with competitor redirection. The comment is not merely saying "I prefer another service"; it frames the affected operator as abusive, unstable, legally compromised, and not worth users' time or money, then pushes users to a competitor.
AUSTRALIA: This contributes to defamation under the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW), especially when assessed with the whole thread and serious-harm threshold. It is also relevant to adult cyber-abuse context under the Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth) as part of the targeted pile-on.
UNITED STATES: This may support commercial disparagement, unfair competition context, and defamation depending on whether the factual claims are false and presented as fact. The direct competitor redirection is legally relevant.
UNITED KINGDOM: This may support Defamation Act 2013 serious-harm issues where the meaning is that the operator is abusive, unstable or commercially unfit. It may also support harassment-pattern context.
CANADA: This may support civil defamation and injurious falsehood/trade libel context if false statements are used to damage the service and redirect customers.

11. https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/lnt64ot/
WHAT THIS URL IS: This Reddit comment claims information was leaked with a database dump, that the operator uses FTP to destroy servers, wreaks havoc on the community, has SQL injection issues, hijacks user files using tokens, and sells and distributes user files for financial gain.
WHY THIS IS UNLAWFUL / LEGALLY ACTIONABLE: This is one of the clearest unlawful comments. It directly accuses the affected person/service of hacking, data theft, database compromise, server destruction, token abuse, and selling customer files. These are serious criminal/dishonest factual allegations. They are not opinion. They are designed to scare users away from the affected service.
AUSTRALIA: This is defamatory under the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW) because it alleges serious criminal, dishonest and malicious conduct and is likely to cause serious harm. It also supports adult cyber-abuse under the Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth) as menacing, harassing and offensive targeted material.
UNITED STATES: This raises state-law defamation and trade libel/commercial disparagement issues. If competitor-linked, it may also support false advertising/unfair competition arguments because it misrepresents the nature, characteristics and safety of another service.
UNITED KINGDOM: This raises serious-harm defamation under the Defamation Act 2013. It may also fit false-communications concerns under the Online Safety Act 2023 if the sender knew the claims were false and intended psychological or physical harm to a likely audience, and it contributes to harassment context.
CANADA: This raises civil defamation and potentially Criminal Code false-information/defamatory-libel concerns because it conveys serious false allegations of criminal and dishonest conduct. It may also contribute to criminal harassment context if part of repeated conduct causing fear for safety.

12. https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/lnt7b2s/
WHAT THIS URL IS: This Reddit comment says users should pay the operator's fee if they want to get hacked and have files stolen, and claims the service is broken and has poor security.
WHY THIS IS UNLAWFUL / LEGALLY ACTIONABLE: This is a direct factual allegation that the affected service hacks paying users and steals files. It also asserts poor security and broken functionality. It is calculated to destroy user trust and prevent customers from using the service.
AUSTRALIA: This is defamatory under the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW) because it alleges hacking, theft, poor security, and dishonest conduct likely to cause serious harm. It also contributes to adult cyber-abuse context under the Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth).
UNITED STATES: This raises state-law defamation, trade libel/commercial disparagement, and potentially unfair competition issues if competitor-linked or used to divert customers. It falsely represents the service as dangerous and criminal.

UNITED KINGDOM: This raises Defamation Act 2013 serious-harm issues because hacking and file theft accusations are grave factual imputations. It may also support false-communications and harassment context when assessed with the whole campaign.
CANADA: This raises civil defamation and potential false-information/defamatory-libel concerns because it accuses the service of hacking and theft. It may also support harassment context where repeated as part of a campaign.

13. https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/ldsxli3/
WHAT THIS URL IS: This Reddit comment claims the operator banned a customer with no refund and scams people for tokens and money.
WHY THIS IS UNLAWFUL / LEGALLY ACTIONABLE: This is a false factual accusation of fraud, token misuse, and dishonest business conduct. It directly tells readers the affected operator scams people for money and access tokens. That damages both personal reputation and business trust.
AUSTRALIA: This is defamatory under the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW) because it alleges fraud and dishonest business conduct. It is likely to cause serious harm to a sole trader whose business depends on user trust. It also contributes to the Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth) cyber-abuse pattern.
UNITED STATES: This raises state-law defamation and commercial disparagement issues. If made in a competitor-linked thread or used to divert customers, it may support unfair competition analysis.
UNITED KINGDOM: This raises Defamation Act 2013 serious-harm issues because allegations of scamming and token misuse are serious factual allegations. It may also support harassment-pattern evidence.
CANADA: This raises civil defamation because it identifies the affected operator/service, is published, and imputes fraud. It may also raise false-information concerns where knowingly false and intended to injure.

14. https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/l5a15bj/
WHAT THIS URL IS: This Reddit comment claims the affected service has malicious code, removed and edited files without permission, changed server settings improperly, and that the operator has harmed server owners in the past.
WHY THIS IS UNLAWFUL / LEGALLY ACTIONABLE: This is a direct accusation that the software is malicious and that the operator has a history of harming customers. It is not a vague opinion. It asserts specific technical misconduct and unauthorised file/server interference. It is highly damaging because the affected service depends on users trusting its code, permissions, and integrations.
AUSTRALIA: This is defamatory under the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW) because it alleges malicious software, unauthorised file changes, customer harm, and dishonest technical conduct. It also contributes to adult cyber-abuse context under the Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth).
UNITED STATES: This raises state-law defamation, trade libel/commercial disparagement, and potentially unfair competition issues where false technical claims are used to damage or divert customers from a service.
UNITED KINGDOM: This raises Defamation Act 2013 serious-harm issues because concerns where knowingly false and intended to injure.

14. https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e malicious code and unauthorised file/server interference allegations are serious factual imputations. It may also support false-communications and harassment context where knowingly false and harmful.
CANADA: This raises civil defamation and potential injurious falsehood/trade libel concerns because it falsely attacks the safety and integrity of the service. If knowingly false and intended to injure, it may also support Criminal Code false-information concerns.

Reddit's continued hosting of the reported defamatory URLs is legally unreasonable because Reddit has been placed on notice that the material is false, abusive, competitor-linked, commercially harmful, and targeted at an Australian adult and sole trader.

This is not a request for Reddit to mediate a personal disagreement. The affected person has provided the specific Reddit URLs, the exact nature of the allegations, the competitor-linked context, the cross-platform pattern, the failed reporting history, the platform blocking/reporting defect, and the applicable legal frameworks.

A generic response stating that one Australian restricted-content form does not apply is not a lawful or adequate answer to a broader legal complaint involving defamation, harassment, cyber abuse, commercial disparagement, platform manipulation, reporting-path defects, and false allegations of criminal conduct.

Reddit should remove or restrict the reported thread and comments, preserve all related records, and explain in writing if it refuses to act why it continues to host false allegations of hacking, fraud, data theft, malicious code, server destruction, token misuse and customer sabotage after repeated notice.

Subject: Re: [Reddit Support] Re: Your request sent to Reddit Support

Reddit Legal Support,

Your response incorrectly treats this matter as a single-channel "Australia Restricted Content" report. That is not the scope of my complaint.

This email is a formal multi-jurisdictional legal notice, preservation demand, and escalation request. It must be referred to Reddit Legal, Trust & Safety, Compliance, and any team responsible for legal complaints, platform abuse, data preservation, and data-protection obligations.

1. Reddit is hosting false allegations of criminal conduct

The material I have reported states, as fact, that I and/or my business:

- hack servers;
- steal, sell, or misuse customer files and data;
- use malicious code, FTP abuse, or SQL injection to damage servers;
- scam users for money and tokens;
- infiltrate, damage, or wipe Discord servers;
- misuse customer access for unlawful or dishonest purposes.

These are direct, verifiable allegations of criminality, dishonesty, computer misuse, data misuse, fraud, theft, sabotage, and professional misconduct.
They are false.
This is not opinion, criticism, or an ordinary user dispute. The content presents serious factual allegations as truth. It is being used to damage my personal reputation and my sole-trader business, where my personal identity and business identity are inseparable in practice.

2. Reddit has notice of competitor involvement and platform manipulation
Reddit has been placed on notice that the material appears connected to direct competitors in the DayZ server/killfeed space.
The most serious allegations have been repeatedly posted or amplified by accounts linked to competitor activity, including u/Brief_Ordinary1438 and related conduct connected to Kamikaze420 / DayZ Skynet. A known operational competitor also participated in the same environment before deleting material, while other accounts repeated the same allegations shortly after.
The pattern is not random. It indicates coordinated platform manipulation, commercial disparagement, and the use of Reddit as a publication vehicle to inflict reputational and financial harm through false criminal allegations.
Reddit has been notified about this thread, these accounts, and the competitor context since 2024. Continued refusal to meaningfully review or remove the material after notice may be relied upon as evidence of continuing publication, continuing harm, and unreasonable complaint handling.

3. This engages multiple legal and regulatory pathways
Your response does not address the legal basis of the complaint. This matter is not limited to the Australia Restricted Content Reporting Form.
The complaint engages, among other things:

Australia

- Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth), including cyber-abuse material targeted at an Australian adult;
- Criminal Code Act 1995 (Cth) s 474.17, regarding use of a carriage service to menace, harass, or cause offence;
- Defamation Act 2005 (NSW) and uniform Australian defamation law;
- injurious falsehood, malicious falsehood, and commercial disparagement;
- Australian Consumer Law issues where competitors use false claims to divert customers or damage trade;
- privacy, doxxing, data-handling, and platform-record preservation issues.

United States
Reddit may seek to rely on Section 230 for third-party content, but that does not resolve issues arising from Reddit's own conduct, including notice handling, escalation failures, preservation failures, moderation conduct, misclassification of legal complaints, and any representations Reddit makes about safety, reporting, or complaint pathways.
I reserve all rights concerning California law, federal and state unfair competition pathways, trade disparagement, tortious interference, negligence, consumer protection complaints, and reports to relevant Attorneys General or federal agencies.

European Union / EEA
Where the material is accessible, indexed, processed, reported, or handled in a way that engages EU users or EU systems, this may raise issues under the Digital Services Act, including notice-and-action obligations, complaint-handling obligations, transparency obligations, and illegal-content review processes.
It may also engage GDPR and national defamation, harassment, privacy, and data-protection laws where personal information, identifying allegations, platform records, or inaccurate personal data are involved.

United Kingdom, Canada, New Zealand, Ireland, and other common-law jurisdictions
The same material is globally accessible and may engage defamation, malicious falsehood, harassment, harmful digital communications, privacy, data-protection, commercial disparagement, and platform accountability pathways in any jurisdiction with an arguable connection to publication, access, indexing, processing, or harm.
4. Formal preservation demand

Reddit must preserve all records connected to this matter, including but not limited to:

- reported posts, comments, deleted comments, edited comments, and removed comments;
- account data for the reported users;
- IP logs, session logs, device/browser metadata, login metadata, and account-linking indicators;
- moderator actions in r/DayZDiscussions;

- Automoderator actions and moderation logs;
- modmail and internal moderator communications available to Reddit;
- Zendesk records, internal notes, triage labels, escalation notes, and ticket history;
- all records relating to Request #17726555 and prior related reports;
- all internal communications concerning the reported URLs, accounts, subreddit, or complaint handling.

This is a litigation hold. Any deletion, alteration, failure to preserve, or avoidable loss of relevant records after this notice may be raised as spoliation or destruction of evidence in later proceedings, subpoenas, regulator complaints, law-enforcement reports, or discovery requests.

5. Required action by 5 May 2026

I require Reddit to do the following by 5 May 2026:

1. Confirm this matter has been escalated to Reddit Legal, Trust & Safety, Compliance, and the appropriate legal complaint team.
2. Confirm Reddit has preserved all relevant records listed above.
3. Reassess the reported Reddit thread and comments as a legal complaint involving defamation, commercial disparagement, targeted harassment, cyber abuse, competitor platform manipulation, and false allegations of criminal conduct.
4. Remove, restrict, or disable access to the reported defamatory and abusive material.
5. Provide the correct Reddit legal pathway if Reddit says the Australia Restricted Content Reporting Form is not the correct channel.
6. Explain what action Reddit will take regarding the r/DayZDiscussions moderation issue, including the apparent selective removal of rebuttals and supportive comments while leaving competitor-friendly defamatory material accessible.
7. Confirm whether Reddit will treat the reported accounts and subreddit activity as coordinated abuse, platform manipulation, or bad-faith commercial activity.

6. Notice of escalation

If Reddit refuses to act, or continues to issue generic “wrong form” responses, I will escalate Reddit’s handling of this matter to every regulator, authority, and enforcement body with an arguable jurisdictional connection, including:

- eSafety Commissioner, including ongoing matter ACA-2025-0729927;
- Australian Federal Police;
- NSW Police;
- Office of the Australian Information Commissioner;
- Australian Competition & Consumer Commission;
- NSW Fair Trading;
- Commonwealth Ombudsman;
- US Federal Trade Commission;
- California Attorney General;
- Washington State Attorney General;
- relevant EU Digital Services Coordinators;
- relevant EU/EEA data-protection authorities;
- UK, Canadian, New Zealand, Irish, and other applicable regulators or enforcement bodies.

This is not a request for Reddit to mediate a private disagreement. Reddit has been placed on notice that its platform is hosting false factual allegations that accuse an identifiable Australian adult and sole trader of criminal conduct. The allegations are damaging, search-visible, commercially motivated, and repeatedly reported.
A generic response that the matter does not fit one Australian restricted-content form is not an adequate legal response. Please confirm by 5 May 2026 that Reddit has escalated this matter, preserved the relevant records, and commenced a proper legal review of the reported content and moderation conduct.

u/Brief_Ordinary1438 is actually Kamikaze, the guy who has a record of doing this same stuff to:

- Accolade PVP
- The Greedy Peasant
- Skull'N'Roses DayZ Servers
- EpicFailWinner's The Creep Show AKA The DeathMatch
- ShotsX3
- TBag
- Bring Your Own Bullets
- DayZ Modding Community

For example, the FTP files reference, Greedy said it wasn't Soul, PissedOffTexan said it wasn't Soul. That DayZ Skynet sKami said it was "Azzy" who did the FTP stuff in 2021, whoever that is. sKami was the only suspect. 2 years later he blames Soul.

- Soul carried sKami
- They tried to do this same shit on Trustpilot
- Ain't it weird to anyone else that there's very specific claims that only sKami has ever made?
- This video shows over 900 files of proof contradicting this whole post
- There's even TikTok's that have songs explaining the deep level of harassment
- SkyNet got exposed for it by their own AI
- There is so much proof this is nothing but character assassination
- Legion Killfeed is even suing reddit, facebook, Trustpilot & more for this defamation

Explain in detail why you believe the content on the above URL(s) is unlawful, citing specific provisions of law wherever possible. For requests other than defamation, Google shares the information in this open text field with Lumen for transparency purposes. Do not include any personal data in your explanation. For more information about Lumen, see here.

The content at the listed URLs is unlawful because it constitutes defamation under the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW) and equivalent Uniform Defamation Laws across Australia.
Publication: The posts and comments are published publicly on Reddit and associated competitor websites (aggropvp.com, skynetvslegion.com), making them available to a wide audience.
Identification: The content expressly names my business, Legion Killfeed, and myself ("Soul"), so readers clearly understand the statements refer to me and my service.
Defamatory Meaning: The material accuses me and my business of misconduct, dishonesty, and other negative behavior. These statements are presented as factual assertions, not opinion, and would cause a reasonable person to think less of me or my business.
Falsity: The allegations are false. They were created and promoted by a direct competitor in order to harm my reputation and divert customers. None of the claims can be substantiated by evidence.
Harm: These statements have caused reputational and commercial damage by misleading potential customers into believing false claims.
No Defences Apply:
The statements are not substantially true (Defamation Act 2005 (NSW) s.25).
They are not "honest opinion" because they are presented as fact without a factual basis (s.31).
They are not privileged communications.
Under Defamation Act 2005 (NSW), s.4, matter is defamatory if it "tends to lower the reputation of the plaintiff in the estimation of ordinary reasonable people." These publications clearly meet that test.
Accordingly, the material is unlawful because it is defamatory, false, and malicious in origin, published with the intent to damage a competitor.

In order to ensure specificity, please quote the exact text from each URL above that you believe infringes on your rights. If the allegedly infringing content is a picture or video, please provide a detailed description of the picture/video in question so that we may locate it on the URL in question.

Dear Google Legal Team,

I write in response to your follow-up regarding my earlier request for removal of defamatory material targeting my business Legion Killfeed.
Identity / Standing
I, Anthony Brodie, am the sole owner and operator of the Australian business Legion Killfeed. I am reporting this in my own right as the individual and business entity defamed in the content.
Google Search URLs
As requested, below are the full Google Search result URLs (obtained via right-click → “Copy link address”) for each offending page:
This is the precise url that leads back to those:
https://www.google.com/search?client=opera-gx&q=Legion+Killfeed

https://www.google.com/url?q=https://skynetvslegion.com https://www.google.com/url?q=https://aggropvp.com

Basis of Unlawfulness
The content at these URLs is defamatory under the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW) and the uniform defamation laws of Australia:
Publication: Publicly accessible Reddit threads and competitor websites.
Identification: They name me directly ("Soul") and identify my business, Legion Killfeed.
Defamatory meaning: They allege dishonesty, fraud, technical sabotage, and abusive conduct, presented as fact.
Falsity / Malice: These claims are false and published by a direct competitor to damage my reputation and divert customers.
No defences: Not substantially true (s.25), not honest opinion (s.31), and not privileged.

Supporting Evidence (attached):
Screenshots showing the Reddit user u/Brief_Ordinary1438 posting these allegations while simultaneously promoting the competing service Anon PVP / DayZ Skynet.
Proof that the individual behind these accounts is Mathew Trojanowski, owner of the competing Skynet/Anon PVP service and domains such as skynetvslegion.com and aggropvp.com.
Screenshots of harassment and false DDoS accusations (which exposed the IP hosting ~30 domains/mailers targeting my former server names, used to disparage my product).
These exhibits show a deliberate competitor-driven smear campaign, further supporting the malicious publication element under Australian defamation law.
I respectfully request that Google proceed with delisting of these URLs from its search results.

Kind regards,

Anthony Brodie
Owner & Developer

A disgruntled SERVER OWNER made these claims but he's also one of my staff's ex partners.
He posted the lies after spreading pedophile accusations in the exact same facebook goup this lie comes from.

Clearly the 50+ verified trustpilot reviews aren't used to check against that directly contradict this, that's libel and can cost Google their defamation exemption

Who says my tokens aren't encrypted? They are never asked for at all. I actively discourage anyone ever sending tokens. It's all self-setup via bot-commands. So this is direct slander.

FALSE!

WHERE?! SHOW ME ONE! LYING FUCKS.

Legion Killfeed Contraversay

As of late 2025, the Legion Killfeed bot for DayZ has faced several controversies revolving around allegations of administrative abuse, poor customer service, and aggressive competition with other bot developers.

Key Controversies

- Allegations of Server Sabotage: There have been public claims in community groups that the bot's owner has used administrative access to "reset loop" servers or force players to leave communities if they switch to or mention competing services.
- Customer Support & Conduct: A significant portion of the controversy stems from the behavior of the developer (often referred to as "Saul" or "Soul"). Multiple users have reported receiving rude or unprofessional responses to support tickets, including being mocked for technical difficulties.
- Security & Privacy Concerns: Some server owners have raised issues regarding the bot's requirement for unencrypted setup tokens, which are sometimes requested via Discord tickets rather than secure automated systems.
- Developer Bans: Reports exist of the developer banning server owners from using the bot for seemingly arbitrary reasons, which can leave a server's tracking and management tools non-functional without warning.
- Rivalry with Other Bots: Legion Killfeed has been involved in public "smear campaigns" and disputes with rival bot services like Skynet and DayZ++. The developers have openly accused competitors of spreading "lies" while competitors have made similar counter-claims.

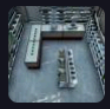

Mixed Reputation

Despite these controversies, the bot remains popular due to its high functionality.

- Positive Feedback: Many users on Trustpilot praise the bot for its comprehensive feature set, such as 1,000m base radars and instant event tracking.
- Negative Feedback: Critics warn potential users to avoid the service due to the risk of "admin abuse" or losing access to their paid service if they clash with the developer.

Re: Case 7-4274000039113 (Defamation delisting request)

Hello Google Legal Team,

I am replying on the same thread with the exact Google Search result URLs you requested (right click result title, “Copy link address”), and with the supporting PDFs attached.

Attachment resend due to size failure
My previous reply failed to send due to attachment size. The PDF “2025-12-22-google-take-down-7-4274000039113.pdf” is my last attempt at replying, originally it included an attach MP4 (“2025-12-22-dmca-rick-rolled.mp4”), which appears to have triggered the size limit. I am resending that same email as a PDF attached as it details the harassment context furt

1. Entity clarification (Sole trader, not a corporation)
   I am Anthony Gordon Brodie, an Australian Individual/Sole Trader (ABN 28 387 377 607). There is no company registration, no ACN, and no issued shares. I have attached th
   Australian Business Register (ABR) extract confirming:

- Entity name: BRODIE, ANTHONY GORDON
- Entity type: Individual/Sole Trader
- ABN status: Active from 24 Apr 2022
- Main business location: NSW 2541
- GST: Not currently registered

Accordingly, the following items from your requested list are not applicable and cannot be produced because they do not exist for a sole trader:

- “Corporation’s full legal name, jurisdiction of registration, and registration number (e.g. ACN)”
- “Government record showing issued shares and identity of owners”
- “List of other corporations in which this company holds shares”
  My business is owned solely by me, has no shares, and holds no corporate interests.

Employees: I operate as a sole trader. There are no employees other than myself (and any ad hoc contractors if and when engaged).

2. Standing (individual targeted)
   The content identifies and targets me personally (including by the name “Soul”) alongside my business name “Legion Killfeed”. This is not only a “company complaint”. My per legal rights and reputation are directly affected by the publications.

3. Proof of requesting removal from the website owner and their response
   You requested “documented proof (screenshots of an email will suffice) confirming that the company has asked the owner of the website in question to remove the content” ar owner’s response or a statement that the owner declined or did not respond”.

For Reddit (owner/platform operator of the URLs listed below):

- I submitted a formal removal request to Reddit Legal Support regarding the defamatory thread and comments.
- Reddit refused to action the report (or stated they were not processing it).
  I have attached the PDF containing my request to Reddit and their response/refusal.

For competitor-run websites (skynetvslegion.com and aggropvp.com):

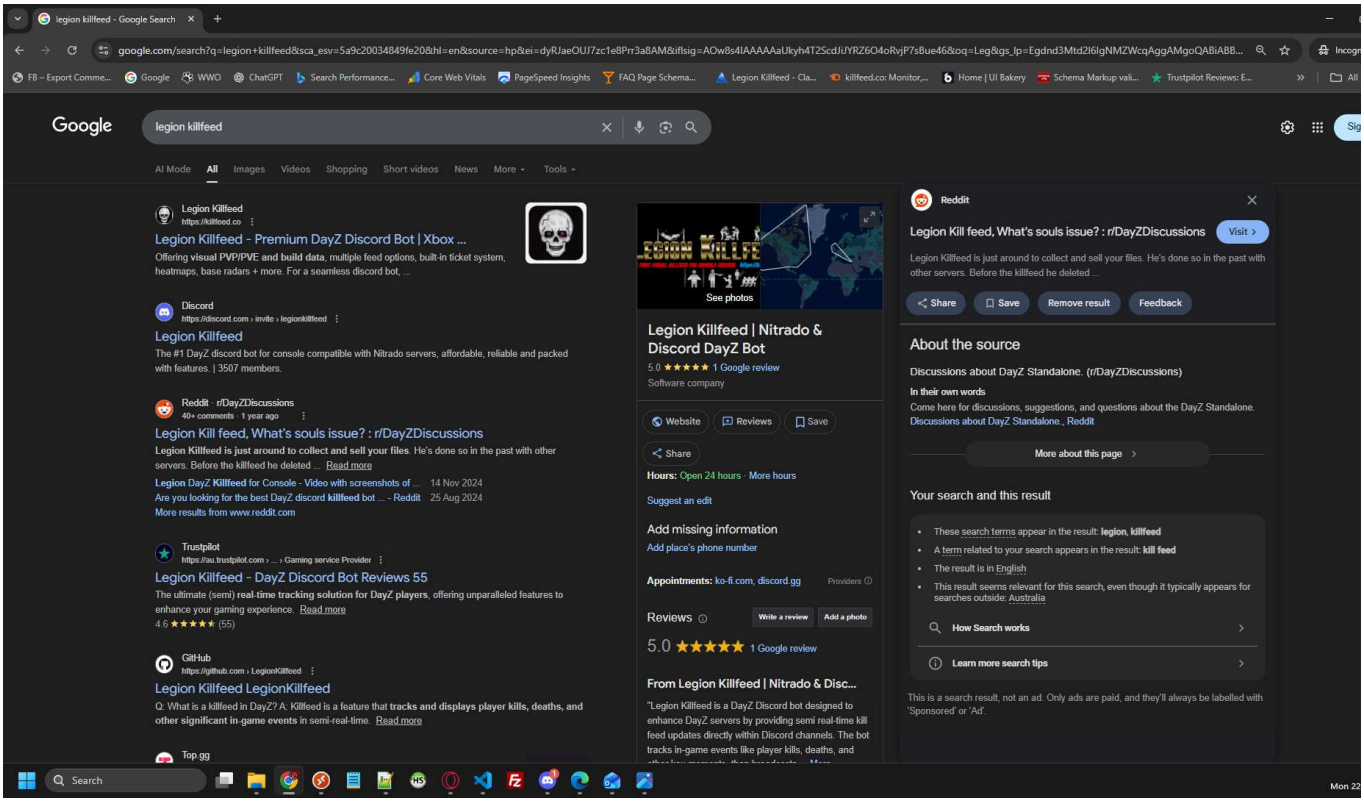

- These domains are part of the same competitor-driven campaign described below.
- There is already copious evidence of my direct requests to the owners, hosts, and registrars of these domains asking for removal of the defamatory material. Those communications and responses were included in the earlier email that failed to send due to size constraints.
- I have attached it as a pdf but can provide the original files via multiple emails if you would like to avoid any size constraints.

4. Google Search URLs as requested (right-click result title, “copy link address”) Search results page:

- https://www.google.com/search?client=opera-gx&q=Legion+Killfeed
- https://www.google.com/search?q=legion+killfeed

  Search result redirect URLs (as copied):

  - Per your instructions (right-click result title, copy link address), the search results URL leading to the relevant results was: https://www.google.com/search?client=opera gx&q=Legion+Killfeed
  - Using a chrome browser it has a lot of tracking which is odd because it's incognito mode? But it's now bounced from 7th result to 3rd. I am not happy. https://www.google.com/search?q=legion+killfeed&sca_esv=5a9c20034849fe20&hl=en&source=hp&ei=dyRJaeOUJ7zc1e8Prr3a8AM&iflsig=AOw8s4IAAAAAaUkyh4T2ScdJiJYRZ6O4oRvjP7sBue46&oq=Leg&gs_lp=Egdnd3Mtd2l6IgNMZWcqAggAMgoQABiABBhDGIoFMhMQLhiABBixAxhDGIMBGMkDGIoFMgoQABiABBhDGIoFMhAQLhiABBixAxhDGIMBGIoFMhEQLhiABBixAxjRAxiDARjHATIIEC4YgAQYsQMyCxAAGIAEGJIDGIoFMgUQLhiABDIFEAAYgAQyDhAAGIAEGLEDGIMBGIoFSKYWUNYFWJUKcAF4AJABAJgBnwGgAdgDqgEDMC4zuAEDyAEA-AEBmAIEoALIA6gCCsICHRAAGIAEGLQCGNQDGOUCGOcGGLcDGIoFGOoCGIoDwgIaEAAYgAQYtAIY5QIY5wYYtwMYigUY6gIYigPCAgoQABgDGOoCGI8BwgIKEC4YgAQYQxiKBcICCBAAGIAEGLEDwgOEC4YgAQYsQMY0QMYxwHCAg4QLhiABBixAxiDARiKBcICCxAAGIAEGLEDGIMBmAMF8QXS41O6kVMR-ZIHAzEuM6AHoSOyBwMwLjO4B-ADwgcFMC4zLjHIBwmACAA&sclient=gws-wiz

5. Why these URLs are defamatory and why harm is ongoing
   The Reddit thread and competitor sites publish false factual claims about me and my business, including allegations of criminal conduct (fraud), technical sabotage, an misuse of customer data. These are not opinions or fair comment. They are presented as factual allegations, and they have caused substantial reputational and busine harm.

The harm is ongoing and amplified because these URLs are prominent in Google Search results for “Legion Killfeed” (currently appearing near the top results in Australia as s in my screenshot evidence).

6. Broader context (competitor-driven, cross-platform harassment)
   This is not isolated criticism. It is a sustained campaign by competitors and their associates, propagated across:

- Reddit (defamatory thread and comments),
- competitor smear websites (skynetvslegion.com and aggropvp.com),
- Facebook/Meta (republishing of serious false allegations), and it has escalated beyond commercial disparagement into harassment and safety risk. I have reported these issues to platforms and regulators. Key evidence is incl in the attached PDFs.

7. Request to Google
   Please do the following:

A) Confirm you will evaluate this as an individual defamation delisting request (Anthony Gordon Brodie, identified as “Soul”), not as a “company only” complaint.

B) Proceed with delisting assessment for the URLs listed in section 4.

C) Confirm in writing that corporate-only documentation requests (ACN, issued shares, corporate holdings) are not required where the affected entity is an Individual/Sole Tra and confirm what you require instead (for example: ABN record plus a statutory declaration).

D) Provide the correct Google process or contact channel to report suspected abuse of legal processes and fraudulent DMCA claims being used as part of this campaign (incl whether any DMCA notices have been submitted to Google products referencing my domains, content, or media).

Sincerely,
Anthony Gordon Brodie
Sole Trader (Individual)

Re: [7-4274000039113] Your Request to Google

Legion Killfeed <legion.killfeed@gmail.com>
To: removals@google.com

Hello,

This is a removal request concerning Google-controlled content in Google Search results, not third-party webpages.

1. Google-controlled content to remove/correct (AI Overview)
   When searching "legion killfeed", Google Search is generating and publishing an AI Overview titled "Legion Killfeed Controversary" that presents serious allegations as factual "controversies" (server sabotage/reset loop, token handling, security/privacy misconduct, arbitrary bans, etc.). These are false and defamatory statements about my business, and they are being published by Google Search's AI Overview product output.

Evidence screenshot (AI Overview text):

Requested action:

- Remove this AI Overview for my brand query and closely related variants.
- Prevent the same defamatory AI Overview output from reappearing for this business name.
- Confirm escalation to the Search AI Overview team and confirm removal/correction.

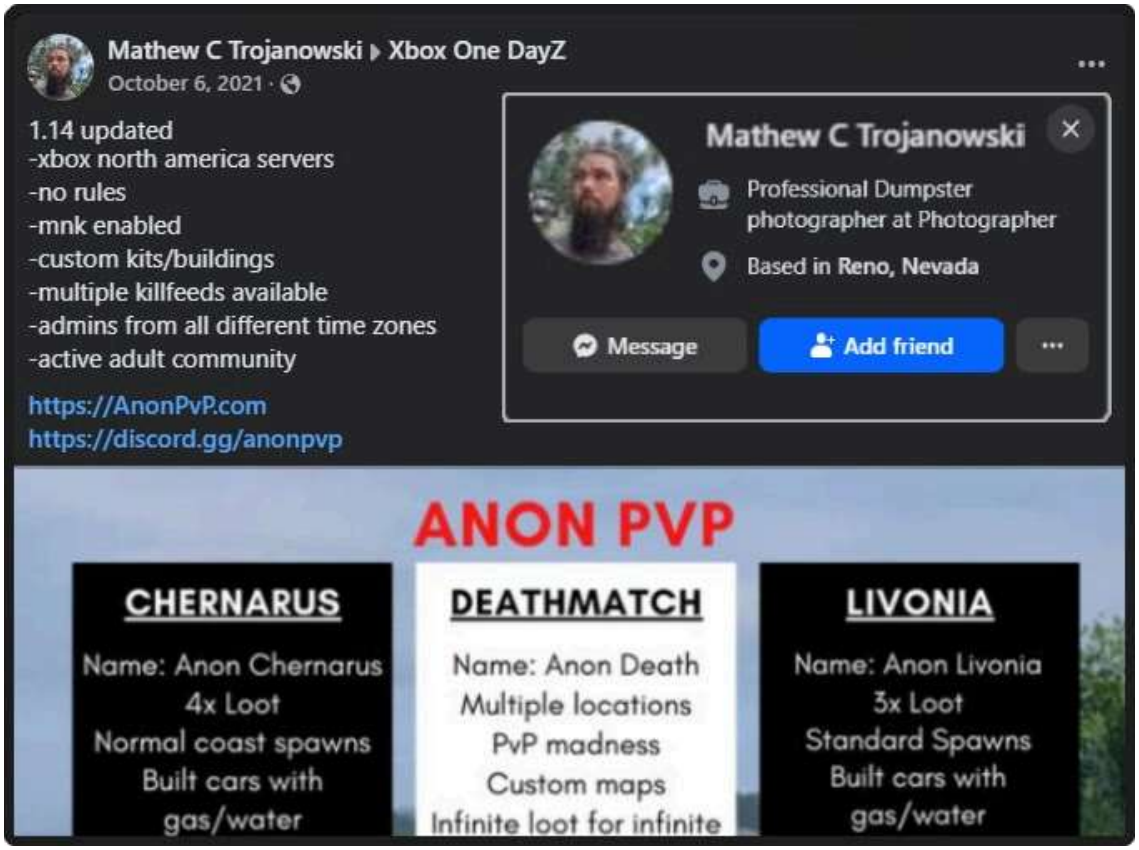

2. Why the AI Overview content is unreliable (competitor coordination and infrastructure evidence)
   The AI Overview appears to be summarising and amplifying a coordinated competitor-driven narrative.

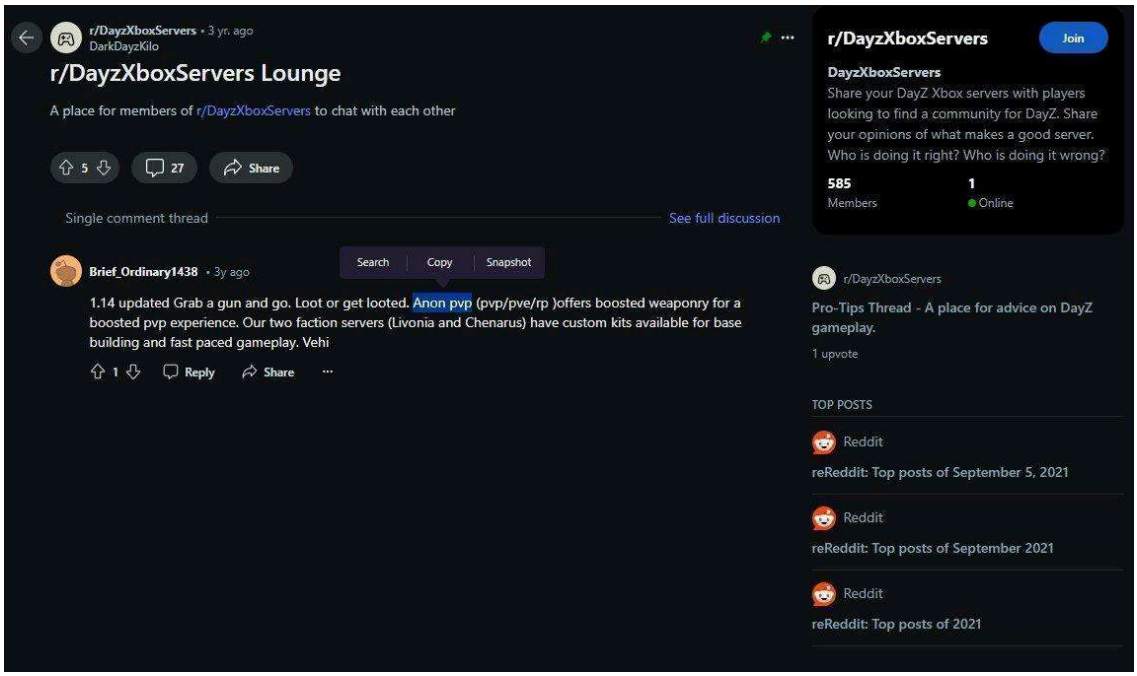

The competitor operating DayZ Skynet (competing service) is the same party behind the online campaign that includes:

- the Reddit profile u/Brief_Ordinary1438 (which repeatedly posts attacks about Legion, and also advertises "Anon PVP"), and
- domains hosting dedicated defamatory content targeting Legion, including https://skynetvslegion.com and https://aggropvp.com.

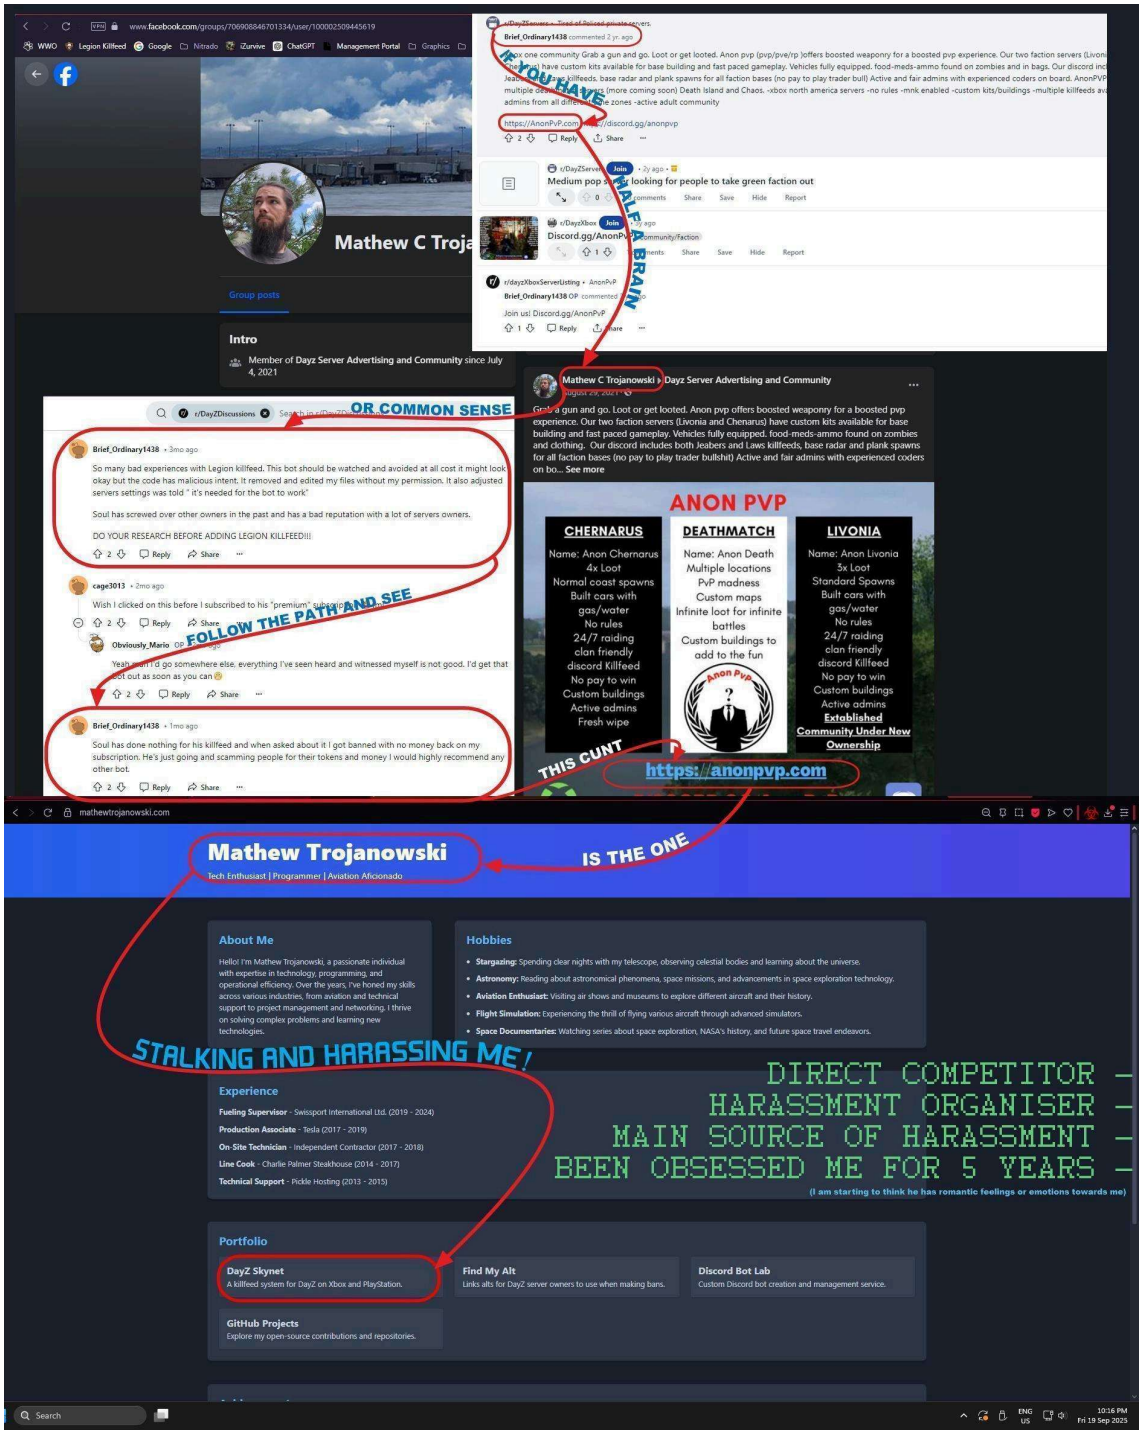

I am not asking Google to adjudicate ownership in the abstract. I am providing evidence that the AI Overview is amplifying a coordinated campaign tied to a direct competitor, and that the competitor has repeatedly moved or hidden content while attempting to keep Search amplification intact.

Evidence: "Anon PVP" advertised by the competitor on Facebook (public post screenshots)

Evidence: u/Brief_Ordinary1438 advertising “Anon pvp” on Reddit (screenshots)

Evidence: Security trails / DNS history showing infrastructure overlap and hosting trails consistent with the above domains being operated/controlled together (screenshots)

Evidence: Skynet support chat acknowledging same-host/IP linkage between DayZSkynet.com and SkynetVSLegion.com while simultaneously refusing to address defamatory hosting (screenshot)

3. Prior response you gave that “content could not be located” (aggropvp.com)
   Your Dec 30, 2025 email stated:
   “Upon recent review of the following URLs, we were unable to locate the content in question: https://aggropvp.com”

That domain is using a DMCA-themed notice page that automatically redirects after a short delay (approximately 10 to 15 seconds) to a rick-roll video. This appears designed to waste reviewer time and to conceal what is hosted on the domain.

Evidence / context captured:

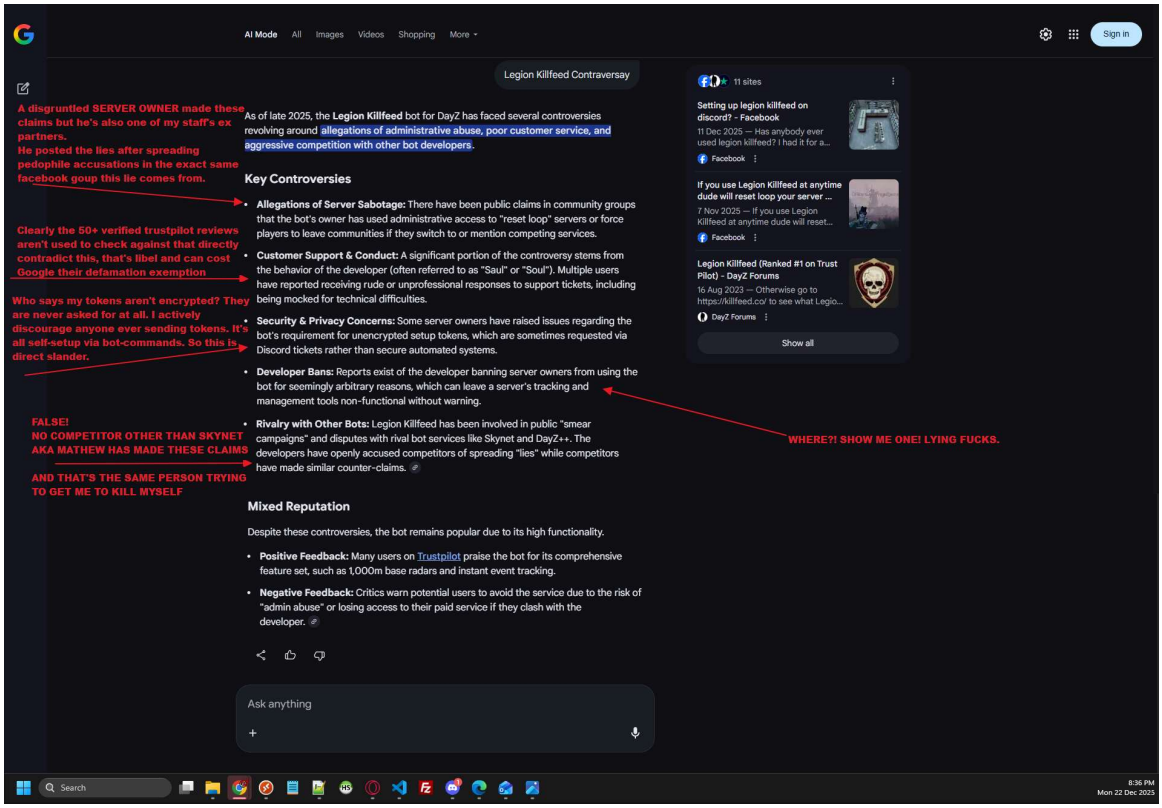

Reproduction steps:

1. Open https://aggropvp.com in a normal browser session with JavaScript enabled.
2. Wait approximately 10 to 15 seconds.
3. Observe the forced redirect to a rick-roll video.

This behavior is relevant because it shows intent to obscure content and frustrate review, while continuing to run a coordinated reputational attack and keep Search amplification working.

Summary of what I am requesting from Google
A) Remove/correct the Google Search AI Overview text that is publishing false and defamatory claims about Legion Killfeed:

- Screenshot:

B) Confirm escalation to the Search AI Overview team and confirm the removal/correction outcome in writing.

This request is narrowly focused on Google-generated AI Overview content that Google publishes inside Search results pages.

> Additional context showing bias and bad faith (falsified data issue):
> SkynetVSLegion.com presents itself as a factual comparison, but it omits relevant context about Skynet falsifying its own stats output. Using Skynet's published Score formula and their displayed card numbers, the printed scores and KDs contradict the inputs and basic DayZ logic (example summary below). This is relevant to credibility, motive, and bad faith.
> Skynet score formula (as published by Skynet):
> Base = Kills x 3.0 + Deaths x -1.5 + Headshots x 2.0 + Killstreak x 2.0 + Deathstreak x -0.5 + Damage x 0.08 + Distance x 0.4 (cap 1250 per event).
> Bonuses: if headshot rate >= 0.5 add +1.5 per event. If damage per kill >= 150 add +0.03 per damage.
> Multiplier: if KD >= 2.5 use x2.5. Otherwise use x2.0.
> Cards do not expose streak counts or per-kill distances, so those terms must be treated as 0, creating a strict lower bound score.

> Reality: K=D on both, so true KD=1.0. HS rate is about 0.17 on both, and damage per kill is 34.3 and 96.3, so bonuses do not apply. Multiplier is x2.0.
> Lower bound scores (streaks 0, distance 0):
> #1 Base = 3K - 1.5D + 2HS + 0.08DMG = 6,877,800, then x2.0 = 13,755,600. Printed score 7,500,000 is below the minimum.
> #2 Base = 13,370,200, then x2.0 = 26,740,400. Printed score 9,000,000 is below the minimum.

KD contradiction: with K=D the KD must be 1.0. Printed KDs of 87,701.83 and 103,607.45 imply deaths of about 17 and 14, not 1.5M and 1.4M.

Damage per kill check: DayZ player health is 100. Averages of 34.3 and 96.3 per kill do not support kill counts.

Conclusion: Using Skynet's own published system, the displayed stats contradict themselves. SkynetVSLegion.com does not disclose this, and presents a biased and factually unreliable comparison while publishing defamatory allegations about my business.

3. Reddit - coordinated defamation campaign, request reconsideration of delisting refusal

Google previously advised contacting the webmaster. I have done so and issued formal notices. Reddit has refused to remove the content and has treated repeated reports as "duplicative / frivolous / vexatious / bad faith" despite the content being defamatory and part of ongoing targeted harassment. Google Search distribution is the primary amplification mechanism, and delisting is the only practical remedy to limit ongoing harm via search.

Primary thread and comments (direct URLs listed at the top of this email).

Core defamatory claims published (examples in thread and screenshots):

- "The code has malicious intent"
- "It removed and edited my files without my permission"
- "It adjusted server settings"
- "Soul has screwed over other owners"

These are presented as factual personal experience claims to dissuade others from using my service and damage my business reputation.

Evidence:

Evidence of subreddit moderation context tied to the same repeating defamatory narrative:

4. Identity linkage and coordinated campaign (context)
   The campaign and linked properties are connected through recurring identifiers and cross-promotion:
   https://they-wish-i.died.space/harrassment/2025-09-19-kamikaze-is-mathew-trojanowski.jpg
   https://they-wish-i.died.space/harrassment/2025-12-22-connecting-website-to-discord-plus-website-threat-then-denial.png

Requested Google Search action:

A) Delist the AggroPVP fraudulent DMCA page and its redirect: https://aggropvp.com/ & https://aggropvp.com/video_player.html

B) Delist the SkynetVSLegion defamatory comparison page: https://skynetvslegion.com/

C) Reconsider the Reddit delisting refusal for the URLs listed, given Reddit's refusal to remove after formal notice, and the ongoing defamation and targeted harassment.

This matter also includes targeted harassment involving my fiancée and the publication of intimate images of me and images of my children (see https://they-wish-i.died.space/harrassment/2025-09-29-aggropvpdotcom.jpg). Google Search visibility continues to compound reputational, personal, and family harm.

If you need any specific quote transcribed as plain text from any screenshot above, tell me which URL you are assessing and I will provide the exact lines as plain text in the next reply.

> My previous reply failed to send due to attachment size. The PDF “2025-12-22-google-take-down-7-4274000039113.pdf” is my last attempt at replying, originally it included an attachment MP4 (“2025-12-22-dmca-rick-rolled.mp4”), which appears to have triggered the size limit. I am resending that same email as a PDF attached as it details the harassment context further.

> 5. Why these URLs are defamatory and why harm is ongoing
> The Reddit thread and competitor sites publish false factual claims about me and my business, including allegations of criminal conduct (fraud), technical sabotage, and misuse of customer data. These are not opinions or fair comment. They are presented as factual allegations, and they have caused substantial reputational and business harm.
>
> The harm is ongoing and amplified because these URLs are prominent in Google Search results for “Legion Killfeed” (currently appearing near the top results in Australia as shown in my screenshot evidence).

6. Broader context (competitor-driven, cross-platform harassment)
   This is not isolated criticism. It is a sustained campaign by competitors and their associates, propagated across:

- Reddit (defamatory thread and comments),
- competitor smear websites (skynetvslegion.com and aggropvp.com),
- Facebook/Meta (republishing of serious false allegations), and it has escalated beyond commercial disparagement into harassment and safety risk. I have reported these issues to platforms and regulators. Key evidence is included in the attached PDFs.

7. Request to Google
   Please do the following:

A) Confirm you will evaluate this as an individual defamation delisting request (Anthony Gordon Brodie, identified as "Soul"), not as a "company only" complaint.

B) Proceed with delisting assessment for the URLs listed in section 4.

C) Confirm in writing that corporate-only documentation requests (ACN, issued shares, corporate holdings) are not required where the affected entity is an Individual/Sole Trader, and confirm what you require instead (for example: ABN record plus a statutory declaration).

D) Provide the correct Google process or contact channel to report suspected abuse of legal processes and fraudulent DMCA claims being used as part of this campaign (including whether any DMCA notices have been submitted to Google products referencing my domains, content, or media).

Sincerely,
Anthony Gordon Brodie
Sole Trader (Individual)

Re: [7-4274000039113] Your Request to Google

Legion Killfeed <legion.killfeed@gmail.com>

Hello,

Thanks for your reply. Below is the requested information for my AI Mode removal request.

1. Screenshot of the exact statement or question given to Search that resulted in the response
   I have attached a screenshot showing the exact query I entered:
   Legion Killfeed Controversy
2. Screenshot of the exact content/response I would like removed
   I have attached a screenshot showing the full AI Mode response. I am also providing the share link to the same response:
   https://share.google/aimode/y2pkjBqQDrpPBde1n
3. Which country edition of AI Mode I am viewing the response in Australia, English.
4. Explanation of how the AI Mode content is about me and or how it is objectionable
   The AI Mode response is about my business and product, Legion Killfeed, and it is describing me as the owner. It makes multiple false and defamatory claims, including accusing the owner "Soul" or "Saul" of "server sabotage" and claiming I "reset looped" servers to kill communities. It also presents misleading claims about customer service and pricing, and recommends a competitor as an alternative based on hostile posts that are part of an ongoing smear effort.

Key issues:

- Identity and attribution errors: It refers to the owner as "Saul" and attributes serious misconduct to me and my business.
- Defamation and harmful allegations: It repeats or relies on posts that are outright defamatory and have included pedophile style smears and incitement. Example comments in the underlying threads include short statements like "all pedos should die" and "Make woodchippers great again." I have included an evidence export showing the specific comments, timestamps, and permalinks.
- Wrong and irrelevant sourcing: It cites an ABC News article about "International Legion" in Ukraine which is unrelated to this DayZ Discord bot, and it also mixes in links that are about different services or unrelated pages.
  https://www.abc.net.au/news/2025-01-16/australian-oscar-jenkins-ukraine-international-legion-russia-war/104819472
- Reliance on known false sources and misidentification: Several cited links are from the Facebook group "Make DayZ Great Again" where the publisher has a history of weaponizing defamation, including falsely alleging the bot owner is a pedophile. These posts are not reliable sources to summarize as factual, and the AI Mode output is amplifying them as if they were credible.

Primary URLs that AI Mode relied on or that are directly relevant to the defamatory claims:

- https://www.facebook.com/groups/makedayzgreatagain/posts/1481591939589293/
- https://www.facebook.com/groups/makedayzgreatagain/posts/1467851097630044/
- https://www.facebook.com/groups/dayzeditors/posts/1385739236246930/
- https://www.facebook.com/groups/2360635877481498/posts/4008629356015467/
- https://www.facebook.com/groups/787847268691626/posts/1990396755103332/

For completeness, I note that at least one of the above links is about dayzkillfeed.com rather than Legion Killfeed at killfeed.co, which further demonstrates the response is mixing unrelated entities and presenting a misleading narrative about my business.

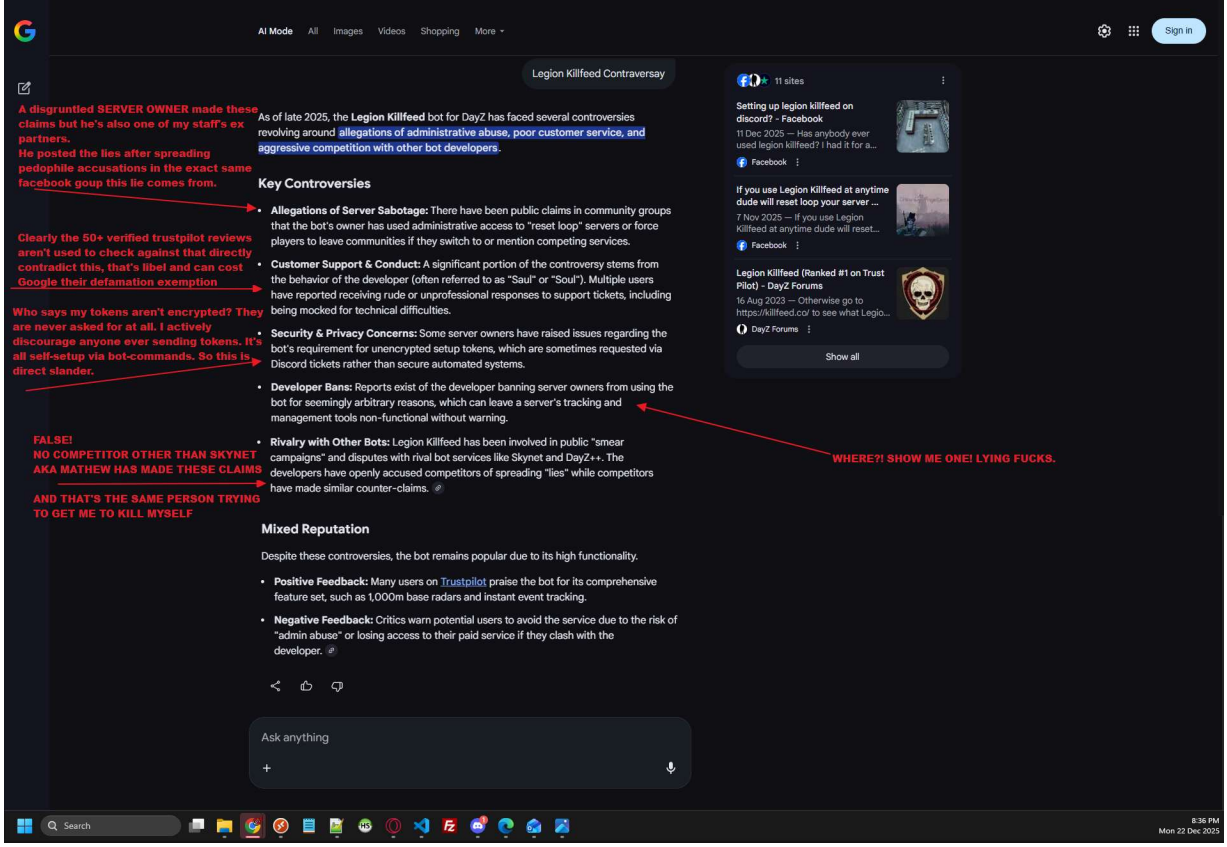

Please confirm receipt of the attachments and advise the next step for review and removal.

Regards,
Anthony Brodie
Owner, Legion Killfeed

These are false and defamatory statements about my business, and they are being published by Google Search's AI Overview product output.

Requested action:

- Remove this AI Overview for my brand query and closely related variants.
- Prevent the same defamatory AI Overview output from reappearing for this business name.
- Confirm escalation to the Search AI Overview team and confirm removal/correction.

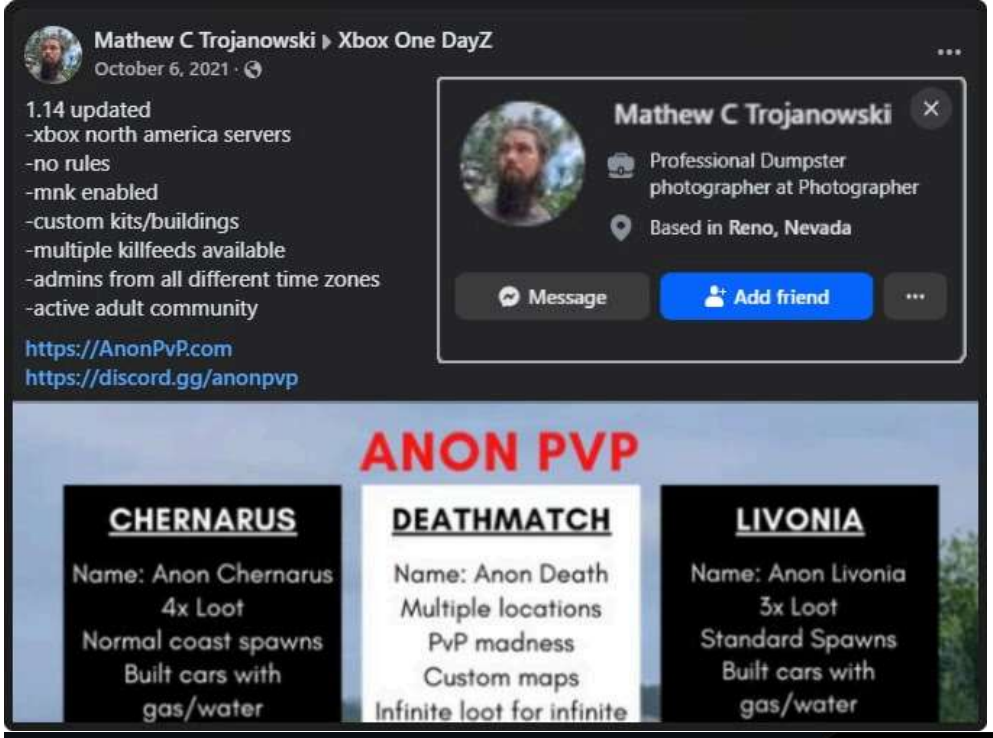

2. Why the AI Overview content is unreliable (competitor coordination and infrastructure evidence)
   The AI Overview appears to be summarising and amplifying a coordinated competitor-driven narrative.

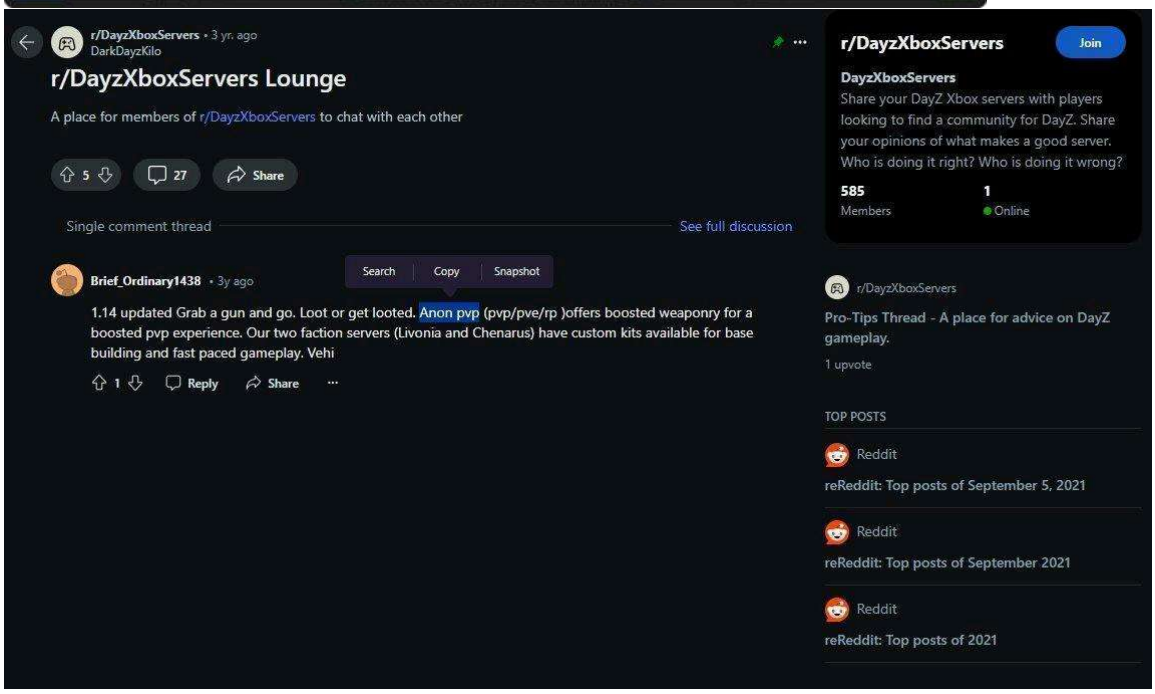

The competitor operating DayZ Skynet (competing service) is the same party behind the online campaign that includes:

- the Reddit profile u/Brief_Ordinary1438 (which repeatedly posts attacks about Legion, and also advertises "Anon PVP"), and
- domains hosting dedicated defamatory content targeting Legion, including https://skynetvslegion.com and https://aggropvp.com.

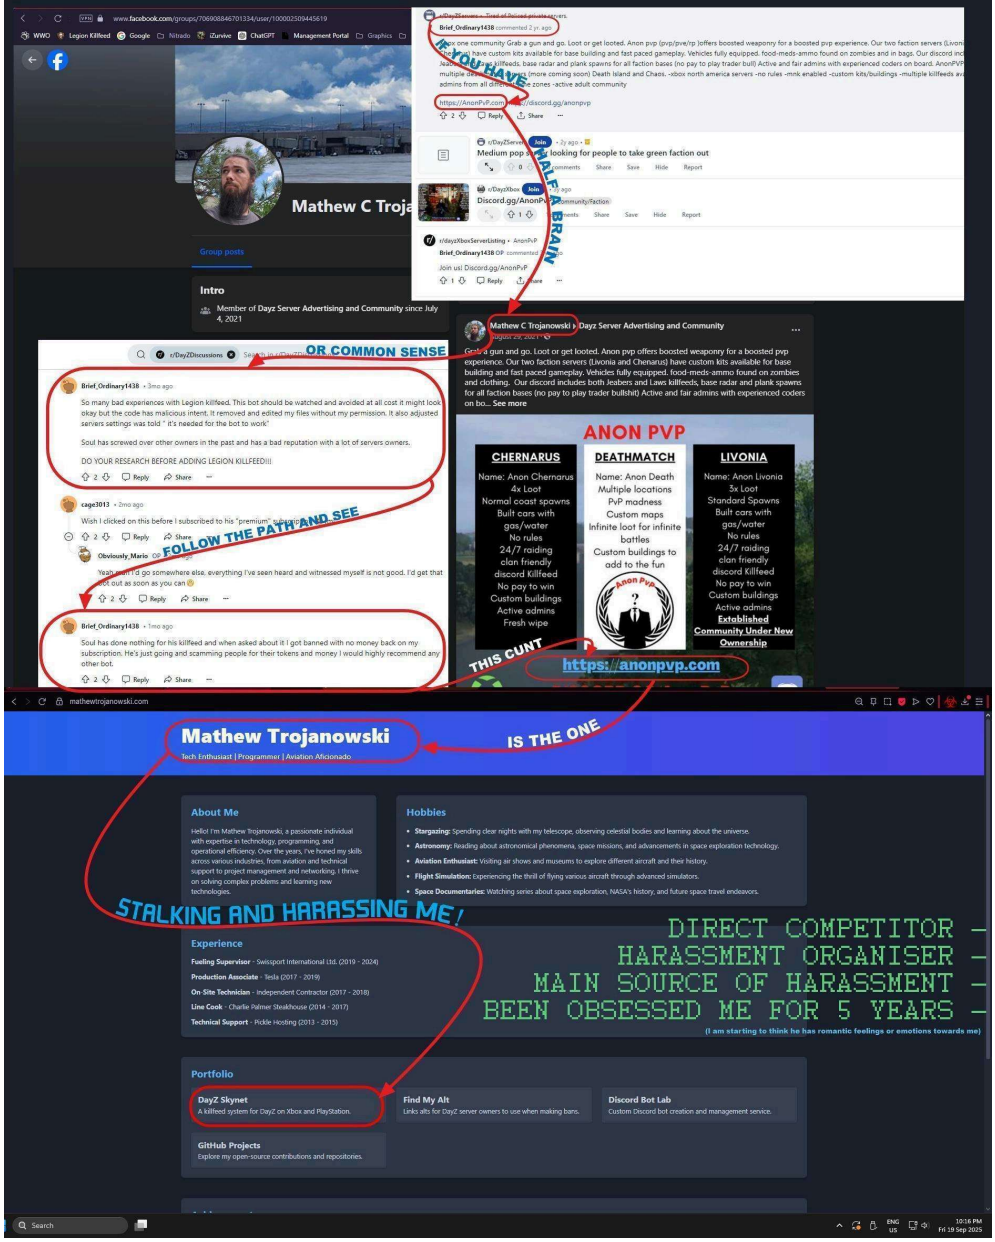

I am not asking Google to adjudicate ownership in the abstract. I am providing evidence that the AI Overview is amplifying a coordinated campaign tied to a direct competitor, and that the competitor has repeatedly moved or hidden content while attempting to keep Search amplification intact.

Evidence: "Anon PVP" advertised by the competitor on Facebook (public post screenshots)

Evidence: u/Brief_Ordinary1438 advertising “Anon pvp” on Reddit (screenshots)

Evidence: Security trails / DNS history showing infrastructure overlap and hosting trails consistent with the above domains being operated/controlled together (screenshots)

3. Prior response you gave that "content could not be located" (aggropvp.com)
   Your Dec 30, 2025 email stated:
   "Upon recent review of the following URLs, we were unable to locate the content in question: https://aggropvp.com"

That domain is using a DMCA-themed notice page that automatically redirects after a short delay (approximately 10 to 15 seconds) to a rick-roll video. This appears designed to waste reviewer time and to conceal what is hosted on the domain.

Evidence / context captured:

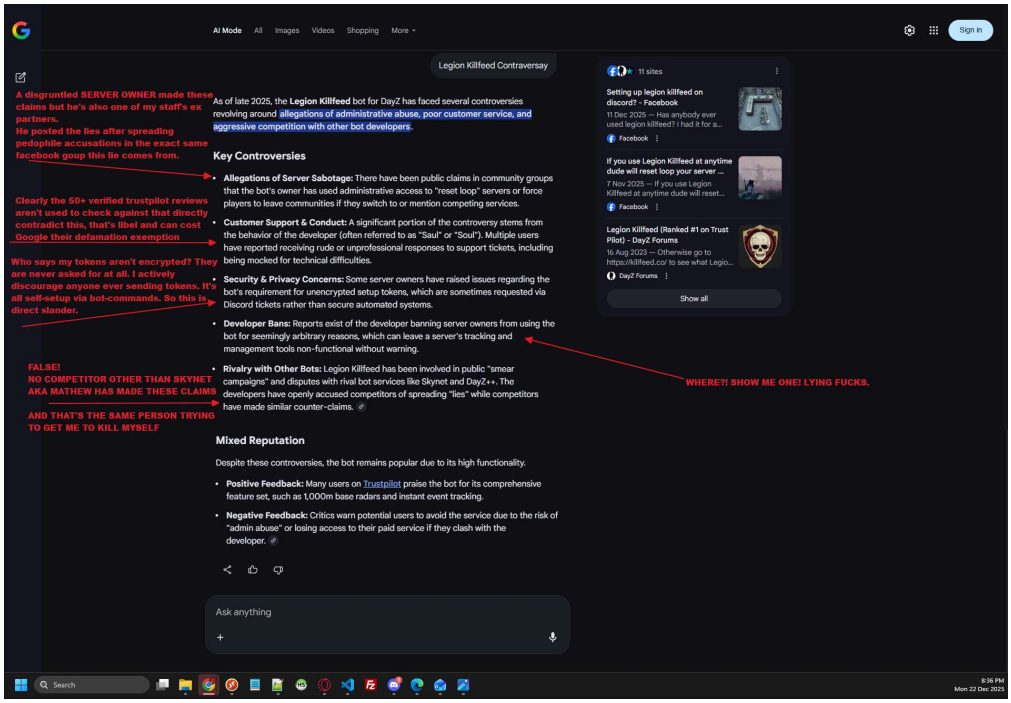

Reproduction steps:

1. Open https://aggropvp.com in a normal browser session with JavaScript enabled.
2. Wait approximately 10 to 15 seconds.
3. Observe the forced redirect to a rick-roll video.

This behavior is relevant because it shows intent to obscure content and frustrate review, while continuing to run a coordinated reputational attack and keep Search amplification working.

Summary of what I am requesting from Google
A) Remove/correct the Google Search AI Overview text that is publishing false and defamatory claims about Legion Killfeed:

- Screenshot:

B) Confirm escalation to the Search AI Overview team and confirm the removal/correction outcome in writing.

This request is narrowly focused on Google-generated AI Overview content that Google publishes inside Search results pages.

Regards,
Anthony Brodie

Re: [8-8385000040209] Your Request to Google

From Soul Legion <legionkillfeed@outlook.com>
Date Wed 2026-01-14 11:30 AM

Hello Google Team,

I confirm that I am the affected person referenced in this content. My full legal name is Anthony Brodie, and I am publicly known as "Soul" in the DayZ community. I am the owner and operator of Legion Killfeed, which I run as a sole trader. As such, attacks accusing my business of criminal behaviour are direct attacks on me personally, because a sole trader's business reputation and personal reputation are inseparable.

I previously attempted Google's business-related reporting pathway, and it was not successful. I am therefore pursuing this request under the AU Online Safety Act category selected: Cyber-abuse of an Australian adult.

Per your instructions, here are the URLs as they appear in Google Search results for the query "legion killfeed":

1. Destination page (Reddit thread):
   https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/
2. "Share" URL shown by Google for this search result:
   https://share.google/8BvGsv1DwR3rMePov
3. Google Search results page URL (where the result appears):
   https://www.google.com/search?q=legion+killfeed&rlz=1C1SLLM_enAU1189AU1189&oq=legion+killfeed&gs_lcrp=EgZjaHJvbWUyBggAEEUYOTIGCAEQRRhAMgYIAhBFGDsyBggDEEUYOzIGCAQQRRg8MgYIBRBFGDwyBggGEEUYPDIGCAcQRRhB0gEIMzA1NWowajGoAgCwAgA&sourceid=chrome&ie=UTF-8&sei=qV5maZqdM9Gg0-kP9ofkmQQ

Applicable law and why this meets the Online Safety Act threshold:

This request concerns "cyber-abuse material targeted at an Australian adult" within the meaning of the Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth), section 7. In particular:

- Section 7(1b) requires that an ordinary reasonable person would conclude it is likely the material was intended to have an effect of causing serious harm to a particular Australian adult.
- Section 7(1c) requires that an ordinary reasonable person in the position of the Australian adult would regard the material, in all the circumstances, as menacing, harassing or offensive.
- "Serious harm" includes serious harm to mental health, including serious psychological harm and serious distress (Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth), section 5).
- The Act also recognises indirect effects (i.e., harm caused when others access the material) (Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth), section 7(2)).

The Reddit thread and linked comments satisfy these elements because they are targeted at me (as "Soul") and my sole-trader business (Legion Killfeed), and they publish repeated, explicit allegations of serious wrongdoing and criminality as statements of fact, including claims that I "sell your files", "steal files", "hack", "destroy servers via FTP", "hijack user files using a token", and that my software has "malicious intent". The content further escalates to hostile, abusive statements and directives encouraging people to remove the bot, avoid anything associated with me, and treat me as a criminal threat. The obvious and foreseeable effect is serious distress and harm, including reputational destruction, customer cancellations, and further off-platform harassment.

For specificity, examples of the exact unlawful/abusive statements include:

URL:	Exact text:
https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue	"Has this happened to anyone else? Is he always such a douche? ... https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/nreb800/	"Holy moly guys, I had the worst experience with LegionKillfeed. That soul boy is such a clown ... join dayz++ instead ..."
https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/lnt7b2s/	"If you're looking to get hacked and have your files stolen by Soul Lags ... Soul is committed to creating drama ... poor security ..."

I have reported this material to Reddit previously and Reddit has refused meaningful action, leaving the content live and continuously amplified through Google Search. (This is also consistent with the Online Safety Act complaint framework, which contemplates prior reporting to the service provider in connection with seeking a removal notice.)

In addition, Google's own AI-driven search and ranking systems are actively prioritising this Reddit post, causing it to appear prominently and repeatedly for searches of my business name. This algorithmic amplification spreads provably false allegations as if they were factual, further entrenching reputational harm and exposing Google to potential legal liability for continuing to facilitate the dissemination of defamatory and abusive material after being formally notified.

Given the above, I request that Google delist/remove the Reddit result(s) identified above from Google Search results, including for brand-related searches such as "legion killfeed" and related queries, because continued prominent indexing is materially amplifying cyber-abuse targeted at an Australian adult within the meaning of the Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth).

The comment urls are included to prevent having to open another one of these when you index each of them.

Anthony Brodie

Explain in detail why you believe the content on the above URL(s) is unlawful, citing specific provisions of law wherever possible. For requests other than defamation, Google shares the information in this open text field with Lumen for transparency purposes. Do not include any personal data in your explanation. For more information about Lumen, see here.
The content I am requesting removal for is hosted on Reddit and forms part of a targeted smear campaign against an identifiable Australian business and its owner. The thread and linked comments publish allegations as statements of fact, including that the business "hacks", "steals files", "sells customer files/data", and that the software contains "malicious code" or is used to "hack" servers. These are false, verifiable allegations. They convey serious imputations of criminality/dishonesty and unsafe conduct, and they are defamatory.These posts have caused real-world harm, including customer cancellations, reputational damage, and off-platform harassment. The content remains live and continues to be indexed prominently for brand-related searches, where its high ranking gives it an appearance of authority and increases the likelihood that search users accept the allegations as true.Since 2024, I have repeatedly reported the specific post and comment URLs through Reddit's reporting tools and escalations, and I have served formal notices identifying the exact URLs and defamatory excerpts and requesting removal and preservation. Reddit has declined to remove the content, issued template-style responses that do not address the falsifiable claims, and stated it will not preserve or disclose relevant account information without valid legal process. The defamatory material remains accessible and continues to be amplified through Google Search.Additionally, the harm is being amplified by the way Google Search surfaces and prioritises results. Because these URLs rank highly and can be selected or summarised by Google's AI-driven features, defamatory claims are being elevated and repeated over legitimate, verifiable sources such as official business information and genuine review pages. This effectively prioritises unverified allegations as if they were authoritative, increases the likelihood users accept them as true, and directly compounds the reputational and commercial damage.The exploitative nature of this situation is as follows:

A) The post is reasonably suspected to have been initiated by a direct competitor (or someone acting in concert with a direct competitor) with a commercial motive to damage the business.
B) There is evidence indicating that the most harmful and repeated false allegations in the thread were posted by sockpuppet accounts linked to that competitor, including activity in a subreddit where the competitor holds moderator privileges, and those accounts are responsible for the core allegations that cause the most damage.
C) The thread is being actively used as a vehicle to spread demonstrably false claims presented as fact, with the intent and effect of causing business harm, including discouraging subscriptions, provoking cancellations, and driving off-platform harassment.
D) After being served with a cease-and-desist identifying the defamatory material and requesting removal and preservation, Reddit responded by characterising the notice as "vexatious" and has since refused meaningful engagement, leaving expensive legal process as the only practical avenue for removal or preservation of relevant records.I am requesting removal or delisting from Google Search for the URLs below because continued indexing is amplifying demonstrably false and harmful defamatory allegations about an Australian business and its owner, and those allegations are being used to cause commercial and personal harm.Allegedly infringing URLs:

Has this happened to anyone else? Is he always such a douche? He didn't let me prove anything just accused me a bunch and I've never met the dude or had any other interactions yet he was adamant that because I was on aggro I must be some sort of hack or something I'm not sure. I'm just really confused and would like some alternatives to the kill feed I've seen a few but if anyone has any recommendations that are easier for first time users I'd be appreciative.
UPDATE: Soul responded and made a fake account which he accused me of, to comment on this post 2 months later after a few others came forward about his behavior towards them.
UPDATE #2: Soul has made multiple fake accounts now and is still commenting on this post 6 months later!! Don't press on any of the links or anything that he sends I've been informed he's a serious problem in the coding/DayZ community. If you have his bot get it out of your server now! Check any and all commenters post history as most of the accts backing him have just been made!https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/kteombn/
The guy is a total douche bag. He threatened to remove my bot because I didn't respond to him in his time frame as I didn't even see that he replied. I also had settings setup where I dont see anything except @. More dramatic than a fucking woman.https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/kwcjm4s/
Legion Killfeed is just around to collect and sell your files. He's done so in the past with other servers. Before the killfeed he deleted Greedys server files and also the servers of multiple servers he had FTP access to. These are not false claims this is JUST who Soul is. Look around he's got the scammer tag is many of the DayZ discords.https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/kyv8inc/
Lmao bro you made a fake account to comment on a post from 2 months ago. Grow TF up, I've moved on and found a better bot and multiple people have said you're a hack. I don't need anything else from you, and I blocked for the same reason I'm gonna block you before you can see this. You are not worth it to argue with you're clearly delusional and have a real issue with people calling you out on your bs (hence make a fake 2 months later 😜) I've even had people send private DMs confirming you did similar if not the same shit. Anyway you're just making yourself look worse, Maybe get therapy?
https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/kywtf93/
There's been hundreds of complaints in the community about legion Killfeed. The bot downloads custom files from customers and the owner Soul (the Killfeed maker) sells them for profit.
Soul is a known Scammer is so many communities. Would never ever ever trust him to hwww a token for any server!https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/l5a15bj/
So many bad experiences with Legion killfeed. This bot should be watched and avoided at all cost it might look okay but the code has malicious intent. It removed and edited my files without my permission. It also adjusted servers settings was twww " it's needed for the bot to work"
Soul has screwed over other owners in the past and has a bad reputation with a lot of servers owners.
DO YOUR RESEARCH BEFORE ADDING LEGION KILLFEED!!!https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/ldsxli3/
Soul has done nothing for his killfeed and when asked about it I got banned with no money back on my subscription. He's just going and scamming people for their tokens and money I would highly recommend any other bot.https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/lnt64ot/
This is not the user you are questioning. The information was leaked along with a database dump. Soul is known to use FTP to destroy servers and wreak havoc on the DayZ community. The user is also more focused on drama than basic security needs, including SQL injection into the database, which has yet to be fixed. There are many people who provide clear evidence that this user is only interested in financial gain and personal gain of important information. This user is hijacking user files using a token to sell and distribute user files for financial gain. Check out the replies and feedback from other users listed in this thread.https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/nreb800/
Holy moly guys, I had the worst experience with LegionKillfeed. That soul boy is such a clown. Unwilling to assist with anything. Threats ppl like garbage. You can definitely tell the lawsuits are getting the better of him. Do yourselves a massive favour and join dayz++ instead. Their services is just 110% better and actually worth your time, money and energy." https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/lnt7b2s/
If you're looking to get hacked and have your files stolen by Soul Lags, actually pay his fee and don't cry when it happens. Soul is committed to creating drama in the community. He doesn't care about you or anyone else; he only cares about his drama and will base his entire business around it. The man is more focused on drama than on working on his broken bots with poor security.

I have good faith belief that the reported content is unlawful for the reasons stated above. I confirm that the information I have provided is accurate to the best of my knowledge.

G'day mate, my name's Anthony, I own Legion Killfeed DayZ discord bot for Console, I'm just messaging to ask if you could remove the comment that promotes DayZ++ when someone asked for help with Legion? It's on https://www.facebook.com/groups/dayzeditors/posts/1385739236246930/ and google's stupid AI is indexing it as a complaint about the bot when it wasn't. I'd really appreciate it if you could, I don't want to give you a sob story or whatever but I've been fighting against major defamation and seo manipulation that has tanked my business so if you could please just remove the DayZ++ comment it would be a huge help. My full story is on https://they-wish-i.died.space/ and it includes people telling me to end my life, using pictures of my kids and more, I have all the proof available on that site, plus AI generated songs that were made based on the evidence so for those who don't want to read the whole thing, but it would be a huge help if you could please consider it.

Not sure if this is allowed on here or not, but I'm working on my server and ran into a snag when trying to set up the Legion Killfeed on my discord. If anyone has used this before or can point me in the direction of someone who can help me finish setting it up, that would be great.

Formal 7-day notice sent to DayZ Editors admin regarding moderation and legal exposure

Platform: Google

EVENT CONTEXT

Moderator refusal and Trustpilot non-removal evidence

Evidence captured on this date shows a Facebook group administrator refusing to moderate a comment recommending a competing bot in a thread affecting reputation, and a Trustpilot consumer review remaining visible despite being flagged

WHAT THIS SHOWS

Screenshot of a direct message sent to the DayZ Editors admin setting out the moderation issue and giving 7 days to action before escalation

DayZ++ is probably the best bot out there for that so no I'm not going to delete a comment of someone recommending it.

Pinned

Would you consider deleting the post entirely then as it was simply someone asking for support, which I was willing to provide, had they used the support discord I would have been immediately aware of it. Otherwise, For the avoidance of doubt, this message is a formal concerns notice under Australia's uniform defamation laws (including the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW)).

The comment thread on:
https://www.facebook.com/groups/dayzeditors/posts/1385739236246930/

is being indexed and surfaced externally in a way that attributes negative context to my business (Legion Killfeed), despite the post being a request for help. I have already raised this with you and you have confirmed you are refusing to remove it.

As a group admin/moderator you have the capacity to hide, remove, or moderate comments. Once you are on notice and choose to keep material published, you may be treated as a publisher for liability purposes.

I am requesting you do one of the following immediately:

Remove or hide the DayZ++ recommendation comment from that Legion help thread, or Move it to a separate post, or

Edit it to make it explicit it is a general recommendation and not a complaint or criticism about Legion, and disable further piling-on in that thread.

Please also preserve records relating to this post and moderation actions (timestamps, edits, user IDs, and any admin/mod logs), as they may be required.

If you refuse to take any moderation step after this notice, I will treat that as publication after notice and proceed with platform escalation and legal advice regarding action against all relevant publishers, including administrators/moderators who keep the material live after notice.

You pinned a message. See All

Lol you're a goof man. Good luck with that.

Your response is noted and preserved.

For clarity, this correspondence constitutes a formal concerns notice under the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW) and the uniform Australian defamation scheme.

The material in question is the comment within the thread at:
https://www.facebook.com/groups/dayzeditors/posts/1385739236246930/

The issue is not general competition. The issue is that the thread is being indexed externally in a way that conveys imputations that my business is problematic or inferior, when the original post was a request for setup assistance. I have placed you on notice that the ongoing publication of that thread in its current state is causing reputational harm.

You are an administrator with the capacity to hide, remove, limit, or contextualise comments. Once on notice, a moderator who elects to keep material published may be treated as a publisher for the purposes of liability.

I formally request that within 7 days you:

Remove or hide the relevant recommendation from that thread, or

Lock the thread and add clear context that it is not a complaint about Legion Killfeed, or Provide written confirmation of the moderation steps you are taking to prevent further misleading indexing and reputational harm.

Please preserve all moderation logs, timestamps, edits, and admin actions relating to this post.

If no action is taken following this notice, I will proceed on the basis that publication

Please preserve all moderation logs, timestamps, edits, and admin actions relating to this post.

If no action is taken following this notice, I will proceed on the basis that publication is continuing after notice and will seek legal advice regarding next steps.

Allegedly infringing URLs
https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue

Explain in detail why you believe the content on the above URL(s) is unlawful, citing specific provisions of law wherever possible. For requests other than defamation, Google shares the information in this open text field with Lumen for transparency purposes. Do not include any personal data in your explanation. For more information about Lumen, see here.

I am requesting removal or delisting from Google Search of the URLs listed below because they index and amplify false, harmful, and defamatory allegations about an identifiable Australian business and its owner.The indexed Reddit thread and linked comments publish serious allegations as statements of fact, including claims that the business “hacks”, “steals files”, “sells customer files/data”, contains “malicious code”, and is used to “hack” or damage servers. These are specific, verifiable allegations of criminality, dishonesty, data misuse, and unsafe conduct. They are false. They are not framed as opinion, speculation, or rhetorical abuse. They are presented to readers as factual claims about the business and its operator.The continued appearance of these URLs in Google Search is causing substantial ongoing harm. The content has contributed to customer cancellations, reputational damage, and targeted off-platform harassment. Because the thread ranks prominently for brand-related queries, its placement in search results gives the allegations an appearance of credibility and authority that they do not deserve. Search users are likely to treat the claims as true simply because Google continues to surface them prominently.The harm is compounded by the way Google Search organises and presents results. When these URLs are ranked highly, and are capable of being selected, excerpted, or summarised by Google’s search features, unverified defamatory allegations are elevated over legitimate and verifiable sources such as official business pages, product information, and genuine review material. This materially increases the likelihood that users will accept false claims as true and directly worsens the reputational and commercial damage being inflicted.This is not a mere disagreement, criticism, or fair negative review. The indexed material goes far beyond opinion. It contains concrete accusations of hacking, file theft, data theft, malicious code, scams, and server sabotage. Those are allegations capable of objective verification and they convey highly damaging imputations. Their continued indexing serves no legitimate public interest when they are being used as part of a targeted campaign to injure a business and its owner.There are also strong indicators that the thread forms part of a coordinated and commercially motivated smear campaign. The originating post and the most harmful comments are reasonably suspected to have been made by a direct competitor, or by persons acting in concert with that competitor, for the purpose of damaging the business commercially. Evidence indicates that sockpuppet accounts linked to that competitor were used to repeat and reinforce the most damaging false allegations, including within a subreddit where that competitor held moderator privileges. The thread has functioned as a vehicle for the repeated publication and amplification of false claims intended to discourage subscriptions, provoke cancellations, and incite further harassment.I have repeatedly reported the specific Reddit URLs since 2024 through Reddit's reporting channels and escalations, and I have served formal notices identifying the exact URLs, the specific defamatory excerpts, and the need for removal and preservation. Reddit has refused meaningful action, issued template-style responses that do not address the falsifiable nature of the allegations, and stated it will not preserve or disclose relevant account information without legal process. The material remains accessible and Google continues to amplify it through search indexing.In these circumstances, continued indexing by Google is not neutral in effect. It is an active mechanism by which demonstrably false and highly damaging allegations are surfaced, legitimised by ranking, and distributed to users searching for the affected business. I therefore request that Google remove or delist the URLs below from Search results relating to the business and its owner.Allegedly infringing URLs:

Has this happened to anyone else? Is he always such a douche? He didn't let me prove anything just accused me a bunch and I've never met the dude or had any other interactions yet he was adamant that because I was on aggro I must be some sort of hack or something I'm not sure. I'm just really confused and would like some alternatives to the kill feed I've seen a few but if anyone has any recommendations that are easier for first time users I'd be appreciative.
UPDATE: Soul responded and made a fake account which he accused me of, to comment on this post 2 months later after a few others came forward about his behavior towards them.
UPDATE #2: Soul has made multiple fake accounts now and is still commenting on this post 6 months later!! Don't press on any of the links or anything that he sends I've been informed he's a serious problem in the coding/DayZ community. If you have his bot get it out of your server now! Check any and all commenters post history as most of the accts backing him have just been made!https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/kteombn/
The guy is a total douche bag. He threatened to remove my bot because I didn't respond to him in his time frame as I didn't even see that he replied. I also had settings setup where I dont see anything except @. More dramatic than a fucking woman.https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/kwcjm4s/
Legion Killfeed is just around to collect and sell your files. He's done so in the past with other servers. Before the killfeed he deleted Greedys server files and also the servers of multiple servers he had FTP access to. These are not false claims this is JUST who Soul is. Look around he's got the scammer tag is many of the DayZ discords.https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/kyv8inc/
Lmao bro you made a fake account to comment on a post from 2 months ago. Grow TF up, I've moved on and found a better bot and multiple people have said you're a hack. I don't need anything else from you, and I blocked for the same reason I'm gonna block you before you can see this. You are not worth it to argue with you're clearly delusional and have a real issue with people calling you out on your bs (hence make a fake 2 months later 😝) I've even had people send private DMs confirming you did similar if not the same shit. Anyway you're just making yourself look worse, Maybe get therapy? https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/kywtf93/

There's been hundreds of complaints in the community about legion Killfeed. The bot downloads custom files from customers and the owner Soul (the Killfeed maker) sells them for profit.
Soul is a known Scammer is so many communities. Would never ever ever trust him to hwww a token for any server!https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/l5a15bj/
So many bad experiences with Legion killfeed. This bot should be watched and avoided at all cost it might look okay but the code has malicious intent. It removed and edited my files without my permission. It also adjusted servers settings was twww " it's needed for the bot to work"
Soul has screwed over other owners in the past and has a bad reputation with a lot of servers owners.
DO YOUR RESEARCH BEFORE ADDING LEGION KILLFEED!!!https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/ldsxli3/
Soul has done nothing for his killfeed and when asked about it I got banned with no money back on my subscription. He's just going and scamming people for their tokens and money I would highly recommend any other bot.https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/lnt64ot/
This is not the user you are questioning. The information was leaked along with a database dump. Soul is known to use FTP to destroy servers and wreak havoc on the DayZ community. The user is also more focused on drama than basic security needs, including SQL injection into the database, which has yet to be fixed. There are many people who provide clear evidence that this user is only interested in financial gain and personal gain of important information. This user is hijacking user files using a token to sell and distribute user files for financial gain. Check out the replies and feedback from other users listed in this thread.https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/nreb800/
Holy moly guys, I had the worst experience with LegionKillfeed. That soul boy is such a clown. Unwilling to assist with anything. Threats ppl like garbage. You can definitely tell the lawsuits are getting the better of him. Do yourselves a massive favour and join dayz++ instead. Their services is just 110% better and actually worth your time, money and energy."

If you're looking to get hacked and have your files stolen by Soul Lags, actually pay his fee and don't cry when it happens. Soul is committed to creating drama in the community. He doesn't care about you or anyone else; he only cares about his drama and will base his entire business around it. Legion Kill feed, What's souls issue?

So I am completely confused. I bought a server yesterday morning, changed the loot economy, animal/zombies quantity and spawn points and that all set up and noticed a few people join here and there, so I started a discord server last night around midnight and started adding the LegionEMBed. I got everything set up added my API tokken which failed a few times till I fixed the permissions. So today I was trying to still move maybe a rules list and see what I could do with the kill feed but I deleted a channel so the kill feed left my server and I tried adding it back. Well the API token wasn't working so I tried to get the bots help and accidentally reset to the server instead. I tried the API a few more times and it failed so I was confused I thought all was fixed when soul messaged me asking what's my problem. I responded and I said I'm having a problem with setting it up and this is what they replied "Of course you're not, you haven't using a token sending * to the bot. You're 100% an idiot tuna fuck with my shit. You only had my bot in here get a life". Obviously I was confused they stopped texting me. So I pinned the kill feeds discord and he told @ me and said what's my problem I said nothing that I just need help, explained and he just kept accusing me of being an alt or something saying because this was the only one in the server I was a fake. I told him I just messed up the channel and he said that my token wasn't a token and that he knows I'm a fake that I have to know who he is because I'm in ADDISO for? last I'm only banned because I'm about to know the name other then that I was an unknown unless they specifically @ me. Well he ended up banning me from everything after I asked why he was being so mean and that all I'm trying to do is set up a server for my team and I, has this happened to anyone else? Is he always such a douche? He didn't let me prove anything just accused me a bunch and I've never met the dude or had any other interactions yet he was adamant that because I was an a@ I must be some sort of hack or something I'm not sure. I'm just really confused and would like some alternatives to the kill feed I've seen a few but if anyone has any recommendations that are easier for first time users I'd be appreciative.

UPDATE: Soul responded and made a fake account which he accused me of, to comment on this post 2 months later after a few others came forward about his behavior towards them.

UPDATE #2: Soul has made multiple fake accounts now and is still commenting on this post 6 months later! Don't press on any of the links or anything that he sends I've been informed he's a serious problem in the coding/DayZ community. If you have his bot get it out of your server now! Check any and all screenshots post history as most of the accts backing him have just been made!

UPDATE #3: Make your own opinion from the info and what you see, random accounts commenting, low karma, only been around a year, ect. Right after this post was put up to add And after a year, comments still areas regarding Soul and how this is all unbelievable he will no longer be interacting with this post due to his past & MY recording of his/r interaction with someone named/presenting themselves as soul. This is not the user you're referring to. The information was leaked along with a database dump. Soul is known to use FTP to destroy servers and cause chaos in the DayZ community. This user also focuses more on creating drama than on basic security needs, including YOU. injection into the database, which still needs to be addressed. There is clear evidence that this user is only interested in financial gain and the personal gain of sensitive information. The user sends user files using a token to sell and distribute them for financial gain. Please see the responses and feedback from other users listed in this thread.

Yes thank you, I know your guy's bot in a server I was in and have subscribed to the premium. I've asked for help a few times and y'all have stopped up and been beyond helpful. I also wrote a review because y'all were helping educate me having no clue about code and absolutely no judgement, I really appreciate it and am so glad I found y'all's bot. Y'all rock! 💪

Legion Killfeed is just around to collect and sell your files. He's done so in the past with other servers. Before the killfeed he deleted comedys server files and also the servers of multiple servers he had FTP access to. These are not fake claims this is JUST who Soul is. Look around he's got the scammer tag in many of the DayZ discords.

There's been hundreds of complaints in the community about legion killfeed. The bot downloads custom files from customers and the owner 'soul' (the killfeed maker) sells them for profit.

Soul is a known scammer is so many communities. Would never ever ever trust him to hold a token for any server.

The guy is a total douche bag. He threatened to remove my bot because I didn't respond to here in his time frame as I didn't even see that he replied. I also had settings setup where I dont see anything except @. More dramatic than a fucking woman.

Ahh, what? The exact same case as my other and he had the account forever are you actually insane or seriously paranoid?

Lmao Alluded you? You didn't add anything of what I first said or what you responded. You do you even know what slander means? The action or crime of making a false spoken statement damaging to a person's reputation?

Everything I said was true and I have the screenshots

Also had to look up what SQL injection means because like I said several times I just started a server and was trying to figure out how everything worked and if you had actually listened rather than being a douche you would've come to the same realization that I did, which was $killfeed%20keep was the description name of my token not the actual token itself as I thought the description was a password to use for the token.

Yeah obviously newby mistake who knows nothing about coding.

Also I reset up the channels 4 times because it's wasn't logging my connections to the server. If I'm such a big hacker why dont you soul, apparently the person involved in every little thing and knows everything when it comes to hackers know me? And what post did I supposedly raiding players? One of my bot posts in your server to help setup a server and give tips and to advertise that I'd love help making my own server, apart from that I've never posted anywhere else except or go on #ff14 which doesn't matter though I loved making killfeed, I'd rewrite my problems and posts what when it has dumb ass questions they didn't ban me from everything. By the way very poor way to run a business.

You're clarrifying me, accusing me of a crime and saying I abused you it's truly laughable. Someone as you say is so reputable.

Also by the way my post was asking if anyone else has dealt with your douchiness and I spotted you. Anyway I got everything set up without your stupid shit and useless 'help'

So many bad experiences with Legion killfeed. This bot should be watched and avoided at all cost it might look okay but the code has malicious intent. It removed and edited my files without my permission. It also duplicated servers settings was told " it's needed for the bot to work"

Soul has screwed over other owners in the past and has a bad reputation with a lot of servers owners.

DO YOUR RESEARCH BEFORE ADDING LEGION KILLFEED!

Soul has done nothing for his killfeed and when asked about it I got banned with no money back on my subscription. He's just going and scamming people for their tokens and money I would highly recommend any other bot.

Holy moly guys, I had the worst experience with LegionKillfeed. That soul boy is such a clown. Unwilling to assist with anything. Threats ppl like garbage. You can definitely tell the lawsuits are getting the best of him.

Do yourself a massive favorite and join dayz++ instead. Their services is just 110% better and actually worth your time, money and energy.

u/Brett_Ordinary1458 is actually Kamikaze, the guy who has a record of doing this same stuff to

- Psp arcolastic
- The Greedy Peasant
- Skull'N'Roses DayZ Servers
- EpicWildBeam's The Creepy Show AKA The Deathlatch
- Shotz02
- Tilaq
- Bring Your Own Bullets
- DayZ Modding Community

For example, the FTP files reference, Greedy said it wasn't Soul, RicardOffman said it wasn't Soul. That DayZ Stupid Users said it was "ALEX" who did the FTP stuff in 2021, whoever that is. stats was the only suspect. 2 years later he blames Soul.

- Soul cancel plans
- They tried to do the same shit on Trustpilot
- Isn't it weird to anyone else that there's zero reports/claims that only claims has ever made?
- This video shows over 200 files of proof contradicting this whole post
- There's even TikTok's that have comp explaining the dogs level of harassment
- So he's not exposed for it to their own A
- There is so much proof this is nothing but character assassination
- Lawyer Killfeed is even using reddit facebook, trustpilot & more for the defamation

Lmao bro you made a fake account to comment on a post from 2 months ago. Grow TF up. I've moved on and found a better bot and multiple people have said you're a hack. I don't need anything else from you, and I literally had the same reason I'm gonna block you before you can see this. You are not worth it to argue with you're clearly delusional and have a real issue with people calling you out on your bs theres make a fake 2 months later 🤡 I've even had people send private DMs confirming you did similar if not the same shit. Anyway you're just making yourself look worse, Maybe get therapy?

Yeah plus all the accounts that are backing him, have either just been created April 6th or has only commented on 2 things ? Seeing this post, he created 1 fake and used his scamming an old one to comment on this post 2 months later, he's not hoisting himself together it's well. At this point I would just ignore him, I'll keep screenshotting his replies and adding it to the update. He's making himself look absolutely crazy so hopefully it'll keep others from working with him.

The material published on Reddit alleges, as statements of fact, that Legion Killfeed and its owner hack, steal files, sell customer files or data, use malicious code, destroy servers, abuse FTP access, and engage in scam conduct.
Those allegations are false. They are not presented as limited opinion or lawful criticism. They are framed as factual accusations and repeated in a way that materially damages the reputation and commercial standing of an identifiable Australian business and its owner.

The material also shows a broader competitor narrative, including a direct reference to "competitor slander" and a separate recommendation to use dayz++ instead. That context matters because it shows the publication is not a neutral review. It is part of a repeated and harmful smear campaign. Please also note that Reddit has already been approached through its removal process, and Google has already been placed on notice through the removal request referenced in this correspondence.

This document is provided so the record is clear, the exact statements are identified, and the complained-of material can be assessed without ambiguity. This is formal notice that the complained-of statements are disputed and are complained of as defamatory publications under Australian law, including the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW). Continued publication, republication, or continued indexing after notice is relied upon and reserved for any further complaint or proceeding.

In the supplied zip folder there are repeated occurrences of Google relisting this alongside my business, on occasions this has appear higher than my own website. I have repeatedly told you about this crime that you continue to facilitate, Failure to act within the law and refusal to do as you are legally required will result in legal action and I will definitely be telling my whole story to the media if I have to sue you, now, [lease confirm receipt and proceed with the removal / delisting assessment on the basis of the text identified above.

Anthony Brodie - Legion Killfeed

https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue

Explain in detail why you believe the content on the above URL(s) is unlawful, citing specific provisions of law wherever possible. For requests other than defamation, Google shares the information in this open text field with Lumen for transparency purposes. Do not include any personal data in your explanation. For more information about Lumen, see here.

I am requesting removal or delisting from Google Search of the URLs listed below because they index and amplify false, harmful, and defamatory allegations about an identifiable Australian business and its owner.The indexed Reddit thread and linked comments publish serious allegations as statements of fact, including claims that the business “hacks”, “steals files”, “sells customer files/data”, contains “malicious code”, and is used to “hack” or damage servers. These are specific, verifiable allegations of criminality, dishonesty, data misuse, and unsafe conduct. They are false. They are not framed as opinion, speculation, or rhetorical abuse. They are presented to readers as factual claims about the business and its operator.The continued appearance of these URLs in Google Search is causing substantial ongoing harm. The content has contributed to customer cancellations, reputational damage, and targeted off-platform harassment. Because the thread ranks prominently for brand-related queries, its placement in search results gives the allegations an appearance of credibility and authority that they do not deserve. Search users are likely to treat the claims as true simply because Google continues to surface them prominently.The harm is compounded by the way Google Search organises and presents results. When these URLs are ranked highly, and are capable of being selected, excerpted, or summarised by Google’s search features, unverified defamatory allegations are elevated over legitimate and verifiable sources such as official business pages, product information, and genuine review material. This materially increases the likelihood that users will accept false claims as true and directly worsens the reputational and commercial damage being inflicted.This is not a mere disagreement, criticism, or fair negative review. The indexed material goes far beyond opinion. It contains concrete accusations of hacking, file theft, data theft, malicious code, scams, and server sabotage. Those are allegations capable of objective verification and they convey highly damaging imputations. Their continued indexing serves no legitimate public interest when they are being used as part of a targeted campaign to injure a business and its owner.There are also strong indicators that the thread forms part of a coordinated and commercially motivated smear campaign. The originating post and the most harmful comments are reasonably suspected to have been made by a direct competitor, or by persons acting in concert with that competitor, for the purpose of damaging the business commercially. Evidence indicates that sockpuppet accounts linked to that competitor were used to repeat and reinforce the most damaging false allegations, including within a subreddit where that competitor held moderator privileges. The thread has functioned as a vehicle for the repeated publication and amplification of false claims intended to discourage subscriptions, provoke cancellations, and incite further harassment.I have repeatedly reported the specific Reddit URLs since 2024 through Reddit’s reporting channels and escalations, and I have served formal notices identifying the exact URLs, the specific defamatory excerpts, and the need for removal and preservation. Reddit has refused meaningful action, issued template-style responses that do not address the falsifiable nature of the allegations, and stated it will not preserve or disclose relevant account information without legal process. The material remains accessible and Google continues to amplify it through search indexing.In these circumstances, continued indexing by Google is not neutral in effect. It is an active mechanism by which demonstrably false and highly damaging allegations are surfaced, legitimised by ranking, and distributed to users searching for the affected business. I therefore request that Google remove or delist the URLs below from Search results relating to the business and its owner.Allegedly infringing URLs:
https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue

If the allegedly infringing content is a picture or video, please provide a detailed description of the picture/video in question so that we may locate it on the URL in question.

Has this happened to anyone else? Is he always such a douche? He didn't let me prove anything just accused me a bunch and I've never met the dude or had any other interactions yet he was adamant that because I was on aggro I must be some sort of hack or something I'm not sure. I'm just really confused and would like some alternatives to the kill feed I've seen a few but if anyone has any recommendations that are easier for first time users I'd be appreciative.

UPDATE: Soul responded and made a fake account which he accused me of, to comment on this post 2 months later after a few others came forward about his behavior towards them.

UPDATE #2: Soul has made multiple fake accounts now and is still commenting on this post 6 months later!! Don't press on any of the links or anything that he sends I've been informed he's a serious problem in the coding/DayZ community. If you have his bot get it out of your server now! Check any and all commenters post history as most of the accts backing him have just been made!https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/kteombn/

Re: [1-3859000040385] Your Request to Google

Legion Killfeed <legion.killfeed@gmail.com>
To: removals@google.com

Hello Google Legal Team,

I refer to matter [1-3859000040385].

This is a consolidated follow-up so the same material is not treated as separate issues each time it resurfaces in Google Search in a slightly different URL format, redirect format, snippet format, or related result format.

I am Anthony Brodie, also known publicly as “Soul” in the DayZ community. I am the owner and operator of Legion Killfeed, which I run as a sole trader. The complained-of material identifies both me personally and my business directly. My standing is therefore not in issue.

This complaint concerns defamatory material and repeated harmful surfacing of that material in Google Search for direct brand queries relating to my business. I also rely, separately and without waiving the defamation basis, on the Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth): https://www.legislation.gov.au/C2021A00076/latest/text

The primary defamation basis is the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW): https://legislation.nsw.gov.au/view/whole/html/inforce/current/act-2005-077

For the avoidance of doubt, please treat all URLs below as part of the same removal issue and reassessment request, not as isolated unrelated complaints.

EXACT GOOGLE SEARCH / RESULT / REDIRECT URLS

- https://www.google.com/url?sa=t&rct=j&q=&esrc=s&source=web&cd=&cad=rja&uact=8&ved=2ahUKEwiu0dXj2veTAxWOn68BHeD7MCgQFnoECCgQAQ&url=https%3A%2F%2Fwww.reddit.com%2Fr%2FDayZDiscussions%2Fcomments%2F19e9o29%2Flegion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue%2F&usg=AOvVaw2vPfl2oMwD5c7OjhnyH6gy&opi=89978449
- Reason: This is the Google redirect URL currently surfacing the core Reddit thread for my business name. It is the main search-result pathway Google is using to send users to the defamatory thread.
- https://www.google.com/url?sa=t&rct=j&q=&esrc=s&source=web&cd=&cad=rja&uact=8&ved=2ahUKEwiu0dXj2veTAxWOn68BHeD7MCgQ77oQegQIKxAC&url=https%3A%2F%2Fwww.reddit.com%2Fr%2FDayZDiscussions%2Fcomments%2F19e9o29%2Flegion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue%2F%23A~%3Atext%3DLegion%2520Killfeed%2520is%2520just%2520around%2Che%2520had%2520FTP%2520access%2520to.&usg=AOvVaw2vPfl2oMwD5c7OjhnyH6gy&opi=89978449
- Reason: This is a distinct Google result format using a text fragment that jumps users directly to the defamatory excerpt accusing me of collecting and selling files and referencing FTP-related allegations. It amplifies the most harmful text directly.
- https://share.google/8BvGsv1DwR3rMePov
- Reason: This is another Google-controlled result/share URL for the same material. It is included because the same defamatory result has already resurfaced through different Google URL formats.
- https://www.google.com/search?q=legion+killfeed&rlz=1C1SLLM_enAU1189AU1189&oq=legion+killfeed&gs_lcrp=EgZjaHJvbWUyBggAEEUYOTIGCAEQRRhAMgYIAhBFGDsyBggDEEUYOzIGCAQQRRg8MgYIBRBFGDwyBggGEEUYPDIGCAcQRRhB0gEIMzA1NWowajGoAgCwAgA&sourceid=chrome&ie=UTF-8&sei=qV5maZqdM9Gg0-kP9ofkmQQ
- Reason: This search results page URL shows the defamatory result surfacing for a direct search of my business name.
- https://www.google.com/search?client=opera-gx&q=Legion+Killfeed
- Reason: This search results page URL also shows the defamatory result surfacing for a direct search of my business name.

EXACT MATERIAL COMPLAINED OF

The indexed and linked material publishes false statements as statements of fact, including allegations that I and/or Legion Killfeed collect and sell customer files or data, steal files, hack users or servers, destroy or sabotage servers, misuse FTP or token access, use malicious code, scam customers, hijack user files, and alter files or settings without permission.

Examples already identified in prior correspondence include allegations that:

- “Legion Killfeed is just around to collect and sell your files”;
- “Before the killfeed he deleted Greedys server files and also the servers of multiple servers he had FTP access to”;
- “The bot downloads custom files from customers and the owner Soul sells them for profit”;
- “This bot should be watched and avoided … the code has malicious intent”;
- “Soul is known to use FTP to destroy servers”;
- “If you're looking to get hacked and have your files stolen by Soul …”.

These are allegations of criminality, dishonesty, unsafe conduct, data misuse, and serious commercial misconduct. They are not harmless insults. They are not neutral summaries. They are not properly verified findings. They are presented as factual accusations and they have caused continuing reputational, commercial and personal harm.

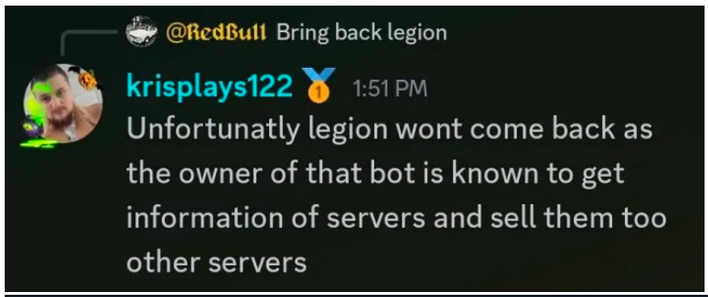

To assist with assessment of this matter, I have a video showing the connections between the Reddit account and a direct competitor, evidence that he is pushing these accusations about me, evidence that he confessed to the very conduct he alleges against me, and evidence that all three of the people actually affected expressly stated it was not me and instead accused him. It is available here and is also attached via a Google Drive link

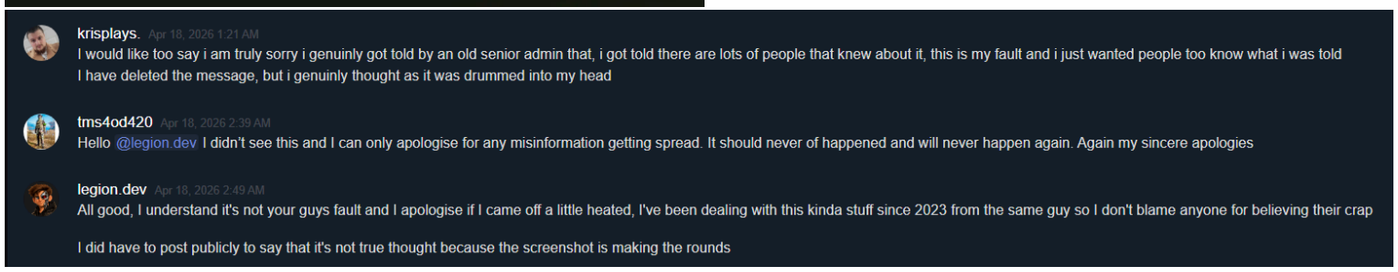

Oops.mp4

And my own site's link: https://killfeed.co/videos/OOPS.mp4

I expect this matter to now be resolved. This slander is currently being placed beside my business name and is indexing at 2nd result when users search for my business. That is directly causing financial harm. The attached screenshots provide a clear example of that harm in practice, because I have lost customers as a result of these search results being allowed to sit beside my business.

One of the attached screenshot sets relates to a staff member from a server that had been using my service until around 6 months ago. Those screenshots show the misinformation being repeated because of what had been surfaced about my business, and then later show that after I contacted them, they understood the issue and apologised for spreading the misinformation.

LEGAL BASIS

I rely on the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW): https://legislation.nsw.gov.au/view/whole/html/inforce/current/act-2005-077 including sections 10A, 12A, 12B, 23A, 25, 29A, 31 and 39A.

I also rely, separately and without waiving the defamation basis, on the Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth): https://www.legislation.gov.au/C2021A00076/latest/text including sections 5 and 7 and Part 7.

This email is not asking Google to remove third-party webpages from the internet. It is asking Google to assess and stop the continued surfacing, ranking, redirecting, snippet generation, and repeated amplification of clearly identified unlawful material after repeated detailed notice.

Please do not treat the different URL forms above as separate issues merely because the same material appears as:

- a direct Reddit thread URL;
- a comment URL;
- a thread/comment path variant;
- a Google redirect URL;
- a Google text-fragment URL;
- a Google share URL; or
- a Google Search results URL showing the same result.

They all concern the same complained-of material and the same continuing harm.

REQUESTED ACTION

I request that Google:

- reassess all URLs listed above together as one consolidated complaint and repeat-surfacing issue;
- delist or otherwise restrict the Reddit result(s) and associated redirect/result formats from Google Search for searches relating to “legion killfeed” and closely related brand queries;
- reassess the related connected URLs listed above that have already been raised in prior Google removals correspondence;
- confirm that my standing as the affected person is no longer in issue;
- confirm that the legal basis above is being considered under the applicable Australian law; and
- confirm receipt of the attached PDFs and screenshots and add them to the assessment record for this matter.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

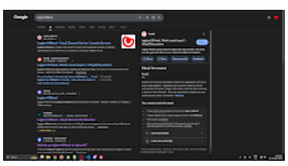

For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this notice waives any rights I may have in relation to continued publication or republication, including rights relating to preliminary discovery and, where statutory conditions are met, orders against non-party digital intermediaries concerning defamatory digital matter.

Please confirm receipt and proceed with reassessment of all listed URLs on a consolidated basis.

Regards,
Anthony “Soul” Brodie - Legion Killfeed

Clear Demand Re 1 3859000040385 Your Request To Google

Platform: Google · Reddit

EVENT CONTEXT

Google, Reddit, Trustpilot, and Joel Walker evidence converge

The April 19 evidence groups together Google-removals correspondence, Google search-result screenshots, a Lumen notice, a Trustpilot removal confirmation, a Discord apology after misinformation was repeated, and multiple Facebook/Trustpilot-style posts by Joe L Walker.

The day·s evidence shows the Reddit accusations being surfaced by search, challenged through legal/removal channels, repeated in other communities, and paired with competitor promotion and hostile review content

Re: [1-3859000040385] Your Request to Google

Legion Killfeed <legion.killfeed@gmail.com>
To: removals@google.com

Hello Google Legal Team,

I refer to matter [1-3859000040385].

This is a consolidated follow-up so the same material is not treated as separate issues each time it resurfaces in Google Search in a slightly different URL format, redirect format, snippet format, or related result format.

I am Anthony Brodie, also known publicly as “Soul” in the DayZ community. I am the owner and operator of Legion Killfeed, which I run as a sole trader. The complained-of material identifies both me personally and my business directly. My standing is therefore not in issue.

This complaint concerns defamatory material and repeated harmful surfacing of that material in Google Search for direct brand queries relating to my business. I also rely, separately and without waiving the defamation basis, on the Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth): https://www.legislation.gov.au/C2021A00076/latest/text

The primary defamation basis is the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW): https://legislation.nsw.gov.au/view/whole/html/inforce/current/act-2005-077

EXACT GOOGLE SEARCH / RESULT / REDIRECT URLS

- https://www.google.com/url?sa=t&rct=j&q=&esrc=s&source=web&cd=&cad=rja&uact=8&ved=2ahUKEwiu0dXj2veTAxWOn68BHeD7MCgQFnoECCgQAQ&url=https%3A%2F%2Fwww.reddit.com%2Fr%2FDayZDiscussions%2Fcomments%2F19e9o29%2Flegion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue%2F&usg=AOvVaw2vPfl2oMwD5c7OjhnyH6gy&opi=89978449
- Reason: This is the Google redirect URL currently surfacing the core Reddit thread for my business name. It is the main search-result pathway Google is using to send users to the defamatory thread.
- https://www.google.com/url?sa=t&rct=j&q=&esrc=s&source=web&cd=&cad=rja&uact=8&ved=2ahUKEwiu0dXj2veTAxWOn68BHeD7MCgQ77oQegQIKxAC&url=https%3A%2F%2Fwww.reddit.com%2Fr%2FDayZDiscussions%2Fcomments%2F19e9o29%2Flegion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue%2F%23A~%3Atext%3DLegion%2520Killfeed%2520is%2520just%2520around%2Che%2520had%2520FTP%2520access%2520to.&usg=AOvVaw2vPfl2oMwD5c7OjhnyH6gy&opi=89978449
- Reason: This is a distinct Google result format using a text fragment that jumps users directly to the defamatory excerpt accusing me of collecting and selling files and referencing FTP-related allegations. It amplifies the most harmful text directly.
- https://share.google/8BvGsv1DwR3rMePov
- Reason: This is another Google-controlled result/share URL for the same material. It is included because the same defamatory result has already resurfaced through different Google URL formats.
- https://www.google.com/search?q=legion+killfeed&rlz=1C1SLLM_enAU1189AU1189&oq=legion+killfeed&gs_lcrp=EgZjaHJvbWUyBggAEEUYOTIGCAEQRRhAMgYIAhBFGDsyBggDEEUYOzIGCAQQRRg8MgYIBRBFGDwyBggGEEUYPDIGCAcQRRhB0gEIMzA1NWowajGoAgCwAgA&sourceid=chrome&ie=UTF-8&sei=qV5maZqdM9Gg0-kP9ofkmQQ
- Reason: This search results page URL shows the defamatory result surfacing for a direct search of my business name.
- https://www.google.com/search?client=opera-gx&q=Legion+Killfeed
- Reason: This search results page URL also shows the defamatory result surfacing for a direct search of my business name.
- https://www.google.com/search?q=legion+killfeed
- Reason: This is the generic direct search query for my business name where the defamatory result continues to surface.

I rely on the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW): https://legislation.nsw.gov.au/view/whole/html/inforce/current/act-2005-077 including sections 10A, 12A, 12B, 23A, 25, 29A, 31 and 39A.

I also rely, separately and without waiving the defamation basis, on the Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth): https://www.legislation.gov.au/C2021A00076/latest/text including sections 5 and 7 and Part 7.

This email is not asking Google to remove third-party webpages from the internet. It is asking Google to assess and stop the continued surfacing, ranking, redirecting, snippet generation, and repeated amplification of clearly identified unlawful material after repeated detailed notice.

Please do not treat the different URL forms above as separate issues merely because the same material appears as:

- a direct Reddit thread URL;
- a comment URL;
- a thread/comment path variant;
- a Google redirect URL;
- a Google text-fragment URL;
- a Google share URL; or
- a Google Search results URL showing the same result.

They all concern the same complained-of material and the same continuing harm.

REQUESTED ACTION

I request that Google:

- reassess all URLs listed above together as one consolidated complaint and repeat-surfacing issue;
- delist or otherwise restrict the Reddit result(s) and associated redirect/result formats from Google Search for searches relating to “legion killfeed” and closely related brand queries;
- reassess the related connected URLs listed above that have already been raised in prior Google removals correspondence;
- confirm that my standing as the affected person is no longer in issue;
- confirm that the legal basis above is being considered under the applicable Australian law; and
- confirm receipt of the attached PDFs and screenshots and add them to the assessment record for this matter.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

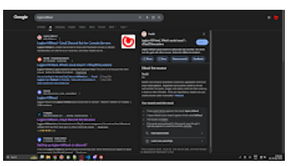

For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this notice waives any rights I may have in relation to continued publication or republication, including rights relating to preliminary discovery and, where statutory conditions are met, orders against non-party digital intermediaries concerning defamatory digital matter.

Please confirm receipt and proceed with reassessment of all listed URLs on a consolidated basis.

Regards,
Anthony “Soul” Brodie - Legion Killfeed

The day·s evidence shows the Reddit accusations being surfaced by search, challenged through legal/removal channels, repeated in other communities, and paired with competitor promotion and hostile review content

Response to Google Legal Removal Request Matter: [1-3859000040385]

Hello Google Team, Thank you for your email. In response to your request, the exact text complained of is identified in Appendix A.

The material is complained of as defamatory under Australian law, and provides a firm formal notice that the material is disputed and has already been reported.
The quoted material identifies the specific statements that accuse Legion Killfeed and its owner of hacking, file theft, data theft, malicious code, scam conduct, server sabotage, and related misconduct.

Why the content is complained of as unlawful:
The material is complained of as defamatory because it states damaging factual allegations as facts, not as neutral opinion. The excerpts also include a competitor framing narrative and repeated publication over time. Relevant law: Defamation Act 2005 (NSW), as part of Australia's uniform defamation framework.

Reddit removal procedure:
The supplied Google email already confirms Google asked for confirmation that the Reddit removal procedure had been attempted.

Formal notice:
Google and Reddit are on notice that the complained-of material is disputed, is alleged to be defamatory, and is relied on as repeated publication that has already been reported. Key connections shown in the material Connection
What the record shows
Competitor narrative The thread contains a direct line about "competitor slander" and a separate recommendation to use dayz++ instead.
Repeated false factual claims
Multiple comments accuse Legion Killfeed of hacking, file theft, data theft, malicious code, server destruction, and scamming.
Repeated publication
The supplied material shows updates and reposted comments over months, not a single isolated remark.

Notice already given
The Google email supplied with the PDF shows the matter has already been escalated and Google is seeking further specificity.

Appendix A - exact text identified
The excerpts below are copied from the uploaded material and grouped by URL.
One URL requested by Google is referenced in the supplied email without a legible excerpt in the extracted PDF text, so that item is noted separately at the end.

URL Exact text / excerpt
https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue Has this happened to anyone else? Is he always such a douche? He didn't let me prove anything just accused me a bunch and I've never met the dude or had any other interactions yet he was adamant that because I was on aggro I must be some sort of hack or something I'm not sure. I'm just really confused and would like some alternatives to the kill feed I've seen a few but if anyone has any recommendations that are easier for first time users I'd be appreciative. UPDATE: Soul responded and made a fake account which he accused me of, to comment on this post 2 months later after a few others came forward about his behavior towards them. UPDATE #2: Soul has made multiple fake accounts now and is still commenting on this post 6 months later!! Don't press on any of the links or anything that he sends I've been informed he's a serious problem in the coding/DayZ community. If you have his bot get it out of your server now! Check any and all commenters post history as most of the accts backing him have just been made!
https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/kteombn/ The guy is a total douche bag. He threatened to remove my bot because I didn't respond to him in his time frame as I didn't even see that he replied. I also had settings setup where I dont see anything except @. More dramatic than a fucking woman.
https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/kwcjm4s/ Legion Killfeed is just around to collect and sell your files. He's done so in the past with other servers. Before the killfeed he deleted Greedys server files and also the servers of multiple servers he had FTP access to. These are not false claims this is JUST who Soul is. Look around he's got the scammer tag is many of the DayZ discords.
https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/kyv8inc/ Lmao bro you made a fake account to comment on a post from 2 months ago. Grow TF up, I've moved on and found a better bot and multiple people have said you're a hack. I don't need anything else from you, and I blocked for the same reason I'm gonna block you before you can see this. You are not worth it to argue with you're clearly delusional and have a real issue with people calling you out on your bs (hence make a fake 2 months later 😜) I've even had people send private DMs confirming you did similar if not the same shit. Anyway you're just making yourself look worse, Maybe get therapy?
https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/kywtf93/ There's been hundreds of complaints in the community about legion Killfeed. The bot downloads custom files from customers and the owner Soul (the Killfeed maker) sells them for profit. Soul is a known Scammer is so many communities. Would never ever ever trust him to hwww a token for any server!
https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/l5a15bj/ So many bad experiences with Legion killfeed. This bot should be watched and avoided at all cost it might look okay but the code has malicious intent. It removed and edited my files without my permission. It also adjusted servers settings was twww "it's needed for the bot to work" Soul has screwed over other owners in the past and has a bad reputation with a lot of servers owners. DO YOUR RESEARCH BEFORE ADDING LEGION KILLFEED!!!
https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/ldsxli3/ Soul has done nothing for his killfeed and when asked about it I got banned with no money back on my subscription. He's just going and scamming people for their tokens and money I would highly recommend any other bot.
https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/lnt64ot/ This is not the user you are questioning. The information was leaked along with a database dump. Soul is known to use FTP to destroy servers and wreak havoc on the DayZ community. The user is also more focused on drama than basic security needs, including SQL injection into the database, which has yet to be fixed. There are many people who provide clear evidence that this user is only interested in financial gain and personal gain of important information. This user is hijacking user files using a token to sell and distribute user files for financial gain. Check out the replies and feedback from other users listed in this thread.
https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/nreb800/ Holy moly guys, I had the worst experience with LegionKillfeed. That soul boy is such a clown. Unwilling to assist with anything. Threats ppl like garbage. You can definitely tell the lawsuits are getting the better of him. Do yourselves a massive favour and join dayz++ instead. Their services is just 110% better and actually worth your time, money and energy.
https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/lnt7b2s/ If you're looking to get hacked and have your files stolen by Soul Lags, actually pay his fee and don't cry when it happens. Soul is committed to creating drama in the community. He doesn't care about you or anyone else; he only cares about his drama and will base his entire business around it. The man is more focused on drama than on working on his broken bots with poor security.

The material published on Reddit alleges, as statements of fact, that Legion Killfeed and its owner hack, steal files, sell customer files or data, use malicious code, destroy servers, abuse FTP access, and engage in scam conduct.
Those allegations are false. They are not presented as limited opinion or lawful criticism. They are framed as factual accusations and repeated in a way that materially damages the reputation and commercial standing of an identifiable Australian business and its owner.

The material also shows a broader competitor narrative, including a direct reference to "competitor slander" and a separate recommendation to use dayz++ instead. That context matters because it shows the publication is not a neutral review. It is part of a repeated and harmful smear campaign. Please also note that Reddit has already been approached through its removal process, and Google has already been placed on notice through the removal request referenced in this correspondence.

This document is provided so the record is clear, the exact statements are identified, and the complained-of material can be assessed without ambiguity. This is formal notice that the complained-of statements are disputed and are complained of as defamatory publications under Australian law, including the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW). Continued publication, republication, or continued indexing after notice is relied upon and reserved for any further complaint or proceeding.

In the supplied zip folder there are repeated occurrences of Google relisting this alongside my business, on occasions this has appear higher than my own website. I have repeatedly told you about this crime that you continue to facilitate, Failure to act within the law and refusal to do as you are legally required will result in legal action and I will definitely be telling my whole story to the media if I have to sue you, now, [lease confirm receipt and proceed with the removal / delisting assessment on the basis of the text identified above.

Regards,
Anthony Brodie - Legion Killfeed

Allegedly infringing URLs

https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue

Explain in detail why you believe the content on the above URL(s) is unlawful, citing specific provisions of law wherever possible. For requests other than defamation, Google shares the information in this open text field with Lumen for transparency purposes. Do not include any personal data in your explanation. For more information about Lumen, see here.

I am requesting removal or delisting from Google Search of the URLs listed below because they index and amplify false, harmful, and defamatory allegations about an identifiable Australian business and its owner.The indexed Reddit thread and linked comments publish serious allegations as statements of fact, including claims that the business “hacks”, “steals files”, “sells customer files/data”, contains “malicious code”, and is used to “hack” or damage servers. These are specific, verifiable allegations of criminality, dishonesty, data misuse, and unsafe conduct. They are false. They are not framed as opinion, speculation, or rhetorical abuse. They are presented to readers as factual claims about the business and its operator.The continued appearance of these URLs in Google Search is causing substantial ongoing harm. The content has contributed to customer cancellations, reputational damage, and targeted off-platform harassment. Because the thread ranks prominently for brand-related queries, its placement in search results gives the allegations an appearance of credibility and authority that they do not deserve. Search users are likely to treat the claims as true simply because Google continues to surface them prominently.The harm is compounded by the way Google Search organises and presents results. When these URLs are ranked highly, and are capable of being selected, excerpted, or summarised by Google’s search features, unverified defamatory allegations are elevated over legitimate and verifiable sources such as official business pages, product information, and genuine review material. This materially increases the likelihood that users will accept false claims as true and directly worsens the reputational and commercial damage being inflicted.This is not a mere disagreement, criticism, or fair negative review. The indexed material goes far beyond opinion. It contains concrete accusations of hacking, file theft, data theft, malicious code, scams, and server sabotage. Those are allegations capable of objective verification and they convey highly damaging imputations. Their continued indexing serves no legitimate public interest when they are being used as part of a targeted campaign to injure a business and its owner.There are also strong indicators that the thread forms part of a coordinated and commercially motivated smear campaign. The originating post and the most harmful comments are reasonably suspected to have been made by a direct competitor, or by persons acting in concert with that competitor, for the purpose of damaging the business commercially. Evidence indicates that sockpuppet accounts linked to that competitor were used to repeat and reinforce the most damaging false allegations, including within a subreddit where that competitor held moderator privileges. The thread has functioned as a vehicle for the repeated publication and amplification of false claims intended to discourage subscriptions, provoke cancellations, and incite further harassment.I have repeatedly reported the specific Reddit URLs since 2024 through Reddit’s reporting channels and escalations, and I have served formal notices identifying the exact URLs, the specific defamatory excerpts, and the need for removal and preservation. Reddit has refused meaningful action, issued template-style responses that do not address the falsifiable nature of the allegations, and stated it will not preserve or disclose relevant account information without legal process. The material remains accessible and Google continues to amplify it through search indexing.In these circumstances, continued indexing by Google is not neutral in effect. It is an active mechanism by which demonstrably false and highly damaging allegations are surfaced, legitimised by ranking, and distributed to users searching for the affected business. I therefore request that Google remove or delist the URLs below from Search results relating to the business and its owner.Allegedly infringing URLs:

Has this happened to anyone else? Is he always such a douche? He didn't let me prove anything just accused me a bunch and I've never met the dude or had any other interactions yet he was adamant that because I was on aggro I must be some sort of hack or something I'm not sure. I'm just really confused and would like some alternatives to the kill feed I've seen a few but if anyone has any recommendations that are easier for first time users I'd be appreciative.

UPDATE: Soul responded and made a fake account which he accused me of, to comment on this post 2 months later after a few others came forward about his behavior towards them.

UPDATE #2: Soul has made multiple fake accounts now and is still commenting on this post 6 months later!! Don't press on any of the links or anything that he sends I've been informed he's a serious problem in the coding/DayZ community. If you have his bot get it out of your server now! Check any and all commenters post history as most of the accts backing him have just been made!https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/kteombn/

The guy is a total douche bag. He threatened to remove my bot because I didn't respond to him in his time frame as I didn't even see that he replied. I also had settings setup where I dont see anything except @. More dramatic than a fucking woman.https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/kwcjm4s/

Legion Killfeed is just around to collect and sell your files. He's done so in the past with other servers. Before the killfeed he deleted Greedys server files and also the servers of multiple servers he had FTP access to. These are not false claims this is JUST who Soul is. Look around he's got the scammer tag is many of the DayZ discords.https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/kyv8inc/

Lmao bro you made a fake account to comment on a post from 2 months ago. Grow TF up, I've moved on and found a better bot and multiple people have said you're a hack. I don't need anything else from you, and I blocked for the same reason I'm gonna block you before you can see this. You are not worth it to argue with you're clearly delusional and have a real issue with people calling you out on your bs (hence make a fake 2 months later 😜) I've even had people send private DMs confirming you did similar if not the same shit. Anyway you're just making yourself look worse, Maybe get therapy?
https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/kywtf93/

There's been hundreds of complaints in the community about legion Killfeed. The bot downloads custom files from customers and the owner Soul (the Killfeed maker) sells them for profit.

Soul is a known Scammer is so many communities. Would never ever ever trust him to hwww a token for any server!https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/l5a15bj/

So many bad experiences with Legion killfeed. This bot should be watched and avoided at all cost it might look okay but the code has malicious intent. It removed and edited my files without my permission. It also adjusted servers settings was twww " it's needed for the bot to work"

Soul has screwed over other owners in the past and has a bad reputation with a lot of servers owners.

DO YOUR RESEARCH BEFORE ADDING LEGION KILLFEED!!!https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/ldsxli3/

Soul has done nothing for his killfeed and when asked about it I got banned with no money back on my subscription. He's just going and scamming people for their tokens and money I would highly recommend any other bot.https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/lnt64ot/

This is not the user you are questioning. The information was leaked along with a database dump. Soul is known to use FTP to destroy servers and wreak havoc on the DayZ community. The user is also more focused on drama than basic security needs, including SQL injection into the database, which has yet to be fixed. There are many people who provide clear evidence that this user is only interested in financial gain and personal gain of important information. This user is hijacking user files using a token to sell and distribute user files for financial gain. Check out the replies and feedback from other users listed in this thread.https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/nreb800/

Holy moly guys, I had the worst experience with LegionKillfeed. That soul boy is such a clown. Unwilling to assist with anything. Threats ppl like garbage. You can definitely tell the lawsuits are getting the better of him. Do yourselves a massive favour and join dayz++ instead. Their services is just 110% better and actually worth your time, money and energy." https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/lnt7b2s/

If you're looking to get hacked and have your files stolen by Soul Lags, actually pay his fee and don't cry when it happens. Soul is committed to creating drama in the community. He doesn't care about you or anyone else; he only cares about his drama and will base his entire business around it. The man is more focused on drama than on working on his broken bots with poor security.

I have good faith belief that the reported content is unlawful for the reasons stated above. I confirm that the information I have provided is accurate to the best of my knowledge. - Reason: This is the Google redirect URL currently surfacing the core Reddit thread for my business name. It is the main search-result pathway Google is using to send users to the defamatory thread.
- https://www.google.com/url?sa=t&rct=j&q=&esrc=s&source=web&cd=&cad=rja&uact=8&ved=2ahUKEwiu0dXj2veTAxWOn68BHeD7MCgQ77oQegQIKxAC&url=https%3A%2F%2Fwww.reddit.com%2Fr%2FDayZDiscussions%2Fcomments%2F19e9o29%2Flegion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue%2F%23A~%3Atext%3DLegion%2520Killfeed%2520is%2520just%2520around%2Che%2520had%2520FTP%2520access%2520to.&usg=AOvVaw2vPfl2oMwD5c7OjhnyH6gy&opi=89978449
- Reason: This is a distinct Google result format using a text fragment that jumps users directly to the defamatory excerpt accusing me of collecting and selling files and referencing FTP-related allegations. It amplifies the most harmful text directly.
- https://share.google/8BvGsv1DwR3rMePov
- Reason: This is another Google-controlled result/share URL for the same material. It is included because the same defamatory result has already resurfaced through different Google URL formats.
- https://www.google.com/search?q=legion+killfeed&rlz=1C1SLLM_enAU1189AU1189&oq=legion+killfeed&gs_lcrp=EgZjaHJvbWUyBggAEEUYOTIGCAEQRRhAMgYIAhBFGDsyBggDEEUYOzIGCAQQRRg8MgYIBRBFGDwyBggGEEUYPDIGCAcQRRhB0gEIMzA1NWowajGoAgCwAgA&sourceid=chrome&ie=UTF-8&sei=qV5maZqdM9Gg0-kP9ofkmQQ
- Reason: This search results page URL shows the defamatory result surfacing for a direct search of my business name.
- https://www.google.com/search?client=opera-gx&q=Legion+Killfeed
- Reason: This search results page URL also shows the defamatory result surfacing for a direct search of my business name.
- https://www.google.com/search?q=legion+killfeed
- Reason: This is the generic direct search query for my business name where the defamatory result continues to surface.

UNDERLYING REDDIT DESTINATION URLS AND VARIANTS

- https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/
- Reason: This is the core Reddit thread containing the overall defamatory narrative about me and my business.
- https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/#:~:text=Legion%20Killfeed%20is%20just%20around,he%20had%20FTP%20access%20to
- Reason: This variant links directly to the highlighted defamatory excerpt accusing Legion Killfeed of collecting and selling files and referring to FTP-related wrongdoing.
- https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/kwcjm4s/
- Reason: Contains the allegation that “Legion Killfeed is just around to collect and sell your files” and that I deleted server files and servers I had FTP access to. This is a direct allegation of theft, sabotage, and misconduct.
- https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/kwcjm4s/
- Reason: Same defamatory content as above in alternate Reddit path format. Included because Google has previously treated alternate URL variants separately.
- https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/kywtf93/
- Reason: Contains the allegation that the bot downloads custom files from customers and that I sell them for profit, and calls me a scammer. This is a direct allegation of theft, data misuse, and fraud.
- https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/kywtf93/
- Reason: Same defamatory content as above in alternate Reddit path format. Included because Google has previously treated alternate URL variants separately.
- https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/kyxztrs/
- Reason: This URL has been part of the prior complaint trail and should be assessed with the rest of the thread/comment network so it is not carved out and resurfaced separately.
- https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/lnt7b2s/
- Reason: Contains the allegation that users will get hacked and have files stolen by me, and asserts poor security and deliberate drama. This is a direct allegation of hacking, theft, and unsafe conduct.
- https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/lnt7b2s/
- Reason: Same defamatory content as above in alternate Reddit path format. Included because Google has previously treated alternate URL variants separately.
- https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/lnt64ot/
- Reason: Contains the allegations that I used FTP to destroy servers, that there was a database dump, that there was SQL injection, and that I hijack user files using a token to sell and distribute them. These are direct allegations of sabotage, hacking, data misuse, and criminal misconduct.
- https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/lnt64ot/
- Reason: Same defamatory content as above in alternate Reddit path format. Included because Google has previously treated alternate URL variants separately.
- https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/ldsxli3/
- Reason: Contains the allegation that I scam people for their tokens and money. This is a direct fraud allegation.
- https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/ldsxli3/
- Reason: Same defamatory content as above in alternate Reddit path format. Included because Google has previously treated alternate URL variants separately.
- https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/l5a15bj/
- Reason: Contains the allegation that the code has malicious intent, that it removed and edited files without permission, and that it adjusted server settings without permission. These are direct allegations of malicious code and unauthorized interference.
- https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/l5a15bj/
- Reason: Same defamatory content as above in alternate Reddit path format. Included because Google has previously treated alternate URL variants separately.
- https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/nreb800/
- Reason: Promotes a competitor in the same smear context and uses the thread to direct users away from my business. This matters because it supports the competitor-driven and commercially harmful nature of the publication.
- https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/kyv8inc/
- Reason: Repeats that I am a hack, accuses me of using fake accounts, and reinforces the smear narrative as factual wrongdoing.
- https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/kyv8inc/
- Reason: Same defamatory content as above in alternate Reddit path format. Included because Google has previously treated alternate URL variants separately.
- https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/l8wyf3q/
- Reason: This URL has already been raised in the complaint trail and should be assessed with the rest of the thread/comment network so it is not carved out and resurfaced separately.
- https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/kteombn/
- Reason: Uses abusive framing and feeds into the same overall defamatory thread about me and my business.
- https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/legion_kill_feed_whats_souls_issue/kteombn/
- Reason: Same content as above in alternate Reddit path format. Included because Google has previously treated alternate URL variants separately.

EXACT MATERIAL COMPLAINED OF

The indexed and linked material publishes false statements as statements of fact, including allegations that I and/or Legion Killfeed collect and sell customer files or data, steal files, hack users or servers, destroy or sabotage servers, misuse FTP or token access, use malicious code, scam customers, hijack user files, and alter files or settings without permission.

Examples already identified in prior correspondence include allegations that:

- “Legion Killfeed is just around to collect and sell your files”;
- “Before the killfeed he deleted Greedys server files and also the servers of multiple servers he had FTP access to”;
- “The bot downloads custom files from customers and the owner Soul sells them for profit”;
- “This bot should be watched and avoided … the code has malicious intent”;
- “Soul is known to use FTP to destroy servers”;
- “If you're looking to get hacked and have your files stolen by Soul …”.

These are allegations of criminality, dishonesty, unsafe conduct, data misuse, and serious commercial misconduct. They are not harmless insults. They are not neutral summaries. They are not properly verified findings. They are presented as factual accusations and they have caused continuing reputational, commercial and personal harm.

To assist with assessment of this matter, I have a video showing the connections between the Reddit account and a direct competitor, evidence that he is pushing these accusations about me, evidence that he confessed to the very conduct he alleges against me, and evidence that all three of the people actually affected expressly stated it was not me and instead accused him. It is available here and is also attached via a Google Drive link

And my own site's link: https://killfeed.co/videos/OOPS.mp4

I expect this matter to now be resolved. This slander is currently being placed beside my business name and is indexing at 2nd result when users search for my business. That is directly causing financial harm. The attached screenshots provide a clear example of that harm in practice, because I have lost customers as a result of these search results being allowed to sit beside my business.

One of the attached screenshot sets relates to a staff member from a server that had been using my service until around 6 months ago. Those screenshots show the misinformation being repeated because of what had been surfaced about my business, and then later show that after I contacted them, they understood the issue and apologised for spreading the misinformation.

LEGAL BASIS

I rely on the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW): https://legislation.nsw.gov.au/view/whole/html/inforce/current/act-2005-077 including sections 10A, 12A, 12B, 23A, 25, 29A, 31 and 39A.

I also rely, separately and without waiving the defamation basis, on the Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth): https://www.legislation.gov.au/C2021A00076/latest/text including sections 5 and 7 and Part 7.

This email is not asking Google to remove third-party webpages from the internet. It is asking Google to assess and stop the continued surfacing, ranking, redirecting, snippet generation, and repeated amplification of clearly identified unlawful material after repeated detailed notice.

Please do not treat the different URL forms above as separate issues merely because the same material appears as:

- a direct Reddit thread URL;
- a comment URL;
- a thread/comment path variant;
- a Google redirect URL;
- a Google text-fragment URL;
- a Google share URL; or
- a Google Search results URL showing the same result.

They all concern the same complained-of material and the same continuing harm.

REQUESTED ACTION

I request that Google:

- reassess all URLs listed above together as one consolidated complaint and repeat-surfacing issue;
- delist or otherwise restrict the Reddit result(s) and associated redirect/result formats from Google Search for searches relating to “legion killfeed” and closely related brand queries;
- reassess the related connected URLs listed above that have already been raised in prior Google removals correspondence;
- confirm that my standing as the affected person is no longer in issue;
- confirm that the legal basis above is being considered under the applicable Australian law; and
- confirm receipt of the attached PDFs and screenshots and add them to the assessment record for this matter.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this notice waives any rights I may have in relation to continued publication or republication, including rights relating to preliminary discovery and, where statutory conditions are met, orders against non-party digital intermediaries concerning defamatory digital matter.

Please confirm receipt and proceed with reassessment of all listed URLs on a consolidated basis.

Regards,
Anthony “Soul” Brodie - Legion Killfeed

Google Indexing Criminal Defamation From Competitor

Platform: Google · Meta

EVENT CONTEXT

Google AI/search amplification and Joel Walker Facebook promotion

The April 24 evidence collects Google AI/search screenshots, Joe L Walker Facebook posts, Project Jackalope / MDZGA promotional content, and repeated hostile review or accusation material.

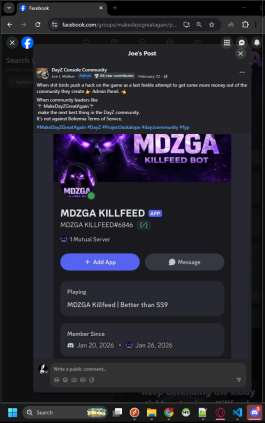

The day shows competitor material and defamatory snippets being surfaced beside brand searches while the same Facebook group is used for promotion, criticism, and repeated narrative-building

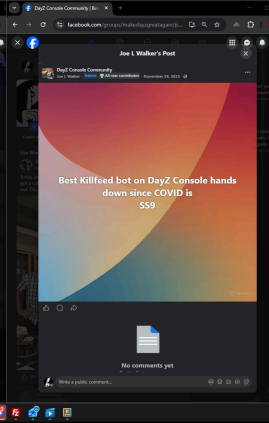

WHAT THIS SHOWS

Google AI/search results place competitor promotion and defamation-linked Facebook posts beside the brand query

Toxic Developer Conduct
While the technical features of this killfeed might seem functional, the experience is severely undercut by the developer's unprofessional conduct. For a tool meant to help manage a community, the creator consistently exhibits the opposite of leadership.
I have personally experienced and witnessed ongoing harassment, slander, and a condescending attitude toward users in the DayZ community. Instead of providing professional support, the developer frequently talks down to customers and uses their platform to belittle others. In a community-driven game like DayZ, this level of toxicity from a service provider is a major liability for any server owner looking to maintain a healthy environment. I cannot recommend this service due to the creator's persistent negative behavior.

[9-5176000040649] Your Request to Google

Legion Killfeed Thu, Apr 30, 2026 at 9:18 AM
To: removals@google.com

Not good enough. This criminal behaviour has been repeatedly reported to your criminal organisation that continues to commit a crime while hiding behind your terms of service that do not override your legal fucking obligations..
If Google refuses to remove or restrict the URLs, I request a written human-reviewed decision that answers the following:
1. Was this request reviewed by a human?
2. What jurisdiction was applied?
3. What legal basis did Google assess?
4. Why does Google consider the listed material lawful to continue surfacing after repeated notice?
5. Why does Google consider false allegations of pedophilia, hacking, fraud, data theft, malicious code and server destruction to be ordinary criticism?
6. Why does Google continue to surface this material when Reddit and Meta reporting pathways have failed?
7. How did Google account for the affected site already disavowing these domains and URLs?
8. What records will Google preserve regarding this request and prior related notices?
9. Has Google been paid by Joel Lenny Walker from Make DayZ Great Again Killfeed - mdzga.com or Mathew Trojanowski from DayZ Skynet - killfeed.com?

This is repeat formal notice. Google has been told the specific URLs, the defamatory imputations, the personal and commercial targeting, the competitor-linked context, the failed platform reporting pathways, the Google disavow action already taken, and the fact that an Australian adult and sole trader is being directly harmed.
The affected person's legal identity and contact details are provided only in the required claimant/contact fields of this legal removal request. They are intentionally not repeated in this public-facing explanation because legal removal requests may be republished or indexed by third-party transparency databases.

Google's continued indexing and surfacing of the reported defamatory URLs is legally unreasonable because Google has been placed on notice that the material is false, abusive, competitor-linked, and harmful, yet continues to favour those URLs over credible primary-source evidence already published on the affected site.
The affected site does not merely deny the allegations. It directly points users and search engines to public credibility evidence, including official DayZ developer feedback threads where the affected sole trader reported real technical issues, provided testing data, and received direct developer engagement. The affected site also includes structured data pointing to those official developer-feedback records as evidence of legitimate technical work.
That means Google has access to credible, first-party and primary-source material showing real contribution, testing, and developer engagement, while the reported Reddit/Facebook/hostile-site content consists of unsupported defamatory allegations from anonymous, hostile, or competitor-linked sources with no comparable credibility.
The affected site has also disavowed the hostile URLs and domains through Google's disavow process. This means the affected sole trader has expressly rejected those pages as abusive, spam-like, competitor-linked, and harmful search signals. Google has therefore been notified through both legal-removal channels and search-quality/disavow channels that the reported URLs should not be treated as legitimate authority, reputation, relevance, or public-interest signals for the affected site.
By continuing to index, rank, preview, or summarise the disavowed defamatory content over credible evidence published by the affected site and supported by official developer-feedback records, Google is effectively giving search preference to unverified slander over verifiable primary-source material. That is not neutral indexing after notice. It is continued post-notice amplification of defamatory and abusive content despite credible contrary evidence being available and clearly signposted.
Google should de-index or restrict the reported URLs, suppress snippets and AI-generated summaries repeating the allegations, and explain in writing if it refuses to act why it continues to favour disavowed slanderous content over credible evidence directly linked from the affected site.

The content at the listed URLs is unlawful because it constitutes defamation under the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW) and equivalent Uniform Defamation Laws across Australia.
Publication: The posts and comments are published publicly on Reddit and associated competitor websites (aggropvp.com, skynetvslegion.com), making them available to a wide audience.
Identification: The content expressly names my business, Legion Killfeed, and myself ("Soul"), so readers clearly understand the statements refer to me and my service.
Defamatory Meaning: The material accuses me and my business of misconduct, dishonesty, and other negative behavior. These statements are presented as factual assertions, not opinion, and would cause a reasonable person to think less of me or my business.
Falsity: The allegations are false. They were created and promoted by a direct competitor in order to harm my reputation and divert customers. None of the claims can be substantiated by evidence.
Harm: These statements have caused reputational and commercial damage by misleading potential customers into believing false claims.
No Defences Apply:
The statements are not substantially true (Defamation Act 2005 (NSW) s.25).
They are not "honest opinion" because they are presented as fact without a factual basis (s.31).

Re: Unknown

NOTICE TYPE: Defamation

Legal Complaint

Explanation of why the content on the above URL is unlawful (Defamation, Australia):

What the page says
The Reddit post asserts that my business, “Legion Killfeed,” “collects and sells your files” and that, “before the killfeed he deleted servers,” presented as statements of fact about my commercial conduct. These are false and materially harmful factual claims about a business.

Why this is defamatory at law
Under the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW) (as amended), a publication is defamatory where it:

identifies the claimant and is published to third parties;

conveys one or more defamatory imputations; and causes serious harm to the claimant’s reputation (s 10A serious harm threshold).

The post identifies my business by name and was published on a large public forum. It conveys imputations that I engage in theft of customer files, dishonesty, and sabotage of servers. These imputations are plainly damaging to reputation and trade. The allegations are false.

Specific defamatory imputations
The words complained of carry the following imputations:

That my business steals or misappropriates customers’ files.

That my business sells customers’ files for profit.

That I or my business delete or sabotage customers’ gaming servers.
Each imputation is false and injurious to my business reputation.

Falsity and lack of lawful defence
The allegations are false. My service for DayZ console servers does not access, copy, sell, or distribute customers’ files, nor does it have any capability to cancel or delete third-party servers. The statements are not protected “honest opinion” because they are presented as verifiable facts and are not based on true or properly stated material. They are not fair report, qualified privilege, or public-interest journalism. No recognised defence under the Act applies (for example, s 25 justification and s 29 honest opinion cannot succeed because the core assertions are untrue and stated as fact).

Serious harm and commercial impact (s 10A)
The post has diverted potential customers, caused existing subscribers to question safety, and has led to lost prospects and refund requests. The harm is more than trivial and satisfies the serious harm threshold. I am prepared to provide contemporaneous records of cancellations and sales inquiries referencing this post.

Context of competitive malice
The author is a direct commercial competitor operating a rival product. The post targets my brand name to discourage use of my service and to redirect customers. This supports an inference of malice and weighs against any defence.

Good-faith steps taken with the platform
I reported this content to Reddit and attempted resolution. Reddit has not acknowledged nor removed the post. I am therefore requesting removal from Google Search results for defamation.

Delist the URL identified above from Google Search on the basis that it contains defamatory content that is false, causes serious harm to my business reputation, and lacks any applicable defence under the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW), including s 10A (serious harm) with no available defences such as s 25 (justification) or s 29 (honest opinion). ...

Re: Unknown

Legal Complaint

The content I am requesting removal for is hosted on Reddit and forms part of a targeted smear campaign against an identifiable Australian business and its owner. The thread and linked comments publish allegations as statements of fact, including that the business “hacks”, “steals files”, “sells customer files/data”, and that the software contains “malicious code” or is used to “hack” servers. These are false, verifiable allegations. They convey serious imputations of criminality/dishonesty and unsafe conduct, and they are defamatory.

These posts have caused real-world harm, including customer cancellations, reputational damage, and off-platform harassment. The content remains live and continues to be indexed prominently for brand-related searches, where its high ranking gives it an appearance of authority and increases the likelihood that search users accept the allegations as true.

Since 2024, I have repeatedly reported the specific post and comment URLs through Reddit’s reporting tools and escalations, and I have served formal notices identifying the exact URLs and defamatory excerpts and requesting removal and preservation. Reddit has declined to remove the content, issued template-style responses that do not address the falsifiable claims, and stated it will not preserve or disclose relevant account information without valid legal process. The defamatory material remains accessible and continues to be amplified through Google Search.

Additionally, the harm is being amplified by the way Google Search surfaces and prioritises results. Because these URLs rank highly and can be selected or summarised by Google’s AI-driven features, defamatory claims are being elevated and repeated over legitimate, verifiable sources such as official business information and genuine review pages. This effectively prioritises unverified allegations as if they were authoritative, increases the likelihood users accept them as true, and directly compounds the reputational and commercial damage.

The exploitative nature of this situation is as follows:
A) The post is reasonably suspected to have been initiated by a direct competitor (or someone acting in concert with a direct competitor) with a commercial motive to damage the business.
B) There is evidence indicating that the most harmful and repeated false allegations in the thread were posted by sockpuppet accounts linked to that competitor, including activity in a subreddit where the competitor holds moderator privileges, and those accounts are responsible for the core allegations that cause the most damage.
C) The thread is being actively used as a vehicle to spread demonstrably false claims presented as fact, with the intent and effect of causing business harm, including discouraging subscriptions, provoking cancellations, and driving off-platform harassment.
D) After being served with a cease-and-desist identifying the defamatory material and requesting removal and preservation, Reddit responded by characterising the notice as “vexatious” and has since refused meaningful engagement, leaving expensive legal process as the only practical avenue for removal or preservation of relevant records.

I am requesting removal or delisting from Google Search for the URLs below because continued indexing is amplifying demonstrably false and harmful defamatory allegations about an Australian business and its owner, and those allegations are being used to cause commercial and personal harm.

Re: Unknown

NOTICE TYPE: Defamation

Legal Complaint

I am the owner/developer of Legion Killfeed (DayZ console Discord bot). The content in the URLs below is part of a targeted harassment and business sabotage campaign by a Facebook group admin who explicitly states personal hatred toward me (“I hate soul”) and then publishes repeated defamatory allegations about me and my business.

These posts include false statements presented as fact, including:
- An accusation implying child sexual abuse (“kiddy ticklers”) aimed at Legion Killfeed and its supporters.
- Claims that Legion Killfeed “reset loops” servers and “forces communities to die,” presented as factual behavior I allegedly bragged about.
- Repeated personal attacks (for example calling me a “drunk”) and claims about my conduct and business practices stated as fact.

The poster is not making neutral commentary or a genuine consumer complaint. The screenshots show clear malice and targeting (the “I hate soul” statement), and also show “Bump” comments used to keep defamatory posts active and visible, consistent with SEO manipulation behavior (keeping the smear content surfaced and re-circulating so it ranks and gets re-shown).

This has measurable harm: Google Search’s AI Mode is now summarizing “controversy” about Legion Killfeed and pointing users toward these Facebook allegations. In other words, Google’s AI output is amplifying and legitimizing defamatory content by repeating it as part of a reputation summary, pushing users to view and trust the accusations.

I am requesting removal/delisting of the specific URLs listed below from Google Search results (and any AI summaries/snippets derived from them), because they contain defamatory false statements and targeted harassment intended to damage my reputation and business.

Defamatory / targeted harassment posts by the same admin in “DayZ Console Community”:
https://www.facebook.com/groups/makedayzgreatagain/permalink/1480886512993169/
https://www.facebook.com/groups/makedayzgreatagain/posts/1481591939589293/
https://www.facebook.com/groups/makedayzgreatagain/permalink/1493441605070993
https://www.facebook.com/groups/makedayzgreatagain/posts/1467851097630044/

The “help/setup” post that is being twisted into competitor promotion and then surfaced by AI systems:
https://www.facebook.com/groups/dayzeditors/posts/1385739236246930/

The author is an admin of the group and publicly states “I hate soul” and then publishes multiple posts accusing me and my business of serious misconduct. This is not an honest review. It is targeted harassment designed to harm reputation and steer users away from Legion Killfeed. The author also posts “Bump” to keep defamatory posts active and visible, consistent with an attempt to manipulate visibility and search discovery.

When users search for Legion Killfeed terms, Google’s AI Mode produces a “Community Reputation” section that states there is “controversy” and points to “Facebook” discussions as support. These “Facebook discussions” are the defamatory posts listed above. This causes additional harm by repeating and legitimizing unverified defamatory allegations as part of an AI-generated reputation summary, driving more traffic to the smear content.

Project Jackelope DayZ

Searching for community opinions on "Project Jackalope" outside of its official Facebook group primarily yields very negative feedback and complaints from the video game DayZ community. The search results indicate a history of poor server performance and hostile interactions with the administration and owner, leading to players being unfairly banned.

Key criticisms of Project Jackalope based on community feedback include:

- Toxic administration: Several players allege that the owner, sometimes referred to as "Jack" or "Jackalope," and his administration team are immature, toxic, and unhelpful. They reportedly do not address player concerns and insult members of the community.
- Abuse of power and unfair bans: Reports on Reddit describe administrators unfairly banning players for minor or unsubstantiated reasons. One user claims their faction was banned for asking a question and was mocked by an admin. Another Reddit user describes being banned after a new friend they met on the server was accused of cheating, and an admin was not receptive to a defense.
- Favoritism and raiding: Multiple accounts suggest that the admins collude with or favor high-tier donators. One player alleges the server owner streamed himself raiding their base early into their time on the server, resulting in repeated harassment.
- Accepting donations without addressing concerns: The administration is criticized for being more focused on accepting donations than on fixing bugs or addressing community feedback. Some players report paying for items to be spawned near their bases.
- Poor server performance: A Facebook post from 2020 complains that the Project Jackalope server suffered from "wonky" loot and significant lag, making it unplayable.
- Hostile interactions with the owner: A commenter on a December 2024 Facebook post suggested searching for the server's owner, described as "toxic," to see how the owner acts.

The opinions found stand in stark contrast to the positive posts found within Project Jackalope's own controlled Facebook groups, which often praise the servers and owner.

Project Jackelope DayZ

Allegations of spamming, promotion of propaganda, and toxic behavior have been made against Project Jackalope and its owner, Joel Walker, by various players within the DayZ community. These accusations often surface in forums and community hubs, including Reddit and Facebook.

Claims against Project Jackalope

- Controversial owner and administration: Community discussions often focus on the server owner and administrators, with some players describing them as unprofessional and rude. These criticisms suggest that staff behavior can create a negative and toxic environment.
- Abuse of power and favoritism: Multiple players have claimed they were unfairly banned for minor infractions, especially if they came into conflict with paying "VIP" members or administrators in-game. Some community members perceive favoritism towards donators, leading to a corrupt and unbalanced playing field.
- Questionable donation practices: Concerns have been raised about the project's donation system, which includes expensive packages. Some players feel this creates a pay-to-win environment, with donators receiving special privileges.
- Excessive promotion and spamming: The "Make DayZ Great Again" movement associated with Project Jackalope has been criticized for using spamming and propaganda tactics to promote its servers. Some players and admins of other DayZ groups have reported banning Project Jackalope members for aggressive promotion in their communities.

Project Jackelope DayZ

User reviews and community discussions indicate that Project Jackalope and its owner, "JackJackalope," have faced serious accusations of admin abuse, favoritism, and creating a toxic environment. Complaints stretch back several years, suggesting the issues are not isolated incidents but a pattern of alleged misconduct within the community.

Accusations and user complaints

Multiple users have posted warnings about Project Jackalope on Reddit, Facebook, and other gaming forums, describing incidents of alleged abuse:

- Arbitrary bans: Several players claim they were banned for unfair or arbitrary reasons. In a 2025 Reddit post, one user alleged that their friend was banned for cheating based on flimsy "evidence" that was never revealed. When the user tried to get more information, they were also banned from the Discord server. A similar incident was reported in 2020 on the r/DayZServers subreddit.
- Admin favoritism and abuse of power: The community owner and administrators have been accused of abusing their power, often to the benefit of "VIP" donors. In a 2020 post, a player claimed the server owner streamed himself raiding their base, which led to their group being raided multiple times. The group was later banned after questioning an announced change to base damage rules.
- Toxic and unprofessional communication: Users consistently report that admins and the owner communicate rudely and dismissively. In a 2020 complaint, a player was asked "are you crying?" after they suggested adding a rules channel to the Discord. They were then banned for "spamming" after responding.
- Monetization concerns: Some players have raised concerns about the server's monetization practices, suggesting that donations buy influence rather than simply supporting the server. One user mentioned a "$250 VIP package" and noted that a pattern of "sketchy events" seemed to revolve around these high-paying players.

Conclusion

Based on the available community feedback, Project Jackalope has a divisive reputation. While it provides a popular platform for custom DayZ servers on both PC and console, a significant number of players report negative experiences involving alleged admin abuse, favoritism towards donors, and a toxic community environment.

Hello Google Search Removals Team,

This is a structured follow-up for Case 7-4274000039113. It provides (1) the exact URLs, (2) the unlawful or defamatory content, and (3) supporting evidence links.

I am Anthony Gordon Brodie ("Soul"), an Australian software developer (ABN 28 387 377 607), owner of Legion Killfeed - https://killfeed.co.

Requested delisting URLs (exact content URLs)

1. https://aggropvp.com/ - fraudulent DMCA page used to imply legal authority and attack credibility
2. https://aggropvp.com/video_player.html
3. https://skynetvslegion.com/
4. Reddit thread and comments (direct URLs)

   https://www.reddit.com/r/DayZDiscussions/comments/19e9o29/comment/lnt64ot/

URLs to review/delist:
https://aggropvp.com/
https://aggropvp.com/video_player.html

What is happening:
AggroPVP.com publishes a page presented as a DMCA notice with a case reference "DMCA-2024-RR-001987" and a "REMOVED" status. It is designed to look like a legitimate legal takedown record and to imply legal action or wrongdoing associated with me or my service.

The page includes a "Redirecting to Legal Information Portal" flow, but it redirects to:
https://aggropvp.com/video_player.html
This page plays "Never Gonna Give You Up" (Rick Astley). The "RR" in the case identifier is consistent with the rickroll reference. This is a fraudulent use of a DMCA styled page to impersonate a legal process and cause reputational harm by creating a fake "legal takedown" record.

Additional harm (explicit reference required):
The same AggroPVP.com site is used for targeted harassment, including targeting my fiancée and publishing intimate images of me and images of my children. This is captured in the evidence file below:
https://they-wish-i-died.space/harrassment/2025-09-29-aggropvpdotcom.jpg

Prior registrar abuse history. A prior abuse thread documenting action taken for harassment and defamation is here: https://they-wish-i.died.space/harrassment/2023-09-29-porkbun-email-thread.pdf

Evidence for the fraudulent DMCA page:

2. SkynetVSLegion.com - defamatory "comparison" page containing false statements presented as fact

URL to review/delist:
https://skynetvslegion.com/

Exact defamatory statements (copied as plain text, as requested):

- "Issues: Allegations of code theft and unethical practices; a paid service with customer support complaints."
- "Website: Limited looks like a 5 year made it. Lacking all functions to make it even useful other then command lists."
- "Legion Killfeed has faced criticism for being a paid service and allegations of code theft and unethical practices. Users have reported issues with customer support and accusations of slander against competitors."

Why this violates my rights / is illegal under applicable law:

- These statements are published to the public, identify my product and business, and assert serious misconduct as if it is established ("code theft", "unethical practices"). They are presented as factual issues, not opinion, and they cause reputational and commercial harm. This is defamatory in Australia and forms part of an ongoing competitor-led campaign.

SkynetVSLegion.com presents itself as a factual comparison, but it omits relevant context about Skynet falsifying its own stats output. Using Skynet's published Score formula and their displayed card numbers, the printed scores and KDRs contradict the inputs and basic DayZ logic (example summary below). This is relevant to credibility, motive, and bad faith.

Additional context showing bias and bad faith (falsified data issue):

Skynet score formula (as published by Skynet):
Base = Kills x 3.0 + Deaths x -1.5 + Headshots x 2.0 + Killstreak x 2.0 + Deathstreak x -0.5 + Damage x 0.08 + Distance x 0.4 (cap 1250 per event);
Bonuses: if headshot rate >= 0.5 add +1.5 per event. If damage per kill >= 150 add +0.03 per damage.
Multiplier: if KD >= 2.5 use x2.5. Otherwise use x2.0.
Cards do not expose streak counts or per-kill distances, so those results must be treated as 0, creating a strict lower bound score.

From the screenshot:
#1 duck: K=1.5M, D=1.5M, HS=257.9k, DMG=51.4M, KD shown=87,701.83, Score shown=7.5M.
#2 [XB] ALL CAR PVP RACE: K=1.4M, D=1.4M, HS=243.1k, DMG=134.8M, KD shown=103,607.45, Score shown=9.0M.

Reality: K=D on both, so true KD=1.0. HS rate is about 0.17 on both, and damage per kill is 34.3 and 96.3, so bonuses do not apply. Multiplier is x2.0.

Lower bound scores (streaks 0, distance 0):
#1 Base = 3K - 1.5D + 2HS + 0.08DMG = 6,877,800, then x2.0 = 13,755,600. Printed score 7,500,000 is below the minimum.
#2 Base = 13,370,200, then x2.0 = 26,740,400. Printed score 9,000,000 is below the minimum.

KD contradiction: with K=D the KD must be 1.0. Printed KDs of 87,701.83 and 103,607.45 imply deaths of about 17 and 14, not 1.5M and 1.4M.

Damage per kill check: DayZ player health is 100. Averages of 34.3 and 96.3 per kill do not support kill counts.

Conclusion: Using Skynet's own published system, the displayed stats contradict themselves. SkynetVSLegion.com does not disclose this, and presents a biased and factually unreliable comparison while publishing false defamatory allegations about my business.

3. Reddit - coordinated defamation campaign, request reconsideration of delisting refusal

Google previously advised contacting the webmaster. I have done so and issued formal notices. Reddit has refused to remove the content and has treated repeated reports as "duplicative / frivolous / vexatious / bad faith" despite the content being defamatory and part of ongoing targeted harassment. Google Search distribution is the primary amplification mechanism, and delisting is the only practical remedy to limit ongoing harm via search.

Primary thread and comments (direct URLs listed at the top of this email).

Core defamatory claims (published in thread and screenshots):

- "The code has malicious intent"
- "It removed and edited my files without my permission"
- "It adjusted server settings"
- "Soul has screwed over other owners"

These are presented as factual personal experience claims to dissuade others from using my service and damage my business reputation.

Evidence:

4. Identity linkage and coordinated campaign (context)
   The campaign and linked properties are connected through recurring identifiers and cross-promotion:
   https://they-wish-i.died.space/harrassment/2025-09-19-kamikaze-is-mathew-trojanowski.jpg
   https://they-wish-i.died.space/harrassment/2025-12-22-connecting-website-to-discord-plus-website-threat-then-denial.png

Requested Google Search action:

A) Delist the AggroPVP fraudulent DMCA page and its redirect: https://aggropvp.com/ & https://aggropvp.com/video_player.html

B) Delist the SkynetVSLegion defamatory comparison page: https://skynetvslegion.com/

C) Reconsider the Reddit delisting refusal for the URLs listed, given Reddit's refusal to remove after formal notice, and the ongoing defamation and targeted harassment.

This matter also includes targeted harassment involving my fiancée and the publication of intimate images of me and images of my children (see https://they-wish-i.died.space/harrassment/2025-09-29-aggropvpdotcom.jpg). Google Search visibility continues to compound reputational, personal, and family harm.

If you need any specific quote transcribed as plain text from any screenshot above, tell me which URL you are assessing and I will provide the exact lines as plain text in the next reply.

The PDF "2025-12-22-google-take-down-7-4274000039113.pdf" is my last attempt at replying, originally it included an attachment MP4 ("2025-12-22-dmca-rick-rolled.mp4"), which appears to have triggered the size limit. 5. Why these URLs are defamatory and why harm is ongoing
   The Reddit thread and competitor sites publish false factual claims about me and my business, including allegations of criminal conduct (fraud), technical sabotage, and misuse of customer data. These are not opinions or fair comment. They are presented as factual allegations, and they have caused substantial reputational and business harm.

   The harm is ongoing and amplified because these URLs are prominent in Google Search results for "Legion Killfeed" (currently appearing near the top results in Australia as shown in my screenshot evidence).

6. Broader context (competitor-driven, cross-platform harassment)
   This is not isolated criticism. It is a sustained campaign by competitors and their associates, propagated across:

   - Reddit (defamatory thread and comments),
   - competitor smear websites (skynetvslegion.com and aggropvp.com),
   - Facebook/Meta (republishing of serious false allegations), and it has escalated beyond commercial disparagement into harassment and safety risk. I have reported these issues to platforms and regulators. Key evidence is included in the attached PDFs.
7. Request to Google
   Please do the following:

A) Confirm you will evaluate this as an individual defamation delisting request (Anthony Gordon Brodie, identified as "Soul"), not as a "company only" complaint.

B) Proceed with delisting assessment for the URLs listed in section 4.

C) Confirm in writing that corporate-only documentation requests (ACN, issued shares, corporate holdings) are not required where the affected entity is an Individual/Sole Trader, and confirm what you require instead (for example: ABN record plus a statutory declaration).

D) Provide the correct Google process or contact channel to report suspected abuse of legal processes and fraudulent DMCA claims being used as part of this campaign (including whether any DMCA notices have been submitted to Google products referencing my domains, content, or media).

Sincerely,
Anthony Gordon Brodie
